BUCCANEERS RND PHILS DIVIDE DOUBLE HEADER

Phillies Win First But Blow in Second and Pirates Win.

PITTSBURG, August 23.—Pittsburg and Philadelphia split even in Tuesday's double header, the visitors taking the first game by a score of 6 to 2 and Pittsburg the second, 9 to 7.

Harmon was hit hard in the first game, while Mayer was unhittable after the first inning, when three hits produced two runs. He retired in favor of McQuillan in the seventh inning on account of the excessive heat. In the second game Cooper was hit hard in the first five innings, and when the Pittsburgers came to bat in the last half of the fifth inning the score was 7 to 0 in favor of the visitors. The locals then scored nine runs on seven hits, a pass and Bancroft's error. Seven of the runs were off Bender, and the winning run off McQuillan, who went to the box with the bases full. The scores, first game:
