National Republican

To Advertisers and Business Men.

We invite the attention of advertisers and business men to the columns of the DAILY NATIONAL REPUBLICAN, as an advertising medium. It has a large circulation in the cities of Washington and Georgetown and the surrounding country, and is constantly increasing. We feel confident that they will find it not only a valuable, but reliable medium of communicating with the public.

Mr. EDWARD WAITE is our authorized agent to procure advertisements and receipt for payments on the same, throughout this city and Georgetown.

Advertisements may be left at Mr. Waite's store, No. 1771½ Pennsylvania avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets.

REGALIA.

The following regalia is prescribed for the occasion: The Marshal-in-chief will be designated by an orange-colored scarf with white rosettes, and blue saddle-cloth with gilt trimmings. His aids, thirteen in number, will wear cherry-colored scarfs with white rosettes; their saddle-cloths will be white, trimmed with blue. The Marshal-in-chief and his aids will wear yellow gauntlets, and use blue batons two feet in length, with gilt ends two inches deep.

The Marshals will be designated by blue scarfs with white rosettes, white saddle-cloths trimmed with red, white gloves, and pink-colored batons, with white ends two inches deep.

The Marshals representing States and Territories will be designated by white scarfs with blue rosettes, white saddle-cloths trimmed with red, white gloves, and white batons two feet long, with pink ends two inches deep.

The marshals-in-chief, the aids, and the marshals will wear common black hats, black frock coats, and black pantaloons.

THE RENDEZVOUS.

Owing to the almost impassable condition of the unpaved streets through which it was originally intended to lead the procession, it has been thought expedient to change the programme in that particular; and the following places are designated as the rendezvous for the several organizations which will join in the inaugural procession:

The Marshal-in-Chief, his Aids, Marshals and Marshals representing States, will meet at the corner of Fifteen-and-a-half street and Pennsylvania avenue, near the War Department.

The military escort, with band, on Seventeenth street, south of Pennsylvania avenue.

The officers and soldiers of the Revolution, and the war of 1812, on Pennsylvania avenue, corner of Fifteen-and-a-Half street.

The National Union College Band, the National Union Executive Committee of the Loyal Leagues, the Lincoln and Johnson Clubs, the State and city authorities, and State organizations, on spaces at intersection of Pennsylvania avenue and adjacent streets.

The fire organizations on Nineteenth street, south of Pennsylvania avenue.

Washington City Press, Nineteenth street north of the avenue.

Officers of the army and navy, Marine corps, and militia, Seventeenth street, north of Pennsylvania avenue.

Detachment of United States Marines, 1st brigade of Quartermaster's volunteers, other military organizations, and the Gleaboro' cavalcade, on Pennsylvania avenue, from Twenty-fourth street west.

Turner Associations of Washington and Georgetown, on spaces at intersection of Twenty-first street and Pennsylvania avenue.

Odd Fellows and other benevolent organizations, on Twentieth street, south of Pennsylvania avenue.

The various organizations are expected to present themselves promptly by 10.30 o'clock, and will be shown to their respective rendezvous by the aids and marshals.

DANIEL R. GOODLOE,
Marshal-in-Chief.

VISITING FIREMEN.—This evening, the fire companies from Philadelphia and other cities, who will unite in the inaugural procession to-morrow, will arrive in the city and be received by the Washington City Fire Department.

ARRIVAL OF THE COLUMBIA.—The Columbia, one of the new steam engines for the Fire Department of this city, arrived yesterday afternoon from the Amoskeag Works and was conveyed to the engine house on Capitol Hill.

MORE REBEL DESERTERS.—Seventy-six more rebel deserters arrived yesterday from City Point. Most of them are from various North Carolina regiments.

INAUGURATION BALL.—Ladies intending to honor the inauguration ball with their presence will want to appear with white slippers and white gaiters, which our friends, Burns & Wilson, No. 340 Pennsylvania avenue, between Ninth and Tenth streets, are now selling at the lowest price. Ladies are requested to call and examine them. mi-4t

IF A Friend in Need!—Those requiring confidential medical assistance should apply to some regularly educated physician who has made certain diseases his special study; such a man is Dr. DARBY, who is daily curing numbers of both sexes, and every age, who have been to all the Self-called Doctors in this city, and spent valuable time and money, with no benefit, 'til he took charge of them. His terms are more moderate than those of mere boasting pretenders, whose only purpose is to fleece the unfortunate, and then advise them, when it is almost too late, to apply to him.

Call on him at once, or you may regret it ever afterwards. DR. DARBY,
No. 602 7th st. cor, between D and E streets, Washington city. feb14-tf

IF A Cure Guaranteed—A Word of ADVICE.—Those who have been doctoring for weeks and months without obtaining relief should consult Dr Fishblatt, whose office is 347 E street, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, and be radically cured. SHALL THE INAUGURAL PROCESSION AND CEREMONIES BE USED AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM?—All persons who knew the true character of the so-called "Eastman Business College," at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., whether disappointed pupils or others, cognizant of the facts, are earnestly invited to join in an emphatic protest to the proper authorities against permitting H. G. Eastman, the proprietor of said "College," and his advertising band to take a conspicuous part in the inaugural ceremonies, for which they are now making arrangements, as they have in their own State been refused participation in less important proceedings.

THE STANDING STONE OIL COMPANY OF WEST VIRGINIA.

CAPITAL, $2,000,000,
In 40,000 shares, at $50 each.

Subscription price, $15 per share, subject to no other call or assessment.

A working capital of $100,000 reserved. Only 20,000 shares to be sold at the subscription price.

The property of this company consists of the well-known Martin or Standing Stone tract, and contains from 5,500 to 3,000 acres of land, in fee simple, free from lease, tenders' interests or royalty. Standing Stone creek is a branch of the Little Kanawha river and its tributaries pass through this property, and it has upon it a larger amount of both of territory than is owned by any other company in West Virginia. It is situated in Wirt county, near the celebrated Rathbone, or Burning Spring tract, and in extent of territory is five times greater, and is considered by all experienced oil men familiar with the oil district of West Virginia quite equal to if not superior to the Rathbone tract. The standing Stone Oil Company's property extends from the Little Kanawha river, near Burning Spring Run, across the waters of Standing Stone creek, including a portion of Robinson's Fork and Two Ruffle creeks, and is immediately in the Great Oil Break, extending from Burning Spring through by Standing Stone and Petroleum to Horse Neck Wells, near the Ohio river, and embraces the line of URIAH'S.

The property of this company has not been developed, for the reason that it belonged to minors, who could not convey until they attained their majority, which the youngest did a few days ago.

Wells are being bored on the adjoining farms, and oil had. It is said that, upon the Standing Stone tract, oil was first discovered in 1860.

On the Devers farm, adjoining, a well is being bored and oil obtained. The well of M Farland & Jones, on the Morgan land, is near this property.

These lands are held in trust by J. N. Camden, Esq., President First National Bank of Parkersburg, West Virginia, and the Hon. John S. Carlile, Senator in Congress from Virginia, and will be by them conveyed to the Standing Stone Oil Company whenever the stock to be disposed of by subscription (twenty thousand shares) shall be subscribed and paid for. Three thousand six hundred shares of the stock have already been subscribed and paid for.

Subscriptions received at the banking houses of RIGGS & CO., and RITTENHOUSE, FOWLER & CO. de14-tf

THAT GREAT PIANO
CHICKERING & SON'S MANUFACTURE, BOSTON.

This famous special PIANO performed on at the Academy of Music, in New York, by Professor Wehli, the distinguished European Pianist, and dispatched to this city for his concerts, is now on exhibition and for sale at our Warerooms. This beautiful Piano has been pronounced by our most distinguished pianists of this city to be by far the best Piano that ever emanated from this great factory. It should be remembered that all the great pianists of the world perform only on, and recommend only, Chickering & Son's Grand Pianos. Testimonials of the highest praises are in our possession from such distinguished pianists as Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Wehli, Satter, and others.

I have sold in Washington city over six hundred and fifty of Chickering & Son's Pianos, and have the names and the number of the house and the street in which they are to be seen and heard, and will answer to any who call; and to all these I refer as to the superiority of these Pianos. I have also the certificates of thirty-six of the best acknowledged music celebrities of our city in praise of these Pianos.

Call and get a circular.

I warrant and guarantee every Piano.

Old Pianos taken in part payment for new.

Several excellent second-hand Pianos for sale on easy terms. JOHN F. ELLIS,

PROPOSALS FOR DEAD HORSES

QUARTERMASTER GENERAL'S OFFICE,
FIRST DIVISION,
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 1, 1865.

Sealed Proposals will be received at this office until 12 o'clock on Saturday, March 18, 1865, for the purchase of all horses that may die or be killed at the Gleaboro' Depot, near Washington, D. C., within the next twelve months succeeding the date of the letting of the contract.

The horses will be delivered at a certain designated spot, to be fixed by the United States.

The animals are to be removed daily, and conveyed far enough from the limits of the depot to avoid all nuisance, either to the depot or the residents in the vicinity.

Payment will be required in Government funds, at the close of each month, for all animals delivered up to that date.

Bonds, with approved securities in the sum of ten thousand (10,000) dollars will be required from the party to whom the contract is awarded.

Each proposal must state the price per animal, giving full name and post office address of bidder, and be accompanied by a guarantee signed by two responsible persons and certified by some United States officer or responsible person known to this office, and also by the oath of allegiance, signed, stamped, and duly attested.

This office reserves the right to reject any or all bids that may be offered.

Proposals should be addressed to the undersigned, Washington, D. C., and be plainly marked on the envelope, "Proposals for Dead Horses."
