GRAND LARCENY AND FALSE PRETENCES.—The final examination of Joseph G. Conner (not Joseph J. Conner, as published in the Baltimore Sun of this morning) committed by Justice Thompson on the 19th instant, for a further hearing, took place yesterday afternoon. The prisoner, our readers will recollect, was charged before the justice, with robbing Dr. Albert H. Hayes, an army surgeon, of $35 in Treasury notes; also with obtaining from Dr. Hayes, at different times, the sum of $127 under false pretences.

According to the testimony of the Doctor, the prisoner stole the $35 on the 8th instant; afterwards acknowledged the theft, and appealing to the Doctor's sympathies on the ground of his being a Free Mason and of the respectability of his family in Baltimore, the theft was forgiven. But when the Doctor found that the prisoner had falsely stated that he was a Free Mason, and made other false statements for the purpose of defrauding him, he then determined to prosecute the prisoner. After hearing the testimony in this case, the justice committed him, in default of $500 bail, to answer at the criminal court.

To sustain the charge against the prisoner, of obtaining $127 from Dr. Hayes under false pretences, several witnesses were called to confirm the Doctor's allegation, that the prisoner had falsely stated he was of the house of Conner & Co., wealthy merchants of Baltimore. It also appeared that the prisoner had shown Dr. Hayes a draft for $120, purporting to be from and signed by Mr. H. D. Gelston, of the Central Hotel, at the corner of Sixth street and Pennsylvania avenue.

Mr. Gelston swore that he had never given the prisoner any such draft, and had no such transaction with Conner. Under a full consideration of the case, and hearing all the prisoner had to say in his own defence, (no counsel being employed and none, apparently, being necessary), the Justice decided to demand $1,000 bail for the prisoner's appearance at the criminal court to answer to the charge of obtaining $127 from Dr. Hayes under false pretences. In default of bail the prisoner was remanded. The arrest of Conner was made by Patrolman R. Johnson, to whom credit is due for promptness in the discharge of his duty.

ARRESTED FOR FILCHING AND OPENING LETTERS.—Richard Sweet, mail carrier for the Tenth New York Artillery, stationed at Fort Baker, was arrested yesterday about one o'clock, and taken to the office of Postmaster Bowen; when upon examination, were found in his pockets twenty-four unopened letters belonging to different members of his regiment, and one which had been opened; it was thought, from its postmark, that it must have arrived yesterday. Sweet, who is a mere youth, has been suspected of the charge upon which he was arrested for several weeks, and has accordingly been watched, when yesterday the proof was sufficient to warrant his arrest. When taken before Postmaster Bowen he admitted the allegations charged, that he had been purloining and opening letters to his regiment for the past eight weeks.

TO BE SENT SOUTH.—Yesterday, Capt. Johnson, with a squad of soldiers, proceeded to the residence of a well-known clergyman, by the name of Martin, residing about ten miles from here, opposite Alexandria, for the purpose of arresting his family—the reverend gentleman being in the rebel army—for holding a correspondence and carrying on an extensive correspondence with the rebels. While Capt. Johnson was there, Martin came in, when he was also taken. He stated that he had been lying in the woods three nights and three days, and thought it very hard that just as he came into the house he should be served in this manner. They have all been sent to this city, and in the course of a few days will be sent South.

ANNIVERSARY.—The tenth anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Association was held last evening, in the Fourth Presbyterian Church. The exercises were impressive. The report of the retiring President, detailing the operations of the association during the past year, and showing a considerable surplus of funds, was quite encouraging. The new President, Mr. Ballantyne, delivered his inaugural. Addresses were also made by Admiral Foote and others. At the close of the meeting subscriptions were taken up, and the President of the United States, Admiral Foote, and Gen. Howard were constituted life members; $60 were thus raised.

HOW HAVE THE MIGHTY FALLEN.—Capt. Todd, Provost Marshal, on Tuesday night, at Willards' hotel, tore the straps from the shoulder of a major in the army, who, it is alleged, has already been dismissed the service by the President. It is said that this major has been cutting quite a swell about this city ever since the promulgation of the order for his dismissal, and behaving in a manner that would be quite reprehensible in a person legally authorized to wear the symbols of major, much less one who had abused such an honorable position.

A MOST SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Whalen, a resident of Alexandria, and who had been in the habit of peddling at the camps, near Alexandria, was killed yesterday afternoon while attempting to cross the railroad track near the U. S. bakery, on Oronoko street. A train of cars was standing on the track at the time, and she was passing under one of the cars, when the train moved, the car passing over her body, crushing her in such a dreadful manner that she lingered a few minutes and expired.

ASSAULT.—John E. Davis was arrested yesterday at the Assembly Rooms, for striking a Government detective, who was there on official business. Davis was taken to the guard house, but released in the afternoon.

DEAD.—A white man, whose name is unknown, died yesterday at the house of some colored people on South Carolina avenue, near Fourth street east. Being a pauper, he will be buried at the Corporation's expense.

GO TO WHITEHURST, 434 Pennsylvania avenue, next door to the American Telegraph office, to obtain superior Likenesses at reduced prices. Likenesses of many of those fallen in battle can be obtained here; also card photographs of prominent men, both civil and military. nov 21—tf

WHO WILL BE CURED!—We desire to call special attention to the advertisement of the celebrated Dr. Velpy, which appears in another column. The Doctor is a safe and reliable practitioner, whose skill and experience is a guarantee that the unfortunate victim of certain indiscretions can with confidence intrust his case in his hands. Let young men be warned in time, and seek the best means of relief.

A WORD OF ADVICE.—Those who have been doctoring for weeks and months without obtaining relief, should consult Dr. Fishblatt, whose office is at No. 421 E street, corner of Eighth street, and be radically cured. Twenty-five years experience has established Dr. Fishblatt's reputation as a physician. Recent cases cured in a few days. Charges moderate. DR. FISHBLATT,

DIED,

On the 22d inst., of brain fever, MARY IDA, aged 11 years, 3 months, 24 days, beloved daughter of Jacob D. and Kate S. Hutton.

The tenderest tie the heart can ever know
By this event is severed at a blow.
The bud of promise, hope of many years,
Is thus dissolved in one cast flood of tears.
Her beauteous form!—her lovely, lively mind!—
To part with her, how hard to be resigned!
A Rose-bud, lovely, darling child!
Oh! poignant grief, most frantically wild!
Her parents and friends, steeped in the deepest woe,
For consolation whither shall they go?
Oh! God, who gave and who has taken away,
Vouchsafe to lighten this, their darkest day!

The relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend her funeral from the residence of her parents, on Tenth street, between D and E streets (Island), on Friday, the 24th instant, at 3 o'clock, p. m., without further notice.

GROVER'S THEATRE—Benefit of Mr. Grover.—To-night will prove indeed a gala one at the beautiful and spacious theatre on Pennsylvania avenue, near Fourteenth street. This evening is set apart as the benefit of the manager, Mr. Leonard Grover, and is also the anniversary of the opening of the theatre, and the inauguration of permanent standard amusements in this city, and the birth-day of the immortal Bard of Avon, the head and front of English dramatic literature. To-night the Comedy Congress, Setchell, Susan Denin, Walter Lennox, and J. M. Ward, and the excellent company, appear in two charming plays, "The Serious Family," and "Cape May Diamonds." The Fairy Circle of terpsichorean adepts, Misses Mortimer, Pennoyer, De Faiber, Augusta, and Marie, of the Canterbury, perform "The Gypsy Trio," and a grand pas de deux. Mr. Dick Parker does a banjo solo. To-morrow night is Setchell's benefit.

THE CRIMEAN WAR AT ODD FELLOWS' HALL.—Another large audience greeted this splendid exhibition last night, and judging from the applause which was bestowed upon each successive scene, the assemblage was heartily pleased. The battle scenes, conflagrations, and bombardments, particularly took the house by storm. The Russian War Diorama is well worth a visit. It is open nightly, and on Saturday at 3 p. m.

CANTERBURY.—The programme for this evening has been materially changed; notwithstanding which, an opportunity is still afforded to see the talented sisters, M'lles Augusta and Marie, in the grand ballet, "Diana and Endymion." The graceful beauty, Ernestine de Fäiber; the favorite of the public, Kate Pennoyer; and the ever popular and fascinating Julia Mortimer, together with the full company, appear in a variety of beautiful acts, songs, and dances. No performers ever won so much popularity here as the Fairy Stars of the Canterbury.

VARIETIES.—Last week of M'lle Brignoli, the lady violinist and vocalist; also the termination of Miss Nellie Seymour's engagement, their departure ensuing on Saturday night, to make room for new artistes of various kinds. New ballet, pantomimes and dramas are in preparation for their early production at the Varieties. Ada Tessman, Miss Laurent, Helena Smith and the humorous Dick Watkins, with the young ladies comprising the circle of beauty, are all established favorites.

☞ A Card to the Travelling Public. OFFICE OF THE GREAT PENNSYLVANIA ROUTES, CORNER PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE AND SIXTH STREET, WASHINGTON, April 20, 1863.—Bills having been circulated by the authority of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, over the signature of a man named Edmonds, setting forth that the only place to procure tickets to the West, Northwest and Southwest is at their depot, or from their agents, and also that any ticket sold by other than their agent is a fraud, I deem it a duty to the public to say that the statements contained in the bills alluded to are without the slightest foundation in truth, and are made with the design to mislead the travelling public.

The well established reputation of the Pennsylvania routes to the North, West, Northwest and Southwest would seem to render a refutation of such libelous statements unnecessary, and I would permit them to go unnoticed were it not for the unblushing effrontery with which they are made.

SCEPTRE EXERCISE, FOR LADIES AND Children; also, the corresponding but more Athletic Indian Club or Magdar Exercise, for Gentlemen, for the prevention and correction of deformity, sneakiness, &c., as recommended by the medical professions and officers of the army. They supersede dumb-bells and all Calisthenic exercises. No officer, merchant, or clerk should be without them. They promote a healthy circulation, develope and strengthen the chest and spine in a most extraordinary manner, giving such elasticity and strength to the shoulders, arms and wrists that the sword and bayonet are used with double force and facility, and invaluable to singers, as the voice improves in proportion to the expansion of the chest. To ladies who cannot take out-door exercise, they are of incalculable benefit.

My classes for Dancing and Deportment, at Willards' Hall, and at Georgetown, are largely attended by the elite of both cities, and I can, with much satisfaction, refer to the Parents of my pupils.

To those who require tuition on the Violin, Violoncello, and Singing, or "Shooting lessons," may save time and expense by studying under me.
