A FEAST FOR THE READING WORLD.

THE LARGEST, THE CHEAPEST, AND THE BEST. THE NEW YORK MERCURY FOR 1869.

The Thirty-first volume of this popular weekly will commence with the New Year, and the proprietors propose to make it the most brilliant, varied and entertaining bulwark of current literature that has ever been submitted to the American public in the form of a Family Newspaper. Better original articles than are to be found in any of the magazines will grace its columns; and already in advance of all contemporaries of its class in size and amount of reading matter, it is intended that it shall eclipse them all in every department of literature included in the programme of a first-rate Household Journal. The leading feature of the new volume will be a powerful story by

Miss M. E. BRADDON, author of "Oscar Bertrand," "Nobody's Daughter," "The Outcasts," "Three Times Dead," etc., etc., and one of the most popular novelists of the day, entitled,

THE FACTORY GIRL, or The Blossom and the Blight.

—The scenes of which are infinitely more graphic and stirring than those embodied in any of the sensational street-dramas which now hold possession of the stage. The "Factory Girl" will be almost immediately followed by a new story of surpassing interest, from the pen of J H Smith, Esq., author of "Ministry," "Stanford Hall," "Milly Moyno," etc., written for the New York Mercury.

All the existing specialties of the New York Mercury will be retained, and new departments added from time to time during the progress of the year. It is due to a public that long ago adopted this time-honored weekly as its favorite sheet, to keep it at the head of its class by a liberal outlay for the very best literary matter (suitable for such a paper) procurable on either side of the Atlantic. This will be done. Romances, Novels, Satirical Sketches, Humorous Poems, Family Tales, articles on American Sports and Pastimes, and a weekly digest of all that is interesting in Theatrical and other popular Amusements and Recreations, will figure in the contents of the New York Mercury for the coming year. Through the department appropriated to the youthful authoresses of America, hundreds of lady-writers, now famous, first made the acquaintance of the public.

This channel of communication between young ladies of talent and genius and the reading world, will continue open to the former; and such of their productions as are calculated to do them credit and give them prestige will be published with such critical comments as they seem to call for. The object of the Proprietors of the New York Mercury is to render it the best family newspaper in the United States; and if paying the highest premium for the best literary talent will secure that result, it will certainly be attained.

The New York Mercury, with its fifty-six columns of sterling, original matter, will continue to be issued at Eight Cents a copy, and sold by all Newsmen and Periodical Dealers in America. To Mail Subscribers our terms for 1869 will be:—Cash in advance:—Single copies, $2.50 a year; three copies, $7; six copies, $13; nine copies, $20. The party who sends us $20 for a club of nine copies will receive an additional copy, free. Six months' subscription received. Write plainly the name of Post Office, County and State. Specimen copies sent free to all applicants. Address CAULDWELL & WHITNEY, Proprietors of the N Y Mercury, 128 Fulton St., New York City. Jan 7, 1869-1w.

White Men must rule America! NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE BEST NY WEEKLY PUBLISHED. NEW YORK DAY BOOK FOR 1869.

Devoted to White Supremacy, State Equality, and Federal Union. THE PAPER OF THE PEOPLE. A Political Newspaper—A Family Literary Paper, and an Agricultural Paper. NOW IS THE TIME TO FORM CLUBS.

The NEW YORK DAY-BOOK is an earnest, out-spoken and independent paper, devoted to the equality, fraternity and prosperity of the Democratic masses, and the defence of the grand American system of Federalized States, on a White basis, established by Washington and the fathers of American Liberty. It holds that this glorious American system of self-governing States and homogeneous citizenship, which, in seventy years of peace and prosperity, never shed one drop of American blood or convicted a single citizen of disloyalty, or directly taxed the people one dollar for its support, and might be safely extended over the whole "boundless expanse" of the continent, on earth, and made as restful as it was made by Washington, or the whole land must needs collapse into chaos, anarchy and ruin.

The Day-Book, therefore, demands the restoration of the White Republic, and as this must be and will be accomplished, either through their reason, or the blood and suffering of the people, it earnestly labors for the former, and by boldly grappling with the errors, lunacies and crimes of Mongrelism, it strives its utmost to save the country from the awful necessities of the latter.

The Day Book will, however, hereafter be more than ever devoted to all the varied purposes of a newspaper.— Conscious that it reaches thousands of families who take no other journal, beyond, perhaps, their local paper, it will continue and improve its "News of the Week" Summary, so as to present a transcript of the World
