DEAL ON MARKET STREET IS LEADER OF WEEK.

Many Other Sales of San Francisco and Suburban Properties Made.

The leading local real estate transaction of the last week was the sale by the Bankers' Investment Company to the members of the firm of Thomas Magee & Sons of the Market street property adjoining the Mutual Bank building and fronting Third street for $500,000, or at the rate of $10,000 a foot. The details of this large deal were published in this paper yesterday. Under the terms of sale the erection of a modern office building will be started within one year from date, the cost of which will be in the hundreds of thousands.

W. D. Brown Co. have sold for John Rosenfeld's Sons to a client the north corner of Fourth and Everett streets for $130,000. The lot has a frontage of 51:2 feet on Fourth street by a depth of 117:6 feet on Everett street, together with an L of 50 feet through to Minna street, and three frontages. This is one of the best lots that has been sold for some time past in this location, for the reason that the key lots running through to Minna street and attached to this corner are only 75 feet from Fourth street and practically control the entire Fourth street frontage from Everett to Minna streets. The same firm recently sold the east corner of Fourth and Everett streets, 75 feet on Fourth by 100 feet on Everett, for $155,000.

It developed yesterday who was the true purchaser of the Metropolitan building, sold by Mrs. Shotwell through the agency of Shainwald, Buckbee & Co. some two weeks ago. The deed has been recorded for the lot, southeast corner of Montgomery and Commercial streets, 59:6 feet on Montgomery by 109:9 feet on Commercial, from Minnie P. Shotwell to the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California. The company's office building has been on the northeast corner of Sacramento and Montgomery streets, which has been its place of business for years. The purchase of the Mrs. Shotwell holding gives a lot 119:6 feet on Montgomery street by 60 feet on Sacramento street and 109:9 feet on Commercial street. Shainwald, Buckbee & Co., who made the sale, say that the price is private, but it is known to be very close to $250,000.

The southeast corner of Sacramento and Drumm streets has been sold to a client of Marion Leventritt for $56,000.

The John C. Brickell Company has sold to Louis T. Samuels 56x137:6 feet on the north line of California street, 139 feet west of Kearny, for $40,000.

H. Northrup and Frank Smith have sold 50x160 feet and improvements on the southeast line of Howard street, 105 feet northeast of Ninth, for $17,000, to E. M. Cary.

Hoag & Lansdale report the following sales:

Southwest corner of Battery and Pine streets, 45:10x97:6 feet and improvements, for the executors of the estate of Lady Yarde Buller to L. Scatena, O. D. Baldwin & Son, representing the sellers, for $130,000; lot on the south line of Clay street, 40 feet west of Sansome street, and running to Commercial street, with two-story brick building, for Julia D. Beylard to Lewis I. Coghill for $60,000; for Ferdinand B. Hesthal to William C. Pringle, as a residence site, northwest corner of Jackson and Maple streets, 60x143 feet, for $24,000; 60x127:5 feet on the east line of Sixteenth avenue, 180 feet north of Lake street, for George A. Hooper to John B. Cazes for $4000; 50x120 feet on the west line of Fifth avenue, 325 feet north of Lake street, for William A. Lange to Charles J. Hund for $2500; northwest corner of Willard street and Farnsworth lane, 50x66 and nine-room residence, for the National Land Company to Timothy J. Crowley for $8000.

Among the properties sold are lot and improvements on the east line of Third street, 75 feet north of Townsend, the improvements consisting of a six-story steel and brick building, for $25,000 for John Rosenfeld's Sons to J. Gall; the property on the west line of Third street, 160 feet south of Bryant, 30x160 feet, for Joseph Bier and A. H. Dannenbaum to Fred P. Fisher; southwest corner of Folsom and Elizabeth streets, between Third and Fourth, 57:6x160 feet, with old improvements, for B. P. Block and Mortlock Brown to Wallace A. Wise for $36,000; for E. Campini to Michael and Mary Louise Griffin property on the west line of Ninth street, 100 feet south of Bryant, for $6000. These brokers have also resold the property recently purchased by Alfred Newman to Sophie Blum, on the north line of Folsom street, 325 feet east of Sixth, with stores and flats and lot 50x85 feet, for $21,000.

Schwamm to James and Isador Schwartz for $60,000. The purchasers propose to expend, in addition to the price of the land, $90,000 in the erection of a six-story steel and brick fire-proof structure, the ground floor to be occupied by the theater and stores in front, while the upper floors are to be planned for a modern apartment-house.

For $22,000 the firm of Landgrebe, MacNevin & Jones has sold the northwest corner of the same thoroughfares. The lot has a frontage of 86 feet on Sixteenth street by 80 feet on Guerrero street and Spencer alley. The improvements are brick and frame, which are yielding about $200 per month.
