RECEIVER FOR MINING CONCERN

Frances Mohawk Mining & Leasing Company of Goldfield Is Embarrassed.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Financial difficulties of the Frances Mohawk Mining & Leasing company of Goldfield, Nev., due to an involved legal tangle and a number of heavy judgments, today resulted in a receivership for the company.

Judge Kohlsaat, in the United States circuit court, appointed the Western Trust & Savings bank temporary receiver. He also issued a temporary injunction against the officers of the company and D. Mackenzie & Co., Chicago agents for the corporation, restraining them from withdrawing $125,000 on deposit in the Central safety deposit vaults of this city and from interfering in any way with the affairs of the company, pending an investigation under the direction of the court.

The company, it is said, is the holder of a number of mining leaseholds in Nevada, Wyoming, Colorado and South Dakota.

Attorney John A. Duffey, representing D. Mackenzie, president and general manager of the company, alleges that attempts on the life of Mr. Mackenzie have been made by the alleged enemies of the company, who, he declares, are behind the present proceedings.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

ALL OF THE MATTERS passed by the council Monday night were approved by Mayor John S. Bransford yesterday morning.

A. C. NELSON, state superintendent of public instruction, left last night at 11:45 o'clock for Pocatello, where he will address the teachers of the southeastern part of Idaho, now holding their annual convention. Superintendent Nelson had intended attending the meeting yesterday, but, owing to the meeting of the juvenile court commission, of which he is a member, he put the trip to Pocatello off for one day.

A MEETING of the city board of equalization of water rates will be held in the office of Thomas Hobday, superintendent of water works, Saturday afternoon, when complaints will be heard.

MUCH INCONVENIENCE has been experienced in the office of State Auditor Jesse D. Jewkes through the fact that many persons have been holding county certificates indefinitely without forwarding them to his office. The delay causes much trouble in the auditor's office, and an effort is being made to have the transaction attended to as soon as possible.

THE CLERKS in the office of the secretary of the Utah State Fair association are busy mailing throughout the state premium lists for the October fair.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS of the Utah State Fair association will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce.

A PRETTY SUNFLOWER FOLDER from Topeka, Kan., advertising the resources of that state, has been received at the office of the Salt Lake Real Estate association. On the leaves are statements of Topeka's resources and possibilities and cuts of the city's big buildings, parks and points of interest.

REPRESENTATIVES of the Manufacturers' association, headed by Secretary D. F. Collett, will go to Ogden Thursday morning to make arrangements for the Salt Lake exhibits at the Four States' fair. They will install the exhibits and prepare for a boosting campaign.

THE LOCAL BANK CLEARINGS yesterday were $958,596.22, as compared with $886,693.16 for the corresponding day of last year. The clearings for the month of August, 1909, are $38,727,133.03. The clearings for August, 1908, were $29,320,930.39.

THE SALT LAKE REAL ESTATE ASSOCIATION is in receipt of letters from San Francisco manufacturers which indicate that they are particularly interested in Utah brick, fire clay and tile clay. Answers giving the necessary information have been sent in reply.

EDWARD NELSON, arraigned in Justice Stanley A. Hanks' court Tuesday afternoon on the charge of embezzlement, was bound over to the district court to answer the charge. Nelson is charged with hiring a horse and buggy at a Murray livery stable and coming to Salt Lake and attempting to dispose of it.

A SLIGHT FIRE in the engine room of the Tribune building Tuesday afternoon caused by a high-tension wire coming in contact with some combustible material gave the central fire station a short run. No damage resulted from the fire.

EXTRADITION PAPERS on the governor of Nevada will be submitted to Governor William Spry today for the return of Fred L. Bowen under arrest at Reno. Bowen is wanted for embezzling a check for $42 from the United Wireless Telegraph company of this city.

M. J. MITCHELL, a member of the firm of Arcker & Mitchell, opticians, of 212 South Main street, died at his room in the Elko hotel Monday night. His widow, who is now in Denver, has been notified and will arrive today.

NATURALIZATION CASES will come up before Judge J. A. Marshall in the federal court next Saturday.

A SMALL BLAZE caused by rubbish igniting in the basement of the store at 65 South West Temple street, formerly occupied by the Smith-Bailey Drug company, gave the fire department a short run Tuesday morning. No damage was done.

CONGESTION OF passenger traffic on the Denver & Rio Grande and a lack of Pullman cars is keeping hundreds of tourists in Salt Lake beyond their expected limit and reservations eastbound are being made two and three days in advance at best.

CARRIER NO. 32 collected a bunch of keys from the mail box at K street and Third avenue yesterday. The keys were added to the collection held by Postmaster A. L. Thomas waiting for owners to call.

J. H. STIRLING, auditor of the Union Pacific railroad, arrived in Salt Lake yesterday with Mrs. Stirling. They will remain here for the week as guests of George K. Smith.

PARK CITY BOY GETS BED AT THE CITY JAIL

Rudolph Wagener, aged 13, of Park City was placed in the boys' ward at the city jail Tuesday night for lack of a better place to sleep. The youngster stated that he left Park City and came to Salt Lake to live with a friend. He had some trouble with his friend and left him Friday. After leaving he went to the Sanitarium, and while there was nearly drowned and lost all his money. As it was raining and he could not sleep out, he went to the police station to find a bed, and stated that he would beat his way back to Park City in the morning.
