THIS PAPER IS NOW FURNISHED BY CARRIERS TO SUBSCRIBERS IN THIS CITY AND IN GEORGETOWN, AT THIRTY CENTS PER WEEK.

NOBLE WORDS!

"WHENEVER THEY (THE REBELS) HAVE THE POWER, THEY WILL TREAT OUR FREEDOM AS THEY HAVE THE CONSTITUTIONAL PEOPLE'S RIGHTS, AND WOULD ALSO PRIVE US. THEY HAVE NOT. WERE THEY ARE, THEY HOLD MILLIONS IN BONDAGE WITHOUT MERCY. ABSOLUTELY ASSURED OF THEIR FREEDOM, I AM AGAIN ASSURED THAT ANY ONE COULD PRIZE OF 'PEACE ON ANY TERMS.' HE WHO REVERENCES THE RESENTMENT IS FIT ONLY TO BE A SLAVE; HE WHO UTTERS IT AT THIS TIME, MOREOVER, IS A TRAITOR TO HIS COUNTRY, WHO DESERVES THE SCORN AND CONTEMPT OF ALL HONORABLE MEN."—Rosecrans, to the General Assembly of Ohio, February, 1863.

POSTMASTER GENERAL BLAIR

Has left town for Newport, R. I., where his brother, Maj. Gen. Blair, is sojourning. The former will visit Portsmouth before his return. During his absence, his official duties will devolve upon First Assistant Postmaster General Randall.

FROM CHARLESTON.

Opinions of Officers—Hopeful of Success.

Prominent officers serving before Charleston express themselves in private letters received here, as earnestly hopeful of the result of the result of the combined military and naval operations, but they do not mention any time for the reduction of Fort Sumter, &c., as promised by enthusiastic newspaper correspondents. The work being heavy, and requiring the utmost skill and caution, they, with a full appreciation of all the difficulties, purposely refrain from exciting expectations of an immediate and complete victory, nor are speedy results of such a character anticipated by gentlemen in Washington who are best acquainted with the plans and intentions of the commanding officers.—Associated Press Washington Correspondence.

Naval Orders.

Capt. James Alden has been detached from the command of the Richmond and ordered to command the steamer Fort Jackson, vice Capt. Henry Walker, detached at his own request.

Assistant Surgeons Jos. W. Shively, Henry F. McSherry, John J. Gibson and Samuel J. Jones, ordered to their examination.

Acting Assistant Paymaster E. H. Brink has been ordered for duty on board the United States steamer Commodore Morris, Hampton Roads.

Boatswain John Bates, detached from the Potomac and ordered to return North.

Appointed.—Samuel B. Hopper, Acting Assistant Surgeon; Thomas H. Dickson, Acting Assistant Paymaster.

Resigned.—Acting C. Lee Moses, Acting Ensign Chas. R. Bryant.

Detached.—Acting Assistant Surgeon N. S. Campbell from the Keystone, and ordered to Port Royal; Acting Assistant Surgeon Henry Shaw from the R. R. Cuyler, and ordered to Port Royal.

Confirmed.—The appointments of Nich Dillon and J. H. Jones as Acting Third Assistant Engineers.

Ordered.—Acting Paymaster W. D. Churchill to the Nipsic; Acting Assistant Paymaster C. R. Howard to the Mississippi Squadron; Acting Assistant Paymaster E. B. Southwork, Acting First Assistant Engineer Henry Hill, and Acting Third Engineer F. M. Dykes to the Grand Gulf.

Examining Board.—A board of officers, composed of Lieutenant Commander Blake, of the Eutaw, Volunteer Lieutenant Ives, of the Potomac Flotilla, and Acting Master Eldridge, of the Ella, are in session at the navy yard for the purpose of examining master's mates for promotion to ensigns.

PERSONAL.

BRIG. GEN. SCHENCK is in town.

GEN. RUFUS KING is at the Metropolitan.

GEN. ASBOTH has been relieved of his command by Gen. Grant.

KATE DENIN, (sister of Susan) is playing in Montreal.

EDWIN BOOTH commences an engagement at the Academy of Music, Philadelphia, on the 22d instant.

MATILDA HERMON appears at Pittsburg September 1st.

EDWIN ADAMS has played a successful engagement at Buffalo.

GEN. SIGEL has been relieved from his duties in Pennsylvania, and his staff mustered out of the service.

EDWIN FORREST is announced to appear at Niblo's Theatre, New York, on Monday evening, 31st instant. He will play in nearly all his popular characters in succession, the engagement being for three months.

A. N. ZEVELY, Esq., Third Assistant Postmaster General, has left New York city for Fort Bridger, Rocky Mountains, on the great central overland route, to remain there some time in quest of health.

EDWARD L. PIERCE, late Commissioner for the organization of "The Freedmen Black in South Carolina," is author of the article in the September number of the Atlantic Monthly, entitled "The Freedmen at Port Royal."

MRS. SUMNER A. FAIRFIELD, a widow of the poet Fairfield, died in New York city on the 18th inst., after a lingering and painful illness. She survived her husband twenty years, and died at the age of fifty-eight.

MAJOR PRIME, of the United States Engineers, has been tendered the appointment of Brigadier General, and declined it. He is one of the most distinguished engineers in the army. He graduated at the head of his class in 1846, and was then, as now, regarded as a very scientific and promising graduate. In the same class were many of the most distinguished officers of the service; and, among others, Generals Warren and Grow—the former chief of engineers on General Meade's staff. At the seige of Vicksburg, Major Prime served in the capacity of chief of engineer. It is well known among scientific men that in besieging fortified places, all the plans are made and the progress of the work is directed by the engineer. Gen Grant says that at the beginning of the seige there was a great scarcity of engineer officers, but that under the skillful superintendence of Major Prime, the work was successful, and Major Prime's declination to wear the brigadier's star is probably accounted for by the fact that as a general he would be more likely to be ordered to the field, where he would not have an opportunity of acting with the Engineer Corps, and devoting himself to the peculiar scientific duties for which he is so eminently fitted.

CHARLESTON!

Sumter Falling.

A MOAN FROM RICHMOND.

The Two Hundred Pound Parrots Telling.

REMOVAL OF NON-COMBATANTS FROM CHARLESTON.

The City to be Defended to the last "Foot of Earth."

NORFOLK, Va., August 21.—A copy of the Richmond Whig of this morning, received here to-day, contains the following news from Charleston:

CHARLESTON, August 20.—The enemy's operations during the last twenty-four hours have been mostly confined to a steady and continuous bombardment of Fort Sumter from their Parrott guns on Morris Island. The fire begins to tell on Fort Sumter, which replies only at long intervals.

The defense of this harbor does not depend mainly upon Fort Sumter, even if that fortress should be battered down.

General Bonham has issued a proclamation urging the removal of all non combatants from Charleston as soon as possible.

The 300-pound Parrott guns of the enemy are too much for the walls of Sumter, and the fort replies only at intervals.

It has been determined to defend the city street by street, house by house, as long as a foot of earth is left.

STARTLING NEWS FROM KANSAS.

Rebel Guerrillas and Missouri Border Ruffians at the Work of Arson and Murder.

SENATOR LANE PROBABLY CAPTURED.

Prompt Action of the Mayor of Leavenworth.

He Justly Censures the Federal Commandant of Kansas.

LEAVENWORTH, August 20.—Last evening Quantrell, with a force eight hundred strong, crossed from Missouri into Kansas, near the town of Gardner, sixty miles below here, and immediately started for Lawrence, arriving before that town at 4 o'clock this morning. He posted a strong guard around the city so the citizens could not escape. He then commenced pillaging the stores, shooting the citizens and firing the houses. A gentleman who managed to escape, reaching the bluffs this side, had a plain view of the town, which was then one sheet of flames. He thinks the loss would reach two millions of dollars, and by this time perhaps much more, as he seemed to be determined to destroy all that would burn. It is believed that no resistance was made, the citizens being taken completely by surprise.

James H. Lane was in the city, and it is feared that he has fallen into the hands of the guerrillas, as it was almost impossible to escape through their lines. A large number of Union troops have been sent in pursuit of the rebels, but with what success is not yet learned. Mayor Anthony, of this city, has issued a proclamation requesting every able-bodied citizen to provide himself with arms, and hold in readiness to aid friends in any part of the State at a moment's notice.

He censures the general commanding the district, who, he says, with five thousand under his command, has allowed a few hundred guerrillas to get fifty miles into the interior of the State and burn a city, destroying two millions of dollars' worth of property, and intimates that the citizens must depend on themselves for the defense of the city and State.

Grant and Hurlburt's Armies Raiding Rebeldom.

Capture of Durant and Voiden Stations on the Mississippi Central.

SEIZURE OF TWO LOCOMOTIVES AND TRAINS.

The Rebel Telegraph Cut.

NORFOLK, VA., August 21.—The Richmond Whig of to-day says:

JACKSON, MISS., Aug. 18.—Federal cavalry from Yazoo City reached Durant Station, on the Mississippi railroad, where they captured a train and cut the telegraph wires. Serious destruction on the railroad northward is apprehended.

The Yankees are carrying two engines and trains northward from Voiden, and a heavy raid is coming southward from the Charleston road.

WITHERING REBUKE.—Ex-President Buchanan and suite, en route from Bedford Springs to Wheatland, passed through Harrisburg on Saturday last. After Mr. Buchanan had changed cars, and a few minutes before the train started, a crowd was collected in front of the car he occupied, gazing with mute curiosity at the infirm old man, whose unsteady look wandered from object to object, as if he hesitated to meet the gaze of the citizens and soldiers present upon the occasion. Just then a soldier who had lost an arm began to shake the stump in the face of the O. F. F., exclaiming fiercely, "I am indebted to you for this!" (pointing to the maimed arm,) "and the devil will liquidate the debt when he gets you!" At this point the whistle of the locomotive screamed the signal of departure, and Buchanan, with the rebuke of the wounded soldier blanching on his already pale and withered cheek, was soon lost in the distance with the train.

FROM ARKANSAS.

Concentration of Rebel Forces under Kirby Smith.

THE PEOPLE STARVING.

A Movement to Overthrow the Rebels.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 21.—Advices from Arkansas say that all the rebel forces in that State are concentrated at Almeda, five miles below Little Rock.

Kirby Smith has arrived and taken command of the troops, and is erecting fortifications.

The people in the White river country are in Almeda a starving condition, and there is a strong disposition throughout the State to accept peace on any terms.

W. H. Lee, a friend and classmate of the author of the Declaration, just from Georgia, says nothing can equal the abject condition of the people of the Southern States. The people are ripe for a movement to overthrow their rulers, and such action cannot be much longer delayed.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

A Successful Federal Raid in North Carolina.

TERRIBLE FRIGHT AT RICHMOND.

A SILLY STORY ABOUT JEFF DAVIS' GUARD.

FORTRESS MONROE, August 20.—The flag-of-truce steamer New York, Capt. Chisholm, left last evening for City Point with three hundred rebel prisoners from Chester, Pa., in charge of Major John E. Mulford.

Acting Brigadier Gen. B. F. Onderdonk, 1st New York Mounted Rifles, and two companies of the 11th Pennsylvania Cavalry, have just returned to Portsmouth, Virginia, from a long raid into North Carolina. They passed through Edenton, N. C., and opened communication with Captain Roberts, in command at South Mills; thence they proceeded to Pasquotank and Hertford, and while about half way between the two places were attacked by the guerrillas, and in the skirmish lost two mounted riflemen.

They killed thirty guerrillas and drove several into the Dismal Swamp, who were drowned.

They captured ninety horses, thirty mules, some cattle, &c. It was a very successful raid.

Two refugees arrived in Norfolk to-day from Richmond, who were born in Canada. They report that the rebel Government is terribly frightened about Charleston, and say if it is taken all is lost. A guard is kept about the residence of Jeff. Davis night and day to prevent him from running away from Richmond.

There are very few troops in or about Richmond, and only one brigade between there and Petersburg.

The Great Meeting in Illinois.

THE PRESIDENT EXPECTED.

General Logan Publicly Denounces Judge Omelveny as "One of a Band of Traitors."

OMELVENY DEPARTS.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 21.—The Democrat's Springfield special dispatch says that President Lincoln has signified his intention to attend the Union mass meeting to be held in that place on the 3d of September, but should public business prevent, he will address the people by letter. Most extensive preparations are making to render this meeting the largest ever held in the West.

Gen. Logan addressed a large meeting at Salem, Illinois, on Tuesday. Judge Omelveny was present, and Logan denounced him as one of the leaders of a band of traitors who were plotting the overthrow of the Government. Omelveny left the crowd without a reply.

The Army of the Potomac to have "Full Freedom of Choice in the Selection of Newspapers."

GENERAL MEADE'S ORDER ON THE SUBJECT.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, August 21.—The following order has been issued:

General Orders No. 80—1. For the purpose of giving full freedom of choice to the army in the selection of newspapers, it is ordered that any officer or enlisted man wishing to purchase any daily journal not now furnished by the agent appointed under the provisions of the circular of June 2, may give notice thereof to the provost marshal of the command to which he belongs, who shall forward the same through the provost marshal of his corps to the Provost Marshal General, who shall instruct said agent to furnish the same without delay, and a neglect on his part to comply with such instructions shall be held sufficient cause for vacating his appointment.

2. It appears that in several instances the payment of the sick and wounded of this army has been delayed by reason of their descriptive lists having been signed by non commissioned officers temporarily commanding companies; it is ordered that whenever, from any cause, the signature of the officer of the company cannot be obtained, the said lists shall be signed by a field officer or the adjutant of the regiment to which such company belongs.

3. The reports called for by paragraph five, General Orders No. 53, of June 18, 1863, from these headquarters, from captains of companies, will be made monthly, and will state in addition to the name and rank of every officer having a soldier in his service, and the name and regiment of the soldier so employed, the length of time such service has been rendered.

4. No non-commissioned officer or private can give his parole except through an officer, and no officer for himself or his command can, under any circumstances, give a military parole not to serve until exchanged except when delivered to an officer of the United States, duly authorized to receive him at one of the points agreed upon by the Government for the exchange of prisoners of war, or at some other point agreed upon by the commander of an army to which he belongs. All other paroles are null and void. Any officer or soldier of this army giving them will be returned to duty without exchange, and will be punished for disobedience of orders.

THE WEALTH OF BOSTON.—The total wealth of Boston, as valued by the city assessors, is three hundred and two million five hundred and twenty-seven thousand dollars, an increase from last year of twenty-six millions five hundred and sixty-nine dollars, in part caused by the advance in prices consequent upon the present condition of affairs. The rate of taxation under the increased expenses consequent upon the war and the augmented state tax is small, being but eleven dollars and fifty cents per thousand, which is a cheaper rate than in many of the suburban towns.

Second Edition

FOUR O'CLOCK, P. M.

MRS. PRESIDENT LINCOLN [illegible] Courier des Etats Unis, she was received with all the respect due to her rank, and with characteristic courtesy, by the [illegible]

Mrs. Lincoln, it is further stated, was quite delighted with her visit on board the French man-of-war.

[illegible] and one of the officers that his father (the President) had a little "Monitor" that would shoot his big ship in about a minute. The Frenchman laughed at the youth's smartness, but at the same time exhibited considerable nervousness at the practical suggestion.

It is expected that Mrs. Lincoln will return to this city to-day.

FORD'S NEW THEATRE.

This splendid temple of the drama in Tenth street, this city, is now nearly completed, and, agreeably to the announcement of the proprietor and manager—John T. Ford, Esq.—in another column, it will be opened to the public, for the first time, on Wednesday evening next.

We have already given our readers a general description of the building. In announcing the important fact that on Wednesday evening great dramatic exhibitions are to be given within its walls, the natural question arises "Of whom does the company consist?" We answer this question by announcing the piece to be performed on the opening, and the company as cast for the several parts, as follows:

Stage Manager.....Mr. W. C. Forbes.
(Late Manager of the Theatre, Providence, R. I.)
Jas. A. Gifford.....Architect and Chief Carpenter.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 26, 1863.

Overture, Orchestra, under the direction of Professor William Withers. The opening Poetic Address, written expressly for the occasion by W. Seaton Deoche, Esq., of Washington, will be spoken by Ms. J. A. Herne.

To be followed by the interesting and magnificent Dramatic Romance, in 4 acts,

THE NAIAD QUEEN;
OR, THE MYSTERY OF THE LURLIE REEF.

While a series of costly and elaborate preparation, it now presented with a luxury of decorative and pictorial adornment, a dazzling splendor of effect, which cannot fail to delight the admiration of all lovers of the beautiful and the grand. The respective dresses, by C. E. Getz. Music, original and selected, by Professor William Withers.

IMMORTALS.

Lurline, the Naiad Queen.....Miss Annie Waite
Idex, enamored of Schnappe.....Mrs. Bishop
Fluvus.....Miss S. Melville
Sparkle.....Miss A. Knapp
Dew Drop.....Miss M. Melville
Limpid.....Miss M. Monks
Sea Nettle.....Miss Green
Polypus.....Miss A. Merry
Pearl.....Miss E. Monks
Goldback.....Miss Gardner
Silverfin.....Miss Clinton
Sunnyeye.....Miss Julia Mosell
Disappointed.....Miss A. Knapp
Frettimiente.....Miss Lenetiens
Neptune.....Mr. W. Howard

MORTALS.

Schnappe, Esquire to Sir Rupert.....Mr. C. B. Bishop
Sir Rupert, the Fearnaught.....Mr. J. A. Herne
Rhodolphe, the Wise.....Mr. F. Williams
Manfredi, the Mirthful.....Mr. M. Bates
Rinaldo, the Disconsolate.....Mr. S. Witters
Alberto, the Resolute.....Mr. W. H. Burton
Winkleman, the Humor-ide.....Mr. Kennedy
Herman, the Ready.....Mr. Evans
Caspar, the Willing.....Mr. Dailey
Guillian, the Silent.....Mr. Dornton
Baron of Lockhausen.....Mr. F. Anderson
Lady Una of Lockhausen, the betrothed of "the Fearnaught".....Miss Osborne
Bridget, the Housekeeper.....Miss Chapman

DEMONS.

Amphibia.....Mr. S. K. Chester
Cathunsie.....Mr. Bates
Finback.....Mr. Dailey
Sharkeye.....Mr. Burton
Phantomface.....Mr. Kennedy
Scaleyskin.....Mr. Evans
Buffalo-head.....Mr. Dailey

It will be seen that the company forms a first class theatrical corps, including some of the most popular dramatic artists in the country. Few of them are known to Washingtonians, but they will soon become favorites.

The "Naiad Queen" is one of the most splendid scenic dramatic romances ever put upon the stage, and Mr. Ford's new machinery and scenery and new company, embracing the beautiful young ladies engaged expressly for the marches and tableaux will give additional force and effect to it.

JEFF. DAVIS GUARDED.

A dispatch from Fortress Monroe, in another column, contains the following singular sentence:

"A guard is kept about the residence of Jeff. Davis, night and day, to prevent him from running away from Richmond."

Such a statement is ridiculous, inasmuch as Jeff. Davis is commander-in-chief, and can order away any troops he pleases. No man in Rebeldom has the power to put a guard over Davis. The fact about the statement, if it relates to any fact at all, probably is that Jeff. Davis is afraid of being assassinated by some of the enraged and starving population of Richmond, who at any moment are liable to rise and execute judgment upon the arch-traitor; and in order to be ready for such a demonstration by the people, he has established a guard. We know positively that at the time of "Stoneman's raid," so-called, Davis and his Cabinet left Richmond in a special train for Petersburg to avoid being captured. He is undoubtedly expecting a similar movement upon Richmond, and is prepared in such an event for a hasty flight.

There may be still another reason for this paragraph. The reports of dissatisfaction among the troops, and the possibility of a refusal on their part to serve the "Confederacy" any longer, may have caused Davis to prepare to meet such an emergency. Who knows?

A PRESIDENTIAL EXCURSION.

The President, Secretary of War, and other military officers, visited the "Defences" in Maryland, opposite Alexandria yesterday afternoon. The party went down the river and returned in a steamer. We observe that a morning paper—the Contractor's organ—takes advantage of the excursion to furnish information to the enemy about the location and condition of the "Defences of Washington."

HON. JOHN N. GOODWIN.

This gentleman, member of the last Congress from the First District of Maine, has been appointed by the President, Governor of the Territory of Arizona, vice Mr. Gurley, deceased. Mr. Goodwin has been the appointed Chief Justice of the Territory ever since Congress adjourned, but like all the other officers of that Territory, has never been there yet. Mr. Goodwin is an excellent man for the position, being a good lawyer and a man of energy.

Artistic Drawing.

Among the persons drafted in New York yesterday, in the Fifteenth ward, were nine artists, as follows: W. P. W. Dana, W. J. Hennessey, Wm. Hart, John O. B. Timmen, John Pope, A. Bierstadt, J. B. Griffith, Geo. H. Hall, and Theodore Pine. Bierstadt is at the Rocky Mountains.

DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN CITIZEN.—Judge Joseph Bryan, of Alabama, who has for a number of years resided in this city, and was well known in connection with departmental business, died at his lodgings in this city Wednesday night. He was a man of wealth, and a bachelor. Much of his possessions were in the South.

BY TELEGRAPH.

ROSECRANS AND BURNSIDE ADVANCING.

Both Armies in Good Condition.

CINCINNATI, August 22.—[illegible] has advices from Rosecrans' army to the 15th [illegible] Both armies had commenced a forward movement—the former for Chattanooga and the latter for Knoxville.

The troops were in good condition and full of spirits.

PERSONAL.

GEN. HOOKER will have a command soon.

COL. RICE, of the Forty-fourth New York, has been appointed a Brigadier General.

GENERAL WADSWORTH will be commissioned to raise colored regiments.

HOWARD GLENDON, the poetess, is on a visit to St. Louis. She returns to this city in a few days to finish a new work for the press.

MAJ. GEN. BLAIR has gone from Newport to Boston for a few days. He had a grand reception at the latter place. He returns to Newport to meet the Postmaster General.

WILLIS, of the Home Journal, announces that Matilda Heron (Mrs. Stoepel) is preparing for a "little event" that usually makes quite a commotion in a family.

COLONEL JAMES B. MCKEAN, who organized the Seventy-seventh New York regiment while a member of Congress, and commanded it in several engagements, having lost his health in the service, has been honorably discharged at his own request. Hon. James B. McKean was known in this city for his usefulness as a legislator and his amiable and social qualities as a gentleman.

GEN. SICKLES.—One of our clergymen, writing from Saratoga Springs, says: "Gen. Sickles, greeter with one limb than he was with two, is recruiting from his wound, and practising on a hobby horse for his return to the saddle. Yesterday he invited a company of prominent clergymen to dine with him."

FRED. DOUGLAS, in his paper, this week, announces that he abandons his post as editor and publisher. He says he can now find a place for his views on slavery as some of the leading papers of the country, and that a special organ is not necessary. He has been commissioned to join Gen. Thomas and assist in the organization of colored troops on the Mississippi and to put the men for that work.

THE PRINCESS OF WALES is indisposed! Much, and indeed, unnecessary importance has been given (says the "Jenkins" of the London Morning Post) to the fact. She is in the possession of good general health, and is recommending her to abstain from visiting Halifax, her royal highness's advisers have only sought to save her from over-exertion, which is now a sterile for her not to incur.

"Coming events cast their shadows before."

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

There have been 30 men accepted up to the hour of our going to press—18 white and 7 colored.

Yesterday, a man named John McCormick was accepted as a substitute for Mr. Dooley. He was recognized at the camp and put in irons as a deserter from the Second D. C. The money paid him by Mr. Dooley was returned.

A VISIT TO THE PASS OFFICE.—This morning we paid a visit to the pass office attached to the Provost Marshal's department, and were surprised to see with what facility and dispatch the business was conducted. Upon conversing with Lieut. Carroll D. Wright, (of the Fourteenth New Hampshire volunteers,) the officer in charge, he informed us that the average daily issue of permits and passes is about two hundred. Some idea can thus be formed of the business done and the amount of trouble the officer in charge has in taking recommendations from the different parties. The pass office is under the charge of Lieut. Colonel Wright, of the Thirty-ninth Massachusetts, but he being away on sick leave, the arduous duties are performed by Lieut. Wright with his able body of clerks. Passes and permits are issued for all parts of our lines, and from 8 to 4 the office is generally full.

LARCENY.—Hamilton Anderson, a colored man, for stealing $12 from Kate Mahoney, a pistol worth $7 from L. A. Whitley, was committed for a further hearing by Justice Clayton. He was charged, at the same time, with forging an order in Mrs. L. A. Whitley's name and trying to pass it on L. Frott, a shoe-dealer on Seventh street.

Thomas Lomax was committed at the same time for having a stolen pistol in his possession. He was arrested by Officer Bigley.

CENTRAL GUARDHOUSE.—Last night and this morning—

Selling Liquor to Soldiers.—Margaret Blaton was brought in by the Patrol on the above charge. She paid her regular fine of $10.

Drunkenness.—Patrick Cutterson, on the same charge, and also for having Government property, was committed by Capt. Todd. This morning Capt. Merritt held him for further examination.

Drunken Captain.—Capt. R. S. Thompson, of the 118th Pennsylvania volunteers was arrested by the patrol, who found him drunk in the street, yesterday afternoon. When stopped by Lieutenant Mills, of the patrol, he insulted him in a shameful manner. He was committed to pass the night in the "Central," and this morning, [illegible] under guard.

Lounging Reports.—Maurice Clifford, a teamster, was sent down [illegible] also for [illegible] Teamsters. He was committed by [illegible]

Drunk and Disorderly.—Mary Ogden, a female, [illegible] committed to the [illegible] of the police station [illegible] left the Guardhouse several times before being released.

Fighting in the Street.—Two soldiers were taken up [illegible] street.

Insulting Ladies.—Geo. Chapman, a soldier, was arrested by a policeman, who caught him on the [illegible] held for punishment.

[illegible] Eighteen men arrived [illegible] last night under charge of a guard. They were escaped from barracks at Louisville, Ky. They are charged with desertion, and were sent to Forest Hill this morning. Early last night several more were brought in from Philadelphia, still back of the Provost Marshal at that city. They were sent that to Forest Hill, Georgetown.

SERVICE NEW.—We this morning paid a visit to the extensive store and manufactory of Egbert, Cooper & Co., in Georgetown. These gentlemen have lately inaugurated their bottle in this city and are now manufacturing large quantities for the various camps and hospitals near the city. This cider is recommended by surgeons of the army as being greatly conducive to health and a good antidote for diarrhoea. Mr. Cooper, of the firm, is well known as formerly the lieutenant commanding at the Guardhouse, but resigned on account of ill-health. The depot for the sale of this article is at A. M. Bininger & Co., Pennsylvania avenue, near Thirteenth street, No. 327. Call and see a sample.

ASSAULT ON A DETECTIVE.—As Detective Officer Donaldson, of the Metropolitan Police, was passing the corner of Thirteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue on his way home, on Thursday night, a man stepped out from behind a tree-box and struck him in the face, knocking him to his knees. Before Donaldson could recover from the effect of the blow the villain was away. It is supposed that he took D. for Officer McDevitt, of the same force, as he mentioned McD.'s name when he struck Donaldson.

DEATHS OF SOLDIERS.—The following deaths of soldiers have been reported since yesterday:

Elias C. Brown, 12th N. Y. cav.
John M. Reese, 155th N. Y.
Andrew Price, 107th Pa.
John C. Cobine, 144th N. Y., and James Barton, a Government employee. The above died from disease.

A MIXED CASE.—A woman named Mrs. Rosey was brought into the Guardhouse by a policeman on the charge of robbing a soldier named James B. McClellan. This morning Justice Ferguson held an examination, and it was found that she had robbed the woman. She was fined for disorderly conduct, and McClellan was ordered to be showered well two or three times and held until further orders from Capt. Merritt.

HORSE STEALING.—A horse belonging to Mr. John W. Richardson was found in the possession of Matthew Babst. The horse was stolen last June. Mr. Babst said that a soldier left the horse in his possession. The soldier is at present in Baltimore, but will return in a few days. Justice Rowland held the case over for a few days, to await the soldier's return.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Louis Gruniger, one of the employees of the Public Printing office, met with a severe accident yesterday morning. While arranging a book under a machine his hand was caught under the weight, and in endeavoring to extricate it, he pulled off the tips of all his fingers from the second joints.

LEFT THE CITY.—Wm. B. Webb, Esq., the late superintendent of the Metropolitan Police, left in the evening train of cars for Cape May, where he intends to remain for a short sojourning. Mr. Webb will be absent about two weeks. Sergeant Reed, of the Second Ward, will act in the intervening time as superintendent.

OFFICE OF P. H. DRAKE & CO., No. 38 BROADWAY, N. Y., July 30, 1863.—The Plantation Bitters is counterfeited to us by United States letters patent, and any attempt to fill or sell from the same, any other letter whatever than the genuine DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS is a misdemeanor punishable both by fine and imprisonment.

The popularity of our celebrated Bitters has induced unprincipled persons to put up in our bottle vile and poisonous imitations, of which the public are cautioned.

Every bottle of the genuine bears the fac-simile of our signature in a steel-plate label, with our private U. S. Internal Revenue Stamp over the cork. All persons offending as above after this date, will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.
