HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE, Critical Notices of the Press.

The most popular Monthly in the world. We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellence of HARPER'S MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American People; and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, bleached with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature—TALBES'S Guide of American Literature, London.

We can account for its success only by the simple fact that it meets precisely the popular taste, furnishing a variety of pleasing and instructive reading for all.—Zion's Herald, Boston.
