DOROTHY DONNELLY, STAR IN "THE GARDEN OF ALLAH."

MISS DOROTHY DONNELLY, who will tour the country this season in "The Garden of Allah," playing the part of Domini, the heroine, is a product of the stock company system. She was grounded in the technique of her art in the company of her brother, Henry V. Donnelly, himself a favorite comedian. Her first success as a star was made in "Soldiers of Fortune" as the wife of a South American president. A second and more decisive was her impersonation of the unusual heroine Candida in the play of that name. Miss Donnelly is a firm believer in stock companies as a means of educating young players and imparting versatility to his style.

His Deed.

He was not a labor hero.

But in the wee small hours, he crept softly in, and staying the swing of the clock's pendulum, he averted a most disastrous strike.

Lack of Realism.

"Did you see where some actress says that audiences do not like to see husband and wife acting as lovers on the stage."

"Of course not. It's not natural."

Uncomplimentary.

His heart was light—
What made him blue,
The neighbors vowed
His head was, too!
