SOLICITOR

For Subscriptions to Papers is Ordered to Leave the City.

Perry Dye, a subscription solicitor who gives a years subscription to two farm magazines and a fountain pen for ninety-nine cents, was arrested at the corner of Main and Third streets this afternoon by Policeman Shope, acting on orders from Mayor Cole. Dye was locked up in the city jail for a few hours and released later in the afternoon and ordered to leave the city. Dye's arrest was in accordance with a recent order of the mayor that no itinerant subscription solicitors be allowed to ply their trade in this city as many of them have been found to be fakes.
