CLAIRVOYANTS

"MIZPAH."
When I first came to this city 1 month ago, I announced that for a short time I would give a clairvoyant spiritualistic reading for 25c, merely to gain a local reputation. My success was instantaneous. I have gained the credit in 1 month of being the leading clairvoyant in this city. I could now charge what I please and my office is always crowded, but until next Sunday (the 31st) I will continue giving the same reading for 25c. After that it will be $1. If you are in trouble, wish to locate some one, divorce, marriage, undecided in business or courtship, evil influence, see me at once.

"Romeo! Romeo! Wherefore art thou, Romeo?"

It's much too bad
That Juliet ne'er had
A little Call Ad
To render her glad.
Then a story so sad
Had never been clad
In Shakespeare's rich raiment, b'dad—

Whether Romeo was lost or was as he was—just Romeo, to the mind of Juliet—would have mattered naught to the great Call Want Ad. They find things out—bring people together—buyer and seller, for example. In short,

FEMALE HELP WANTED

STEADY increase in the business of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company necessitates the employment of additional operators, and the telephone company is making special inducements to secure for these positions young women of neat appearance, fair education and excellent character. Young women who wish to study telephone operating will not only receive free tuition in the Pacific operating school, but will also be paid while studying, and upon graduation will be given positions at the switchboards. The telephone company provides luncheons for its operators without charge. The exchange buildings are equipped with rest and retiring rooms and the operating rooms are light and well ventilated. The telephone company takes a personal interest in the welfare of the young women in its employ, and on this account parents of the sort of girls desired are encouraging them to take up telephone operating as a profession. For further particulars call at the Pacific operating school, Franklin central office, 821 Hyde st. near Sutter.
