SALE OF CONDEMNED GOODS.—Under the orders of Captain Tompkins, A. Q. M., a lot of condemned goods, the property of the United States, was sold yesterday at the depot on F near Twenty-first street. They comprised old pack-saddles, wagon-boxes, and a lot of leather scraps. The latter, comprising some 14,000 lbs., brought cents per pound. The prices for the other goods were merely nominal, their value being next to nothing. The sale was made by Captain McCauley, Mr. Dowlin being the auctioneer.

PRAYER WEEK.—Meeting this evening at the E street Baptist church, led by Rev. Dr. Sunderland. Subject—"For the afflicted and oppressed; that slavery and oppression may cease, and that Christian love may reach the destitute in all lands."

The meetings have thus far been well attended by Christians of the several denominations, as well as by strangers stopping in the city, and a deep and earnest feeling has been manifested. The subject for this evening is an interesting one, and will doubtless call out a larger congregation than usual.

BEAR IN MIND, all ye who drink, that the place to get the very choicest wines and liquors, served up in the most approved style of the Restaurateur's art, is at the Rudy Saloon and Restaurant, 497 Pennsylvania avenue, opposite the Metropolitan Hotel. It only needs a trial, it is said, to be convinced of this fact. The motto of the establishment seems to be "Excelsior," in the way of good eating and drinking.

THE RIVER CLOSED.—The ice is still forming very fast in the Potomac river, and if the cold weather should continue a day or two longer navigation will be suspended. The ferry boats find it almost impossible to make regular trips between this city and Alexandria today. Be to-morrow it is apprehended they will have to suspend their trips entirely.

THE TEACHER'S INSTITUTE.—The Teachers' Institute adjourned to meet again to-morrow, (Friday.) One of the topics for discussion will be the best methods of making sent reporting school recitations. As the system lately introduced into our schools by Mr. W. J. Rhees does not work very well, it is hoped the whole subject will be well examined.

NAVY YARD VESSEL.—The Wyandank, a store ship of the upper flotilla, which has been at the Navy Yard for several weeks to undergo repairs, has been finished and left Wednesday, about 10 o'clock. Her hull has been toned so that she can sail through the ice. The Commodore Reed is at the yard receiving repairs, and will probably leave to-day.

THE JEWS AGAIN.—Kraft & Hollman, Jewish storekeepers, were arrested yesterday by Officer Mitchell, of the Eighth precinct, and fined by Justice Ferguson $20.50 for selling on Sunday. Jesse Delavan was arrested by Officer Whiteman for keeping open on Sunday, and fined $10.50 by Justice Ferguson.

A LADY IN THE OLD CAPITOL PRISON.—Miss Kate McCoy, of Baltimore, recently returned from the South, is charged with treasonable practices, and was yesterday sentenced by Col. Fish to be locked up in the Old Capitol Prison during the war.

NOTICE TO THE COMMITTEE ON ENLISTMENTS.—The Executive Committee on Enlistments are requested to meet at the Mayor's office at 8 o'clock this evening, as there is important business requiring their attention. The collectors for the wards and departments are invited to attend.

Amusements.

CANTERBURY HALL was again filled with a delighted crowd last evening, and the manner in which the performance was received is a sure indication of a similar one to-night, when two excellent farces will be performed—"Jumbo Jum" and "Nature and Philosophy"—by the excellent comedy company. Tim Hayes, the unrivalled clog dancer, and Logan, Edwards, Emerson, Williams, Clarke, &c., will appear in their laughable Ethiopianisms. The Bonzani Grand Ballet Troupe will give two beautiful divertisements, and an otherwise attractive bill is announced. Nowhere can an evening be spent more pleasantly than at the Canterbury.

VARIETIES.—To-night, the great drama of the "French Spy, or the Storming of Algiers," in which all the pretty ladies appear. Mr. Harry Clifford in a great comic character. Mlle Lina Windel in her triple character, independent of which, all the artistes appear—and the great jig dancer of the world, Miss Kate Clare, and Miss Annie Clare. Wednesday afternoon, grand matinee.

THE RUSSIAN WAR DIORAMA will be on exhibition at Odd Fellows Hall positively only three nights more, and on Saturday afternoon, commencing at three o'clock. Those who have not yet seen this magnificent exhibition ought not to miss this last opportunity to do so. The Saturday afternoon exhibition will afford a fine opportunity to ladies and children to witness it who cannot conveniently attend at night.
