BURTON TO GET SEAT IN SENATE

C. P. Taft, Seeing No Chance of His Being Chosen, Drops Out of the Race.

FORAKER ALSO WITHDRAWS

RESULT WILL BE DEFEAT OF DICK TWO YEARS HENCE.

Columbus, O., Dec. 31.—Congressman Theodore E. Burton is today looked upon as the next United States senator from Ohio.

Charles P. Taft, brother of the president-elect, and Mr. Burton's formidable opponent, withdrew from the race, and Senator Foraker issued a statement later admitting that his defeat for re-election was certain. All the minor candidates have either withdrawn or will get out of the race. It is said that Mr. Taft will remain in virtual control of the Republican organization, and that he will have the united support of the party for the senatorship in 1911, if he desires it. The election of Mr. Burton, it is said, will eliminate both Senator Dick and Myron T. Herrick from the 1911 senatorial situation. Senator Foraker will again oppose Mr. Taft in that year, but some of the political leaders here were inclined today to interpret Mr. Foraker's statement, issued today, as in the nature of a valedictory.

Taft's Statement.

Mr. Taft issued the following statement:

"My candidacy from the beginning seems to have been misunderstood. I have been represented as urging my own personal ambition at the expense of Republican harmony and success. The imputation is unjust, but that is of no moment now. The cause of it shall exist no longer. I yield the personal ambition for the accomplishment of better and more important things.

"I have been a sincere and consistent Republican all my life. I have served my party and the people of my community as a member of the legislature of Ohio, and of the congress of the United States. It was my privilege to be one of those who nearly forty years ago in the general assembly of this state stood for the authority of party judgment as formed in public sentiment and expressed in party caucus, when John Sherman was sent to the senate of the United States.

"I have long had an ambition to be a senator from Ohio. I have sought this great honor without reliance upon the popularity or prestige of any other man, and especially without any expectation that my motives would be misinterpreted, or my personal desires would endanger that harmony among Republicans everywhere, which is so essential to the success of the incoming national administration.

Time to Get Out.

"Conditions have now arisen which impose a higher duty upon me than the gratification of any personal ambition. It is clear that a prolonged contest for the senatorship would divide the Republican party of Ohio, and I am not willing to be in any way responsible for such division. Although it does not appear at present that any candidate has enough votes to win a caucus nomination, and though many of my friends insist that I can and will be elected, I put these considerations aside in order to meet worthier obligations. I withdraw as a candidate for senator, and with grateful appreciation release my friends from further effort in my behalf. I will resume my place in the councils of the Republican party and give to its welfare and to the splendid policies for which it stands the same service and devotion which have been the great privilege and pride of my life."

Foraker Follows Suit.

Senator Foraker issued the following statement:

"The withdrawal of Mr. Taft simplifies the situation.

"Under all the circumstances I would have been glad to have been re-elected, but inasmuch as that seems impossible, I feel that there is a great compensation for any personal disappointment involved for myself in the result that has been reached.

"If nothing more had been accomplished, a lesson of lasting value has been taught in the demonstration that a party organization is powerful only when it confines itself to its legitimate business and duties as the agency and representatives of the whole party, and that it loses its force and power when it becomes a personal asset of an individual.

Praise for Burton.

"The party, the state and the country are to be congratulated upon the assured election of Mr. Burton. He is well qualified by experience, ability and character for the high and dignified office to which he has been chosen.

"I extend my most heartfelt thanks to all my friends who have so loyally stood by me during this trying contest. The recollection of their zeal and fidelity while struggling under such disadvantages will always be cherished and appreciated."

Later in the day Governor Andrew L. Harris and General J. Warren Keifer also withdrew, and it was stated former Lieutenant Governor Harding would drop from the race. The friends of Senator Charles Dick were deeply concerned over the developments of the day. It has been the invariable rule in Ohio politics that northern and southern ends of the state should alternate in the naming of senators. As both Mr. Burton and Mr. Dick are from the north, it is said the senatorship will go to a southern man in 1911.

Career of Mr. Burton.

Theodore E. Burton served as a member of the Fifty-first congress. He was defeated for re-election in 1890, but was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress, and has been a member of the succeeding congresses. While in that body he served as a member of the rivers and harbors committee, later becoming its chairman. While at the head of this committee he took an active part in furthering plans for deep waterways.

In 1907 he was nominated by the Republicans for mayor of Cleveland, carried on a spirited campaign against Tom Johnson, his Democratic opponent, but was unsuccessful in the contest.

Mr. Burton, who is a lawyer by profession, is also an authority on finance, and has published several books on that subject.

Dick Is Mum.

Akron, O., Dec. 31.—Senator Charles Dick refused today to discuss the withdrawal of Charles P. Taft and Senator Foraker from the senatorial contest.

The Stomach Does Not Cause Dyspepsia

Neither Will It Cure It Because the Lack of Gastric Juices Prohibit Relief.

The stomach is a strong, powerful organ, which is composed of muscles of great strength. It is filled during digestion with gastric juices which, when the stomach, extending and compressing the food, dissolve it and separate the nourishment from the waste matter. If, however, these gastric juices are lacking, the stomach is not capable of digesting its food because it has not the tools with which to work successfully.

The gastric juices when in a perfect state do away with all foul odors, fermentation and decay, reduce the food to a disintegrated mass and the stomach then presses it into the intestines, where another form of digestion takes place. Then the intestines take from this mass of food all that is nourishing and give it to the blood. The waste matter is thrown from the system.

If, instead of nourishment, the intestines receive impure deposits combined with a poisonous and imperfect gastric juice, it can be readily seen that they must turn such imperfect nourishment into the blood. The blood then being unable to give each part of the body that which it requires, becomes impoverished and disease is spread broadcast.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets correct such a condition at once. If the gastric juices are lacking and imperfect these tablets do their work just the same. They build up the elements in the juice which are lacking and remove those elements which cause disturbance.

Meat, grains, fluids, vegetables and delicacies, in fact, each portion of a large meal, have been placed in a glass vial and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have digested them to a perfect fluid just as a healthy stomach would do.

A large, complex, hearty meal holds no terrors for a dyspeptic if Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are used. Abnormal eating, late dinners, rich foods cause ill effects to the stomach, but when Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are used one may eat when and what one will without danger of dyspepsia or discomfort.

Forty thousand physicians endorse and prescribe Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and every druggist carries them in stock, price 50c. Send us your name and address and we will send you at once by mail a sample package free. Address, F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Nasal Catarrh, an inflammation of the delicate membrane lining the air-passages, is not cured by any mixtures taken into the stomach. Don't waste time on them. Take Ely's Cream Balm through the nostrils, so that the fevered, swollen tissues are reached at once. Never mind how long you have suffered nor how often been disappointed, we know Ely's Cream Balm is the remedy you should use. Price 50 cts.

If you prefer to use an atomizer, ask for Liquid Cream Balm. It has all the good qualities of the solid form of this remedy and will rid you of catarrh or hay fever. No cocaine to breed a dreadful habit. No mercury to dry out the secretion. Price 75c, with spraying tube. All druggists, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

RECEIPTS SHOW LARGE INCREASE

Results of Corporation Tax Are Demonstrated in Report of Secretary of State.

INSURANCE BUREAU URGED

BANKS OF STATE ARE IN PROSPEROUS CONDITION.

Receipts of the office of the secretary of state, according to his report filed with Governor Cutler yesterday, doubled during the biennial period closed Nov. 30. During the past two years they were $258,417.86, as compared with $122,869 for the preceding two years. The increase is in consequence of the added receipts from the license tax imposed by the last legislature on corporations.

There were 1,117 new incorporations of companies during the two years, and these have total capitalizations of $302,669,122. Besides these, thirty religious organizations filed papers showing their organization.

There were issued 954 land patents, covering 131,131.04 acres. Secretary Tingey does not like the handling of these, as it really makes a duplication of records in his office and that of the land board. He makes a recommendation that all matters relating to the public lands of the state be left to the land board.

Notarial commissions issued in the two years numbered 550, and 3,134 state licenses, with an average fee of $21.69 apiece, brought approximately $68,000 to the state coffers.

During the two years thirty-one foreign insurance companies entered the field in Utah. This is another matter on which Mr. Tingey makes a recommendation. He states that as an adjunct to his office thorough supervision of the insurance companies is impossible. Some schemes have been checked, but there is a real need of an insurance department separate from any other state office, with a commission in charge, and backed by a codified set of insurance laws. At present there is no authority to handle evils that may exist among the insurance circles.

Banks Prosperous.

There was but one failure among the banks of the state, and in this case the depositors lost nothing. The institution became embarrassed because of mismanagement, and after being placed in the hands of a receiver was reorganized, and is now in good condition. There are now fifty-eight state, three private and three branch banks in the state. The year among the banking institutions was generally a prosperous one.

There are 6,000 corporations on the books of the secretary of state, but only about 2,000 of these paid license for 1907, and 2,500 will pay for 1908, bringing in about $55,000. Secretary Tingey assumes that many of the delinquent companies were organized to develop mining properties that failed to pan out and the companies ceased to exist. He is, however, compelling as many as possible to pay the tax. He estimates that the number which will take out licenses in 1909 will be 3,000, which will mean $60,000 to the state.

Expenses of the office in the two years amounted to $7,413.93.

Secretary of State Tingey has received in fees for filing incorporations during the quarter ended yesterday $49,307.44, which is a record for any preceding three months. The largest fee received by the office was during the year when the Denver & Rio Grande paid in a check of $22,000 for the incorporation of its consolidated company.

A Mother Testifies

This is to certify that my daughter was down for almost one year with a cold. The doctors finally pronounced it consumption. We had given up hope for her recovery. I was given a sample bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. I gave it all to her in about three hours. It stopped the cough, and gave her rest. I sent next day and bought a 50c. bottle and began giving it. In three month's time she was well. There can not be too much said in favor of Foley's Honey and Tar. It saved my child's life. Mrs. George Batson, Fountain Grove, Mo.

Three sizes—25c, 50c and $1.00. The 50-cent size contains two and one-half times as much as the small size and the $1.00 bottle almost six times as much.
