Home cleaning seems to be indulged in by most everybody at the present time.

KAMAS

(Too late for last issue.)

Kamas, June 1.—A farewell party was given a few evenings ago in honor of the retiring bishopric, viz. Lambert, M. S. Park and Wm. J. Ure. Scotch, a large number were present. All reported an enjoyable time. Bishop Lambert has sold his place here and has left for the reservation, where he expects to make his home. The people of this place are all sorry to hear of his departure, for he was a kind, true and faithful bishop.

Dr. Dammeyer's house was made happy last Sunday by the arrival of a fine boy.

Mrs. Annie Rhead of Coalville is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. E. White.

The graduates of Kamas attended the commencement exercises at Park City on the 28th ult., and all enjoyed themselves very much.

Mrs. M. S. Park returned home last week from Montana, where she has been visiting her son Merritt, she brought with her a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Edna Park, and a large grandson, of whom they all are very proud.

There was a cross ball game here on the 26th ult., between the Kamas champions and the Marion nine. The score stood 34 to 18 in favor of Kamas. Marion lost $50, and Kamas pocketed it.

John B. Hoyt of Marion has purchased Bishop Lambert's place here and intends to make this his home.

WAHSATCH.

Wahsatch, June 9.—

The several splendid rains of the past have put the range in excellent condition.

Shearing is looked to commence here soon.

Thos. F. Wright has been appointed registration officer of this precinct.

The lambing season, which started several weeks ago, is now about over. A good crop of lambs is reported, although the weather has been unfavorable, 90 to 100 per cent of lambs have been obtained.

More losses have occurred to cattle owners on the range from the ravages of wolves. Several herds of cattle have been found killed in the peculiar way these animals kill them.

Last Friday Signal Maintainer R. Stuart of the U. P. R. R. noticed the signals had been tampered with near this station, and two strangers passing were suspected. He at once notified Agent McPeek and the two armed themselves and went after the two offenders and arrested them, and held them until the authorities at Coalville and Park City were communicated with and an officer sent to take charge of them. It was fortunate that this attempt to interfere with the train signals was detected in time to avoid any serious results, and the two railroad men are to be commended for their part in this affair.

Messrs. O. C. McPeek and R. R. Stuart leave for Coalville today to attend the preliminary hearing of the men arrested for tampering with the signal service.
