THE HERALD PRINTS AND SELLS 2,500 MORE PAPERS ON SUNDAY THAN ANY OTHER NEWSPAPER IN UTAH

ONLY BROOKLYN WOULD ANSWER, SURELY:
Wanted by married couple, upper part of modern up-to-date two-family house, with owner preferred; refined neighborhood; no children or piano; must be in Brooklyn; possession about Sept. 20. Please address Quiet, Box 110, Sun office.—New York Evening Sun.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD.

Experience is a good teacher, but she sends in terrific bills.
If you want some concrete evidence of that fact, consult the advertiser who is given to taking "flyers."—Robert Frothingham.

Established June 6, 1870. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, MONDAY, AUGUST 17, 1908 10 PAGES, Price Five Cents.

SPRINGFIELD PATROLLED BY WHITE TROOPS

Entire National Guard of Illinois on Duty Except Two Negro Regiments.

TWO VICTIMS ADDED TO LIST OF THE DEAD

COUNCIL OF WAR HELD BY GOV. DENEEN—OFFICIALS ARE APPREHENSIVE.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 16.—Troops have been called to Allen and Spring streets, near the scene of last night's lynching. An effort has also been made to cut the telephone wires into the city hall, by which reports are received from outlying stations.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 16.—With the arrival here today of the Second and Seventh infantry regiments, I. N. G., and two squadrons of the First cavalry, all from Chicago, the entire national guard of Illinois, with the exception of the Sixth infantry and the Eighth infantry, colored, was on duty in the riot-ridden districts tonight.

In all 4,200 guardsmen are in the city. Two deaths due to the violence of Friday and Saturday occurred at St. John's hospital. William Donigan, the aged negro whose throat was cut last night, expired at 11 a. m. Frank Delmore, who was shot through the lungs Friday night, died an hour later.

Council of War Held.

This brings the list of violent deaths during the race troubles up to five. A council of war was held at the capitol at 4 o'clock this afternoon by Governor Deneen, Major General Young, Adjutant General Scott, General F. P. Wells and Colonel J. B. Sanborn. At the meeting a plan was adopted which it is believed will render further demonstration improbable. Colonel Sanborn was given command of a provisional brigade consisting of the First and Second infantry regiments, with instructions to preserve the peace in the territory west of Seventh street.

Guarding the Statehouse.

The two regiments established headquarters on the capitol grounds in shelter tents bordering the state house on three sides. General F. P. Wells was placed in command of a second provisional brigade, consisting of nine companies of the Fourth infantry, three companies of the Third infantry and twelve companies of the Fifth infantry. General Wells, with headquarters at the county jail, immediately posted guards to cover the city east of Seventh street. Troops B and G of the First cavalry were detailed under Major Frank Bush at division headquarters, under command of Major General Young.

Arrival of the Second.

The Second infantry reached the city at 8:30 p. m. under command of Colonel John Garrity. The manner in which a line of skirmishers was thrown out as the guardsmen debarked from the train gained applause from the crowd which gathered at the railroad station to watch the arrival. The khaki-clad militiamen marched to the capitol to the beat of a fife and drum quickstep, and the assignment to Colonel Sanborn's brigade followed. As it was nearly midnight when the Seventh infantry and the First cavalry troopers arrived, no brigade assignments were given them. They probably will be detailed as reinforcements to the two brigades already formed.

Refugees Asked to Return.

Governor Deneen said this afternoon that he wished to so protect the city that the negroes who fled will return.

"We can protect them here and we cannot when they scatter about the country," said the governor. "If they will come back we will give them food and shelter in government tents."

At the conference in the governor's of-

Continued on Page 2.

AGE LIMIT FOR "FIGHTING BOB"

Rear Admiral Robley Evans to Go on Retired List Tomorrow.

UTAH GAVE HIM THE START

FRIENDS HOPE HE WILL BE CREATED VICE ADMIRAL.

Mohonk Lake, N. Y., Aug. 16.—On Tuesday evening Rear Admiral Robley Evans, "Fighting Bob," will have concluded forty-eight years of service in the United States navy, and being then at the age of 62, he will go on the retired list. The admiral, unable to use one foot because of the illness which compelled him to leave the fleet in San Francisco harbor—a reminder of the wound received at Fort Fisher forty-three years ago—but mentally alert and vigorous, is at the Lake Mohonk house, where he has his family spending the summer.

The guests of the hotel are planning a celebration befitting the official close of a remarkable naval career. Elaborate exercises have been planned.

Loving Cup for Admiral.

J. Edward Simmons, president of the New York chamber of commerce, will preside and deliver an address, and Andrew S. Draper, commissioner of education of the state of New York, on behalf of the guests will present to Admiral Evans a magnificent loving cup provided by popular subscriptions. Letters from the president of the United States, many admirals of the navy and other distinguished men will be read.

In the parlor, where the exercises will be held, will be the flags, one the flag that floated over the Iowa when that vessel, under the command of Admiral Evans, took part in the battle of Santiago; the other, the flag of the Connecticut under which the admiral made the voyage from Hampton Roads to San Francisco.

Among those expected to do honor to the hero of the ocean are Governor Hughes, distinguished naval and army officers and many other prominent men.

Remarkable Career.

Washington, Aug. 16.—With the retirement from active service next Tuesday of Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans ("Fighting Bob") the United States navy loses one of the most picturesque figures that ever trod a quarter deck.

Forty-five years ago Evans, as a young ensign, received his baptism of fire at Fort Fisher during the civil war.

It has been his fortune to command the greatest fleet of fighting ships ever assembled under the American flag, and many of his countrymen still are hopeful that congress will honor him by creating him a vice admiral, a rank second only to that of the Manila bay hero, Admiral Dewey.

"Fighting Bob" Evans was born in Floyd county, Virginia, Aug. 18, 1846, sixty-two years ago. He came to Washington at the age of 11 to live with his uncle, a newspaper man, upon the death of his father, Dr. Samuel Andrew Jackson Evans.

Appointed From Utah.

Securing an appointment to the naval academy from the territory of Utah, he entered that institution Sept. 15, 1860. When war broke out between the states, his mother, assuming that he would take arms for his state against his country, sent in his resignation to Washington and it was promptly accepted. Young Evans was determined, however, to stand by the Union, even against his own family, and had himself reappointed, greatly to his mother's chagrin. He was graduated in 1863 and served with honor throughout the remainder of the conflict.

Battle of Santiago.

He became a lieutenant in 1866, a lieutenant commander two years later and a commander in 1878. He reached the grade of captain in 1893 and as such officer he served through the Spanish-American war, commanding the battleship Iowa in the battle of Santiago. He was promoted to the rank of rear admiral in 1901, thus reaching the highest rung in the ladder possible without the aid of a special act of congress.

During the period of strained relations with Chile he earned the sobriquet of "Fighting Bob." He was in command of the gunboat Yorktown, stationed at Val-

Continued on Page 2.

CHEYENNE WILD WEST CONTESTS

Broncho Busting Champions From Hawaiian Islands Already on the Ground.

NEW FEATURES THIS YEAR

HORSE AND AUTOMOBILE RACE, DENVER TO CHEYENNE.

(Special to The Herald.)

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 16.—Eben P. Low, champion one-armed broncho buster and steer roper of the world, with his party of champion busters and ropers, have arrived at Cheyenne. They will at once begin preparations for the contests during the Frontier fair days. There will probably be no one to dispute Mr. Low's title, but he will give an exhibition of roping and broncho busting each day, just to show the spectators that he can perform even with one arm gone. With Mr. Low is Iku Purdy, the Hawaiian who last winter defeated Angus McPhee, the American champion roper, at Honolulu. Purdy has roped in 38 4-5 seconds, which is two seconds slower than the world's record, held by C. B. Irwin of Cheyenne. McPhee's record is 37 seconds. The three Hawaiian broncho busting champions who last winter defeated Johnnie Winter of Fort Collins, Colo., one of the most expert and daring riders ever seen in the west, are in the party and all will attempt to win the world's championship now held by Clayton Danks of Shoshone, Wyo. The Hawaiians have engaged horses and will practice daily until the big show begins.

Steer Roping Contest.

The steer roping contests this year promise to be the best that have ever been seen here. The steers have been selected with a view to speed. They are medium weight and will afford the ropers a good chance to rope and tie in record breaking time without so much danger of breaking ropes, etc. The animals constitute a wild bunch, and only the most expert roper will stand a chance of getting into the finals. The committee this year has been very careful to accept entries only from experts and well known performers, so as to insure a fine exhibition.

In addition to Iku Purdy, the present champion roper, there will be ex-Champion Angus McPhee, ex-Champion C. B. Irwin, Hugh Clark, Angus McDonald, Clay McGonigle, champion of the southwest; O. C. Nation, champion of Texas; Peter Dickerson, champion of Arizona; Buster Gardiner of Arizona, Roland McDonald of Diamond, Wyo., Ray Varnum of Emerson, Ia., P. J. Walters of Glendive, Mont., H. R. Tipton of Denver, Sam Scoville, Nelson Perry, Carl Smith, Clayton Danks, Frank Irwin, all of Cheyenne; Hugh Stembler of La Grange, Wyo., John Rick of Little Horse Creek, Wyo., and many others.

Broncho Busting.

The warmest rivalry exists between the numerous candidates for the broncho busting championship. Clayton Danks, present holder of the title, will be opposed by ex-Champions Harry Brennan, now with Buffalo Bill's Wild West show; Sam Scoville of Cheyenne, Guy Holt of Hecla,

Continued on Page 2.

GREAT DAY FOR LITTLE UTICA

James S. Sherman to Be Officially Notified of Nomination Tuesday.

Utica, N. Y., Aug. 16.—No event in the history of Utica has brought forth decorations so elaborate or plans so extensive for a single day as those for Tuesday, when Congressman James S. Sherman will be officially notified that he has been nominated by the Republicans for the office of vice president. All this part of the state will help to celebrate the event. The festivities will begin at 7 a. m., when a salute of nineteen guns will be fired, to be followed two hours later with a parade through the principal streets. At 11 o'clock the notification committee will proceed behind a band of 100 pieces to the home of Mr. Sherman on Genesee street.

The notification exercises will take place about noon.

Senator J. C. Burrows of Michigan, the chairman of the notification committee, will address Mr. Sherman and the latter will respond.

Secretary of State Elihu Root, a warm friend of Mr. Sherman, will likewise deliver an address, as will Mayor Thomas Wheeler of Utica, Charles S. Symonds, chairman of the citizens' reception committee, and President M. W. Stryker of Hamilton college. These and invited guests will be entertained at luncheon following the ceremonies.

At 6 o'clock Mr. Sherman will give a dinner to the notification committee and invited guests at the Yahmundasis Golf clubhouse. At 7:30 band concerts, an electric display and fireworks will add to the scenes of gaiety.

The affair will be a grand holiday in honor of Mr. Sherman.

POLITICS WILL HOLD FULL SWAY ALL OVER THE COUNTRY THE PRESENT WEEK

Bryan to Make Speech at Des Moines and Taft at Hot Springs—Sherman and Chafin to Be Notified.

Political activity throughout the country will be quickened this week by several interesting events. Congressman James S. Sherman will be officially notified of his nomination as vice presidential candidate by the Republicans in Utica, on Tuesday. Senator Burrows, chairman of the notification committee, will deliver an address on behalf of the committee, and Mr. Sherman will respond. On the same day, in Chicago, E. W. Chafin, the Prohibition candidate for president, will be formally notified of his nomination. The notification address will be delivered by Professor Charles Scanlon, who was permanent chairman of the Prohibition convention. Mr. Chafin will make a speech of acceptance. Professor A. S. Watkins, the Prohibition vice presidential nominee, will speak at Lynn, Mass., on Monday; at Auburn, N. Y., on Tuesday, and the latter part of the week he will spend in Maine.

Friday has been designated for a rally of Virginia Republicans at Hot Springs, Va. William H. Taft will make a political speech from the porch of the club house adjacent to the hotel.

Bryan at Des Moines Friday.

William J. Bryan, the Democratic nominee, will deliver a speech on the tariff at Des Moines, Ia., on Friday, and will leave that night for Chicago, where he will attend a conference of Democratic leaders. Mr. Bryan expects to remain in Chicago for three days.

Chairman Hitchcock of the Republican national committee, will attend the Sherman notification ceremonies in Utica on Tuesday, going from there to Boston, where he will meet the New England Republican leaders on Thursday.

Chairman Mack expects to open Democratic headquarters in New York during the week. He will probably go to Chicago the latter part of the week to participate in the conference with Mr. Bryan.

Minnesota Democratic Convention.

Minnesota Democrats will hold their state convention in Minneapolis on Wednesday.

The Atlantic battleship fleet is due at Sydney, Australia, from Auckland on Thursday for a seven-day stop.

Orville Wright, who, with his brother, is under contract with the government to supply an aeroplane that will make a flight of five miles, straightaway and return at a speed of forty miles an hour, expects to go to Washington from Dayton, O., on Monday, to prepare for the test which must be made by the end of September.

The trial of L. Whan Chang, charged with the murder of Durham White Stevens, adviser to the Korean government, which was postponed in July last, is expected to begin in San Francisco Monday.

NOTED LAWYERS WILL BE THERE

Second Annual Convention of National Association of Attorneys General.

Denver, Aug. 16.—At least twenty-five states will be represented at the second annual convention of the National Association of Attorneys General, which meets at the Colorado state capital Thursday and Friday next, Aug. 20 and 21. Following is the program:

Annual address of the president, Herbert S. Hadley, attorney general of Missouri; "The Results of Anti-Trust Legislation," Frank B. Kellogg of St. Paul, Minn. Discussion by R. V. Davidson, attorney general of Texas. "Inadequacies or Deficiencies of Criminal Statutes in the Prosecution of Municipal Grafters," Francis J. Heney of San Francisco. Discussion by R. C. Stoddard, attorney general of Nevada. "The New Question of State's Rights," Alexander M. Garber, attorney general of Wyoming. "Fourteenth Amendment," R. V. Fletcher, attorney general of Mississippi. Discussion by U. S. Webb, attorney general of California. "State Regulation of the Liquor Traffic," Frank S. Jackson, attorney general of Kansas. Discussion by W. H. Stead, attorney general of Illinois. "Experiments in Government," Charles West, attorney general of Oklahoma. Discussion by W. T. Thompson, attorney general of Nebraska. "The Duties of Attorney General," S. W. Clark, attorney general of South Dakota. Discussion by E. S. Clark, attorney general of Arizona.

BATTLE IN THE NORTHWEST

Democratic National Committee Prepared to Contest Every Inch of Ground.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—A fight to swing the northwestern states into the Democratic column is being outlined by the Democratic national committee and Chairman Mack is contemplating a trip to the west to rally the leaders of the party along the Pacific coast to vigorous action. Reports received at Democratic headquarters here indicate, the leaders say, that Montana and other states in the mountain region are forming a promising battle ground for the Democrats. John H. Atwood, head of the speakers' bureau, said tonight that he would be prepared to send many well known speakers into the western territory to wage a lively campaign in every debatable district.

Chairman Mack expects to make his western trip during the latter part of September.

National Committeeman Martin J. Wade of Iowa left here tonight for Buffalo, where he will open the national campaign tomorrow night in New York with a speech under the auspices of the national committee.

POINT WILL NOT BE OVERLOOKED

Plan of Democratic National Committee Regarding the Bank Guaranty Plank.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 16.—A suggestion novel in its character and regarded by Democratic leaders as one calculated to strengthen the party in the campaign will be acted upon by the Democratic national committee upon the occasion of the visit of William J. Bryan to Chicago next week. Much stress is being laid by the Democratic nominee on the plank in the Denver platform relating to the guarantee of bank deposits, and this topic will be discussed quite fully by him in his speech at Topeka Aug. 27. If the suggestion is followed, and there is reason to believe it will be, every community in which a bank has failed during the last year or more will be given especial attention by the literary bureau. The sufferers from the failures will be sought out and provided with arguments through which it is hoped to convince them of the soundness of the guaranty plank.

Bryan at Church.

Mr. Bryan today, as usual, attended morning services at the little Methodist church in Fairview. In the afternoon a number of automobilists from Lincoln, among them Mayor Frank W. Brown, rode out and paid neighborly visits to the Bryan family. When the party arrived, Mr. Bryan was out on his farm, but he was notified of the presence of his callers and quickly returned to the house.

Matters political were not touched upon.

As his visitors were leaving, some one suggested to him that he had room for a full golf course, but he expressed a preference for baseball, remarking that the national game was a co-operative one, whereas playing golf one had to "go it" more or less alone.

PROHIBITIONISTS WILL TACKLE SOUTH DAKOTA

Chicago, Aug. 16.—National Chairman Charles R. Jones of the Prohibition party announced today that it had been decided to make a vigorous fight for the South Dakota vote for Chafin and Watkins, presidential and vice presidential candidates of that party.

Mr. Jones held a conference today with Quincy Lee Morrow, secretary of the South Dakota Prohibition committee, concerning the situation in that state. Plans were made to have both candidates make a number of addresses in the state during October.

OPENED TO TRAFFIC.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Aug. 16.—The new West Nebish channel, which cost $4,000,000, was opened to traffic this morning.

J. W. VAN CLEAVE IN LIMELIGHT

Spokesman of the Manufacturers Makes Attempt to Answer Mr. Bryan.

DENVER PLATFORM WRONG

PLUNGERS AND GRAFTERS IN MANY OF OUR BANKS.

St. Louis, Aug. 16.—James W. Van Cleave, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, today issued an answer to a recent reply by William J. Bryan to an article by Mr. Van Cleave a few weeks ago which pointed out certain especial reasons why, according to Mr. Van Cleave, business men should vote against Mr. Bryan. Speaking today, he says that the injunction, tariff and banking planks of the Denver platform assail the interests of every man in the country who is engaged in any sort of trade.

Says Platform Is False.

"The falsity of the insinuation in the Denver platform that labor unions are outlawed," Mr. Van Cleave says, "is shown by the fact that their members continue in their regular employment on every working day in the year in every town in the United States. Every member of the Lincoln Typographical union, at whose banquet he was a guest on the evening before his formal notification of nomination, could have told Mr. Bryan that there is not a vestige of truth in the pretense that any act of congress or any ruling of any federal court ever forbade any labor union to organize, to ask such wages from employers as the union saw fit to ask, or to make any terms of employment which would be agreeable to both parties."

He then asks: "Does not Mr. Bryan, as a lawyer and a public man, know that his platform charges are false?"

Wants an Answer.

He tells Mr. Bryan that the National Association of Manufacturers, like the courts, has always recognized the right of the unions to get any terms from employers in which amicable agreement could be gained, but that the association always opposed the intimidation and violence which, he says, have sometimes been practiced by some of the unions. "Does he personally favor the legalization of the boycott?" Mr. Van Cleave asks, and he adds that the country is interested in getting a plain, direct answer from Mr. Bryan on this point, and in getting it just as quickly as he can give it.

Speaking of the guaranty fund which the Denver platform urges for the payment of depositors of insolvent national or state banks, Mr. Van Cleave asks:

Dishonest and Reckless Bankers.

"Does not Mr. Bryan know that this vicious provision would penalize the honest and careful banker for the benefit of the banker who is dishonest and reckless? Can he not see that this scheme would remove all the safeguards which our present laws have raised up against such plungers and grafters as have worked their way into the control of many of our banks; that it would immediately and immensely increase the number of such bankers, and that it would precipitate an era of extravagance, wild speculation and corruption which would wreck our whole financial system? Is not Mr. Bryan aware that his wildcat banking scheme of 1908 would bring chaos and ruin to the country even quicker and in larger measure than his silver debasement of the currency of 1896 and 1900 would have brought it?"

PASSENGERS ABOARD MISSING STEAMER

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—In connection with the non-arrival of the British steamer Aeon, which sailed from this port for Auckland forty days ago, it has been learned that she was carrying as passengers Mrs. William Riddle, wife of Lieutenant Riddle of the battleship Maine, and Chaplain and Mrs. Patrick of the United States navy.

The Aeon is a freight ship and has no charter to carry passengers. The anxiety of the navy people to reach their destination was the cause of their shipping on this vessel.

Mrs. Riddle was bound for Apia, Samoa, where her husband is. Chaplain and Mrs. Patrick are accompanied by their two children.

ACTOR WILL RECOVER.

New York, Aug. 16.—Tony Pastor, the veteran actor and manager, who for several days past has been critically ill, is rapidly mending. His physicians now believe he will recover.

BROTHER HELD AS ACCESSORY

Captain and Thornton Haines Will Be Arraigned for Murder Today.

STORY OF AN EYEWITNESS

ANNIS DIED PROTESTING INNOCENCE OF WRONGDOING.

New York, Aug. 16.—The arraignment of Captain Peter C. Haines, jr., U. S. A., who yesterday shot and killed William Annis, advertising manager of Recreation and Burr Intosh's monthly, was postponed today until tomorrow by Magistrate Mathew J. Smith in the First district court at Long Island City. Similar action was taken in the case of N. J. Haines, brother of Peter C. Haines, who held the crowd at bay with a drawn revolver while the captain accomplished his work of vengeance.

Brothers Cool and Collected.

The two men were removed to Long Island City this morning from the Flushing police station, where they spent the night in separate cells and were at once taken before Magistrate Smith. The brothers appeared absolutely unperturbed and neither showed any trace of the uncomfortable night spent in jail. They showed some embarrassment while having handcuffs placed upon them, but soon regained their equanimity.

During the ride to Long Island City in the Flushing patrol wagon, both the captain and his brother calmly smoked cigarettes.

After the postponement of the case Captain Haines and his brother were once more handcuffed and taken to the Queens county jail, where they were given a large and comfortable cell, on the second floor.

Story of Eyewitness.

Charles H. Roberts, who helped to pull Annis out of the water after he had been shot, and who was prevented from going to his assistance by Thornton Haines' leveled revolver, said today in recounting the incidents of yesterday's shooting:

"Annis was seated at the tiller of his sloop bringing her to the float. Louis Harway, who was in the boat with Annis, was forwarding her off float. Haines saw Harway first and walking up to him pressed his revolver against his chest. Harway, thinking the whole performance a joke, playfully brushed the man's arm away. Haines by that time had realized his mistake and, crouching down so as to get on a level with Annis, who as I say, was sitting in the stern of the boat, emptied his revolver into him.

Wife Saw Husband Killed.

"Annis was in his bathing suit, unarmed, defenseless and unprepared. With the firing of the first shot, Mrs. Annis, who with fully half a hundred ladies and children, was on the pier watching the preparations for the usual Saturday afternoon races, called out shrilly, 'Look out, Will.' Almost at the same time I rushed toward Captain Haines, but before I had gone two steps his brother, Thornton Haines, stood before me, a revolver pressed against me. 'Stand back,' he shouted, 'this is a matter between these two.'

Grit of Slain Man.

"By that time Peter Haines had completed his work. Annis with six bullets in him, arose from his seat in the boat and attempted to step from it to the float. One of the bullets had lodged in his knee, however, and as he stood up his leg gave way under him, and he toppled over into the bay. Wounded to death as he was, Annis still had the marvelous grit to try to swim to the float. He took two strokes and this brought him near enough for me to grab him and pull him upon the float.

Thornton Haines still stood with his weapon in his hand, and for a time refused to surrender it.

Claimed to Be Innocent.

"Annis, who was moaning faintly, stretched out on the float, turned to Peter Haines and said:

"'Captain, you have made a horrible mistake.'

"Peter Haines hesitated a minute and replied, 'I may have, but I don't believe it.' Annis then turned to our Swede boatman and asked, 'John, have they got cowards like this in your country?'

"The others on the float had been trying to get some explanation as to the cause of the shooting from the two brothers. Finally Thornton Haines, who had filled a pipe and was comfortably smoking, said:

"'I've been trying to keep him from doing this for some time.'"

Among the other developments today in

Continued on Page 2.

PROGRAM OF TURKEY

Constantinople, Aug. 16.—The cabinet suffered a great loss today in the sudden death of the war minister, Redjeb Pasha, from heart disease.

The governmental program, which occupies more than two columns of the newspapers, is published today. Its salient features include a declaration that all laws and regulations not compatible with the new regime wil be amended; that the army, the navy and all government directors will be reorganized; that non-Mussulmans will be eligible for military service. The program promises that commercial treaties will be renewed and the best relations cultivated with all the powers.

The porte has requested through the American ambassador, John G. Leishmann, the approval by the United States government of the appointment of Hussin Kiazin Bey, the present Turkish minister at Bucharest, as ambassador at Washington.

The situation on the Turko-Persian frontier is again alarming, owing to the forward movement of the imperial troops, provoked by the chaotic conditions prevailing in the Persian districts.

WHERE THE TRIBUNE LIES

This expert further says for the Tribune, and for the Tribune only: "The subscription lists are exceptionally well paid up—practically to 1908 or in advance." —Tribune, Sunday, Aug. 16.

When the Tribune published the above on Sunday morning it published a deliberate lie.

Mr. Seaver's reports on The Herald, Deseret News and Telegram contain identically the same words.

The Herald again says that the Tribune dare not publish Mr. Seaver's complete report on its circulation.

The Herald repeats that it prints and sells more papers every day, including Sunday, than any other paper in Utah.

This is particularly intended to refer to the Tribune.