Amusements.

GROVER'S THEATRE—Benefit of Mr. Ford's Company.—Tonight there will be a triple company appear at Grover's for the benefit of the sufferers by the destruction by fire of Ford's Jijou theatre, on Tenth street. The entertainment has been very carefully selected and reflects much credit upon the skill and judgment of the management. Mr. Grover's company has volunteered, and the popular manager has placed at the disposal of the beneficiaries, for this evening, the entire vast resources of the establishment "Everybody's Friend" will commence at half past seven o'clock, after which an olio performance by Koppitz and grand orchestra. A. M. Hernandez, Misses Kate Pennoyer, Agnes Southerland, Marie Zoe, M'lle Geraldine, Messrs. Paul Berger, Ben Yates, &c.; these are mostly from the Canterbury and Varieties, by permission of their respective proprietors. Messrs. L. F. Barrett, D. Setchell, Rogers, J. Barrett, Bailey, Boyd; Misses Denin, Carr, Hough, Mrs. Germon and others will take part. The beautiful comedy of the "Factory Girl;" or, All that Glitters is not Gold," will close the entertainment.

On Monday evening next the beautiful and eminent actress, Mary Provost, will commence a limited engagement, appearing as Nell Gwynne.

CANTERBURY.—A gala Saturday night's bill has been prepared for tonight at this grand temple of music, which will call into requisition the entire strength of the large and highly talented company. New songs, new dances, new acts, new farces and new Ethiopian eccentricities will be embraced in the programme, and the performance will conclude with the mirth-provoking pantomime entitled the "Rival Artisans," in which Mr. George R. Edeson, the popular stage manager, will appear in one of his very best characters. To all, who are best upon visiting the very best place of amusement now open in this city to-night, we say, select the Canterbury by all means.

WASHINGTON VARIETIES.—A grand afternoon performance for the accommodation of ladies and children is given to-day, commencing at 3 o'clock, when all the great stars will appear in a most attractive programme; in the evening, also, commencing at 8 o'clock, with singing and dancing, Ethiopian acts. Miss Kathleen O'Neil, in two of her original characters, with songs and dances. A beautiful ballet, in which the beautiful Marie Zoe, Ben Yates and grand corps de ballet, appear in a number of dances. The wonderful child, La Petite Louise, in her astonishing Irish jig. Sam Long in new local comic songs. The very funny interlude called "Cousin Joe's Visit," characters by the clever Budworth Brothers. Miss O'Neil will sing her great song of "No Irish Need Apply." The comic pantomime of "Out-and-Out," in which Hernandez will perform upon fourteen musical instruments, forming one of the most attractive bills of the season. On Monday evening next the renowned Washington favorite, Miss Eva Brent, commences an engagement, with a new new features.

BAPTIST CHURCH SABBATH SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The examination of the First Baptist Sabbath School, held last evening in the lecture-room of Dr. Gurley's church, passed off very creditably to teachers and scholars. The Bible recitations were interesting, some times remarkable, and the singing was well performed. Rev. Dr. Sampson distributed the rewards, and made a few apt remarks to each of the young recipients. At the close of the meeting, a silver-plated cake-basket was presented to Mr. C. M. Parks, by the school, for his zealous labors in their behalf.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL.—The following boats arrived at Georgetown since our last: W. R. Chaplain, Amer. Coal Co., 110 tons coal; Sen. Rusdale, 101 tons coal; Wm. F. Brashears, 110 tons coal; Smith Hart, wood; and "1778," 110 tons coal.

The following departed: W. R. Chaplain, Smith Hart, Hero of America, E. L. Huntley, H. D. Carleton, A. E. Darby, and C. F. Porter.

FIRE.—On Thursday last, about 4 o'clock p. m., Officer Cook, of the Third ward, discovered a fire in the house of E. Cooley, on Seventh street, between M and N streets. The officer succeeded in putting it out, with but little damage done to the property. There was no claim given.

THE TEMPERANCE LEVEE held at the Union Hall last night, was a highly successful affair. We are unable, in consequence of the pressure on our columns, to give an extended report, which our reporter has made. We shall give it on Monday.

IMPORTANT ARRESTS.—The proprietor of the four-mile house, (near Fairfax,) and two men, named Howard and Gooden, were arrested yesterday, on the charge of piloting Stuart on his last raid.

A Card from Manager Ford.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The loss recently sustained by the undersigned in the destruction of his new theatre, has gained him so many manifestations of popular sympathy and of friendly encouragement, that he cannot refrain from thus publicly acknowledging his appreciation of kindnesses which have associated with his misfortune more grateful remembrances of personal and public esteem than his richest prosperity has yet conveyed.

It affords him, under these circumstances, a deep gratification to announce that the interruption of his professional intercourse with this community will be of but brief continuance, and that the early possession of a new and entirely first-class establishment—one worthy the dignity of the Metropolis—will enable him to renew, and with increased advantages, his efforts to deserve the liberal support he has ever received at the hands of the Washington public.

The most painful incident of the disaster is the heavy—and, in several instances irreparable—losses imposed upon the dramatic company, members of the orchestra, and mechanics attached to the establishment, by the destruction of their wardrobes, musical instruments and tools, and by their sudden loss of engagements at a season which is it peculiarly difficult for persons of their occupations to obtain employment.

Their case is one of singular and exceptional hardship, involving, as it may do, questions of personal suffering to themselves and families, and the undersigned cheerfully waiving, in behalf of the more urgent needs, the generous proffers of benefit and other tenders of aid made to him, earnestly commends to the attention of their friends and the public, the claims which their marked professional zeal and fidelity, and their private worth, give them upon the kindly consideration of those for whose entertainment they have so successfully laboured. It will afford me sincere pleasure to cooperate in any measure looking to their relief.

JOHN T. FORD.
