OAKLEY.

OAKLEY, Utah, May 24, 1899.

EDITOR TIMES:

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Jensen started to Salt Lake City to make preparations for their daughter Evelyn to graduate at the University. Mr. Jensen has some legal business to attend to.

Frank and Bert Meeham, Marion E. Frazier and others returned from Wyo. where they were employed on rail road work.

The bicycle rage is on in Oakley. Those that have not wheels are talking of buying them.

There is a petition talked of in behalf of the little boy who had his leg broken on Monday at Peoa while in the procession. S.

PEOA.

PEOA, Utah, May 24, 1899.

EDITOR TIMES:

The weather has limbered up somewhat during the past day or two and we have a touch of spring-like weather.

Vegetation is very backward for this time of the season, and we are at a loss to know what will be the result as to crops.

Walter Y. Mosher [and William S. Seymour of Oakley, who enlisted in Co. K. 2nd Reg. U. S. Vol., Engineers, and who have been stationed at Honolulu during the past few months, have been honorably discharged, and returned home on Monday afternoon. Almost the entire town of Oakley and a number of the citizens of Peoa turned out to meet the young men between here and Park City; there were twenty-three vehicles in the procession and which were decorated with flags and bunting, and loaded with people to the guards. The procession was headed by horsemen carrying a large flag; then came the teams, and then horsemen who were followed by bicycle riders. After reaching Oakley a program, which was gotten up for the occasion, was gone through with, after which, all partook of a splendid lunch which had been provided. I refrain from going further with the proceedings as that portion belongs to your Oakley correspondent, and as he was the marshal of the day it is but right that he should have the honor of reporting it.

While the procession was passing through Peoa Monday to a halt caused by the stopping of one of the teams, the end of one of the wagon poles caught the leg of Leslie Crandall, the son of A. J. Crandall, breaking both bones just above the ankle. Dr. LaCompt of Park City, was telephoned; the Doctor came over, set the bones, and the boy, who is about thirteen years of age, is doing as well as could be expected. It is reported that the accident will lead to a suit for damages.

Bishop Steven Walker, Oscar Wilkins, John Maxwell, O. F. Lyons and many others were in Oakley on Monday afternoon to do honor to the returning volunteers.

I must not forget to give thanks to the Kamas boys, led by Leo Leonard, who furnished such excellent music and singing; also to the good people of Oakley for the hearty welcome extended to the Peoa visitors.

J. W. Cooper, who came out here from Missouri to visit relatives and friends, left for Salt Lake County the first of the week, and will return from there to his home.

D. W. Marchant has gone to Logan and other towns in Cache County canvassing for school supplies.

Of course Peoa would be behind the times if a suit for damages was not brought against some one here. Then why not be in fashion?

Parties just down from the head of Weber canyon say that from the amount of snow up that way we may conclude that we have not seen anything like high water-mark yet, and that we may expect to see the old Water boiling just as soon as warm weather strikes this part of the earth.

The primary department of our district school closed on the 19th. Miss Paskett, the teacher, gave the pupils a May waist and picnic that afternoon. The young lady has given great satisfaction, and the pupils were loath to part with her. Miss Paskett returned to her home at Hoocher the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyce have been in Peoa for the last few days visiting with relatives and friends. Mrs. Boyce is the daughter of G. J. Marchant, and now makes her home at Murray, Salt Lake County. B. R. E. VIER.

UTON.

UTON, Utah, May 24, 1899.

EDITOR TIMES:

Our cemetery was surveyed a few days ago. Fifteen of our good men with teams turned out and made a good road leading to it. It is the intention to fence it in the near future; the material is purchased and work will soon begin.

James Johnston has leased the Livsey farm for three years, and has moved on the place and begun operations.

William Harris and Ab Johnston have purchased the Johnston ranch on Yellow Creek, and have moved their families to their new location.

James Judd has added much to the appearance of his new residence by giving a covering of paint, the finishing touches of which have just been completed.

On Tuesday evening of May 30th, a grand ball is to be given in the Social Hall. J. C.

ECHO.

ECHO, Utah, May 19, 1899.

EDITOR TIMES:

We get our notes in too late for publication last week, and humbly ask the public's forgiveness.

Post Office Inspector J. A. Small was here last week. He is making a tour throughout the county inspecting the Post Offices.

O. A. M. Olson, Oakley's school teacher, was here last Saturday visiting friends. He came down on his wheel but had the misfortune to run against a water-ditch and break the tire wheel, he returned by team.

Prof. Swanson has been giving a series of lectures on phenology this last week. He had a full house every night, and his lectures were both entertaining and instructive.

A grand ball is billed for the 26th of this month, the event being the closing of the Echo school. Everybody is invited, and a good time is assured.

Dan Heiner, the rustling manager of the Echo Land and Live Stock Company, was in Echo Tuesday looking after the many interests of his company. Mr. Heiner anticipates a prosperous year for cattle men this year.

A right good rainstorm would be a blessing to the farmers in this vicinity.

Miss Lottie Woolstenhulme of North Kamas was an Echo visitor last week.

Geo. Le Roy, who has been in Ogden this last winter, came home this week to visit his mother.

Mr. John Gleason was in town last Saturday, shaking hands with his old Slow friends.

Our district school closes this week, a picnic, exhibitions' dance, and a grand ball are the closing exercises, and everybody is anticipating a good time. Mr. Conley, our beloved teacher, is doing all in his power to make the closing a success, and we sincerely hope that his labors will not be in vain.

Mr. Samuel Sommers returned from his home in Los Angeles, and will soon be at his old post in the telegraph office.

Several of our young men are getting the mining fever, and unless something is done to check the disease we fear that there will be a great many fatalities.

Mr. Robert Marchant, of Peoa, was in Echo Monday visiting old time friends.

A meeting is called in the Echo school house, Friday, May 26th, by some of the owners of the Echo Creek ditch for the purpose of incorporating.

Eugene Wickle and William Moore have gone to Medicine Bow to work for Wm. Selmon who has a grading contract at that place. B.

HENEFER.

HENEFER, Utah, May 25, 1899.

EDITOR TIMES:

Our primary school closed on the 24th, and our primary teacher Miss M. Kane, with her pupils spent the closing afternoon in a May walk.

Elder Enoch Brown, of Hoytsville visited our sunday school on the 21st, and gave a discourse in the afternoon meeting.

The wedding dance, given by Mr. and Mrs. John J. Stephens, on the 24th was largely attended.

Mrs. W. H. Bennett and Master Hyrum Harris, who has been under the doctor's care in Salt Lake City for several weeks, returned home during the week.

We expect to see several improvements made here this summer. The U. P. is remodling our platform, and we hope to see other changes. W. H.

Monday, May 18, 1899.

A. M.

The choir sang "Softly beams the sacred morning."

Prayer by Patriarch Thomas Bell.

The hymn on page 165 was sung by the congregation.

Elder Rich of the Morgan Stake spoke of the seeming indifference respecting the gospel, of the young people of the community.

Supt. John Boyden reported the conditions of the Sunday schools of the stake.

The high priests' quorum was reported by A. H. Marchant.

President Cluff, in his report, among many other things said the Stake House cost $50,308.56 not including the organ. That from the different wards outside of Coalville, $17,705.03 had been collected, and that the Coalville ward had paid the lion something over $16,000.00.

Said that eight bishops of the stake have died since the commencement of the erection of the Tabernacle, and he believed they were pressed with as to day anyone the section was are.

In congratulating the saints on their success achieved in the completion of the Tabernacle he said though the house is dedicated, and as he said responsible for debt, yet he wished the people to understand that all the saints have not yet paid their full apportionment, and the president have become responsible for the difference by their personal note in an amount, some were near $1600.00.

Meeting closed by singing the anthem, "The nations bow to Satan's Thrall!"

Prayer by Bishop F. H. Wright.

P. M.

After closing, and prayer by Counselor Alma Eldredge, the general church and stake authorities were sustained. Following this Apostle Teasdale congratulated the saints on having such a lovely place, which has so beautifully the general church business, imparting sentiments with strains of well selected music.

Referring to the energy of the people in erecting this elegant building, (meaning the State House) he said the saints should be blessed in their basket and store.

The Relief Society's and Young Ladies' conferences were adjourned when the choir sang the anthem "Hark! hear ye the trumpets."

Benediction was pronounced by Apostle Richard Bitch.
