The cigar-store of William Greenwood, 1032 Market street, was entered by a burglar early yesterday morning by prying the padlock off the small outer door. The cash register was relieved of $4 50, and the burglar also helped himself to several packages of cigarettes and a box of cigars.

Two more witnesses testified in the Fair-Craven trial yesterday to having seen the disputed deeds long before they were recorded. These persons were James T. Cullen and Mrs. Sarah T. Johnson. The former said Mrs. Craven showed the documents to him in February, 1895, at Sacramento, while Mrs. Johnson's statement was that she saw them as early as December, 1894, at the Colonial Hotel in this City.

William Davis, a liveryman, was treated at the Receiving Hospital yesterday afternoon for several bruises and lacerations of the face. While he was returning from lunch he was met by William Corbett, an employe of Morton's Express Company, and a companion, at Eddy and Buchanan streets. They attacked him and beat him badly. Corbett accused Davis of saying disparaging things about his wife.

HARBORS, RIVERS AND PLEASURE

Two Noted Congressmen Taking in the Sights of California.

Arrival of Warren B. Hooker and J. S. Sherman of New York.

They Had a Delightful Journey Across the Continent—Incidents of the Trip.

A great big six-footer, with a pair of eyes that would penetrate Mr. Carnegie's battle-ship armor plate, but with a kindly expression that impresses one at first glance, wearing a straw hat of the down-Eastern style and a suit of light gray clothes, walked briskly up to the clerk of the Palace yesterday afternoon, took a pen in hand and wrote "W. B. Hooker, New York." This was Congressman Hooker, chairman of the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors. Following closely on his heels came another man, somewhat shorter in statue, wearing gold-rimmed glasses and a smile that would have done credit to Yvette Guilbert, his ruddy cheeks redder than ever and stepping at a lively clip. This was J. S. Sherman of New York, also a Congressman. Standing in the ladies, reception-room were the families of these two prominent politicians, who are accompanying them on their tour of the West.

CONGRESSMAN HOOKER as He Appeared Last Night While Walking Through Chinatown.

Congressman Sherman and Hooker came into town on the belated overland express from Portland, where they spent a couple of days under the guidance of Representatives Ellis and Tongue, in sight-seeing. Before reaching Portland they spent a few days at Seattle with Senator Wilson, then came to Tacoma and took in the sights there, thence to Portland and to San Francisco. They left their New York home nearly two weeks ago and have been traveling continuously since. Their trip westward was made via the Canadian Pacific to Vancouver where they took the steamer for Victoria and visited that old English town, where every one seems to be thirty-nine years and a day behind the times, before coming into Seattle.

The trip of the New Yorkers into the Western country is solely for pleasure. It has been one continual round of sight-seeing for them since they left home, and until they put foot on native soil this state of affairs will continue. They were met at Oakland yesterday afternoon by ex-State Senator Ford, D. T. Cole, Frank A. Vail and George Stone of the Union League Club, who conducted them to the hotel and saw that they were comfortably housed. After getting settled at the hotel the party proceeded to the Sutro baths, where they enjoyed the water for an hour or so and then returned to the hotel for dinner. Last night, under the chaperonage of a trained guide, the party took in the sights of Chinatown, and it was along toward the midnight hour before they returned to the hotel.

"I am very much impressed with your City," said Mr. Hooker to a CALL reporter, and Mr. Sherman nodded approval. "I have been in many towns on the Pacific Coast, but I must say San Francisco leads them all. It is one of the liveliest and most wide-awake towns I have ever entered. Its people are hospitable to a fault, almost, the climate is delightful, and I should like to spend a couple of months hereabouts."

As the party crossed on the ferry Mr. Hooker, who, as chairman of the Rivers and Harbors Committee, is pretty well informed on the natural harbors of the country, said: "I think San Francisco has one of the greatest natural harbors in the world. I have often heard it said that the San Francisco harbor is one of nature's wonders, but I had no idea that it was so wonderful."

In New York State Messrs. Hooker and Sherman are about as well known politically as Senator Perkins or Senator White is in this State. They are both active members of the great Platt political machine, which is to-day the most powerful political organization ever formed—more powerful, in fact, than when Boss Croker and his Tammany Hall outfit held unlimited sway. In Congress, too, these men are political giants, the one a powerful and impressive speaker, the other a political magnet which attracts men and brings them over to his way of thinking.

The Congressmen expect to visit Monterey to-day and leave for Southern California to-morrow. The programme may be changed to permit a longer sojourn in San Francisco and give Mr. Hooker an opportunity to gain further information regarding the harbor of San Francisco.

REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS.

Mrs. Marguerite Glidden Fined for Failing to Comply With the Ordinance.

The Board of Health is determined to enforce the ordinance compelling the registration of births.

The ordinance provides that where there is no regular physician in attendance at the birth of the child the parents must register the birth.

Mrs. Marguerite Glidden, 2083½ Mission street, was arrested on a warrant Tuesday night for failing to register the birth of her child, which occurred eight months ago.

She appeared before Judge Low yesterday, and the Judge, after hearing the evidence, fined her $5.

AN INDEPENDENT CHURCH.

Opinions Invited at a Meeting to Be Held To-Night.

The sentiment among Congregationalists in favor of an independent church has crystallized to the extent that a meeting of those interested is announced for to-night to take place at Byron Mauzy Hall on Post street.

It is understood that no person or persons are committed to the project, but a number of prominent people will be represented and any who have ideas on the subject will be invited. Deacon Dexter will read his opinion of the movement: a letter from the Rev. Mr. Rader, giving his views, will be read; other pastors and representative people will be heard from, including James Hamilton Howe, who will offer his ideas.

A general free discussion is expected.

AN ABANDONED BABE.

It Was Found in a Basket on the Steps of St. Joseph's Home.

A healthy, newly born girl baby was found in a basket early yesterday morning on the steps of St. Joseph's Home, Buena Vista and Park Hill avenues. It had an old blanket wrapped round it.

The matter was reported to Chief Lees, who detailed Policeman Coleman, attached to the Pacific Coast Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, to make an investigation and ascertain, if possible, who are the parents of the child.

The baby was taken to Mount St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum pending the result of Coleman's inquiries.

ADVANCES made on furniture and pianos, with or without removal. J. Noonan. 1017-1023 Mission

Letter-Carriers' Badge.

The National Association of Letter Carriers has adopted as the emblem to be worn during the convention here an American flag with a golden bear and "N. A. L. C., September, 1897." The badge is not large, but very pretty. J. L. Meares, superintendent of the City Delivery Department, received one of the new badges yesterday.

The committee also recommended that Miss R. Leary of the secondary substitute class be assigned as regular teacher of German and English in the Polytechnic High School.

MORTON STREET DOOMED.

The Board of Health Will Destroy the Buildings Because They Are Considered Nuisances.

Morton street, the eye-sore of the business portion of this City, will be placed in condition to receive business houses within ten days if the Board of Health is not enjoined during that period.

Several weeks ago Dr. Fitzgibbon of the board, accompanied by Assistant Secretary H. H. Zobel, who acted as official photographer, visited the alley, and later reported that the houses there were a nuisance and should be abated. At the meeting yesterday, after an inspection, the board accepted the report and ordered that notices that the buildings must be at once placed in a sanitary condition be served on the owners of the structures at once.

As the board has decided that the buildings cannot be arranged satisfactorily without entirely remodeling the structures the decision amounts to the destruction of the buildings.

The secretary of the board is authority for the statement that the Morton-street houses, formerly used as disorderly houses, will be destroyed within ten days unless the board be enjoined.

WILL CALL THE MEETING

Mayor Phelan to Convene the Board of Supervisors on Saturday Morning Next.

Mayor Phelan has decided that after all it may be more advisable to call a special meeting of the Board of Supervisors to consider the financial problem, and he will issue a call for Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

The Mayor's reason for this action is the fact that the demands of a large number of laborers employed by the City are held out by the Auditor and his belief that the hardship of paying brokers a percentage on their demands should not be inflicted on them.

The Mayor was not aware until yesterday afternoon of the true state of affairs, and on being apprised of it at once decided to issue the call.

Y. M. I.'S BIG DAY.

Excursion Tickets for Saturday to Santa Rosa for $1.50.

All who propose to participate in Y. M. I. closing day festivities at Santa Rosa on Saturday next should bear in mind that the Southern Pacific will sell tickets for Friday afternoon and Saturday morning trains at $1 50 for the round trip from San Francisco, Oakland and Alameda. The afternoon train leaves the City at 4 o'clock, Oakland pier at 4:28 and Oakland (Sixteenth street) at 4:34; the morning train at 7:30, 7:58 and 8:04 respectively. The Vallejo Junction route has many attractions. The tickets will be honored for return passage on Sunday following.

POLICE TRIBUNAL.

Out of Ten Cases Heard, Nine Were Dismissed.

The Police Commissioners were apparently in a merciful mood last night, as out of ten cases before them nine were dismissed.

Seven policemen in the Southern district were charged with failing to go to a fire at Seventh and Bryant streets on the night of August 6. It was shown that the alarm was rung in from the box at Sixteenth street and Potrero avenue, which is in the Mission district, and therefore the men did not go to the fire. This was considered sufficient excuse.

The charge against Henry Clancy of being absent from his beat and a charge against Dennis Hayden of being intoxicated when reporting off duty were dismissed. L. J. Deeley was fined $10 for going into a saloon while on duty.

The case of A. C. Winzler, who shot a boy supposed to be a burglar, was continued till next Wednesday.

Civil Service Examination.

A civil service examination for the positions of clerk, storekeeper, gauger and storekeeper-gauger will be held in the old Postoffice building on September 18 at 9 A. M.
