MEXICAN POLICE ACT TO PREVENT DUELLING

By LOUIS P. KIRBY,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, Oct. 20.—(Correspondence.)—Mexico's capital is threatened with a revival of dueling. But for the activities of the police several meetings would have been held on the field of honor during the past few days.

It is reported that a duel to the death between two young engineers, Vito Alessio Robles and G. E. Enrile, had been arranged for when the police heard of the affair and stopped the duel by keeping constant watch, day and night, upon the two caballeros and also upon the two seconds, Samuel Reyes Retana and Leopoldo Villareal.

But that was not all. The police also watched two of the friends of the principals, Jesus Z. Moreoo and Senor Narvaez. This made it impossible for the duellists to communicate or meet without the presence of a gendarme.
