National Republican

OFFICIAL.

ANDREW JOHNSON,
President of the United States of America.

To all whom it may concern:

Satisfactory evidence having been exhibited to me that F. A. SAUTERS, has been appointed Consul of Wurtemberg, at Galveston, Texas, I do hereby recognize him as such, and declare him free to exercise and enjoy such functions, powers, and privileges as are allowed to Consuls by the law of nations, or by the laws of the United States.

In testimony whereof, I have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the city of Washington, the fourteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thou- [L. S.] sand eight hundred and sixty-six, and of the independence of the United States of America the ninetieth.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President:
WM. H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

LOCAL NEWS.

SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' UNION.—The regular weekly meeting of the Soldiers' and Sailors' National Union League was held at their rooms last night, the president, H. A. Hall, in the chair.

Major Bramhall, from committee to amend the constitution, reported favorably, when the amendment was adopted, and the constitution so changed as to read, "Soldiers and Soldiers' Union."

W. A. Short, corresponding secretary, offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we believe the opinion of the Hon. George W. Julian, chairman of the Committee on Public Lands of the House of Representatives, as expressed by him in his elaborate report upon the subject of an equalization of the bounties by giving the soldiers money or bonds instead of land, to be the general sentiment and opinion of the soldiers throughout the Union.

Resolved, That, by his noble advocacy of our just demands, we recognize in him the true friend of the soldier and sailor.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Union are justly due, and the same are hereby tendered, the Hon. George W. Julian, for his efforts in our behalf.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, duly signed and attested, be forwarded to the said gentleman.

Major Haine submitted a memorial to Congress, petitioning that body to pass an act in relation to appointing soldiers and sailors to all positions in the gift of the Government, when competent, in preference to those who have not served their country.

The business of the evening having been transacted, Maj Gen. Butler was called to the chair, and made some appropriate remarks.

Col. D. L. Eaton was introduced by Gen. Butler, and delivered a very able and interesting lecture.

Hon. J. E. Moorehead also addressed the meeting.

WORKINGMEN'S CONVENTION.—The regular monthly meeting of this Convention will be held in the Council Chamber, at the City Hall, to-morrow evening. Business of importance will be brought before the Convention.

RELIEF OF THE POOR.—A meeting of the Citizens' Association, for the relief of the poor, will be held in the Council Chamber to-night.

CLOTHING.

HOW HE SUCCEEDED.
BY THE BARD OF OAK HALL.
There is a doctor in our town,
A man of practice and renown;
He makes a handsome income clear,
And lays up money every year.
Now, when he started out in youth,
He had but little cash in truth;
But still he'd try his best to do,
And make a name and money too.
He attended lectures, studied hard,
And very quickly passed the board;
He opened office, hung out sign,
But many patients could not find.
Each day he sat, with saddened face,
For poverty came on apace;
At last a friend gave him advice
Which changed his fortune in a trice.
Now patients flocked from far and near,
And kept him busy all the year;
Men and women, all declare,
No doctor can with him compare.
The secret of his great success,
I'll tell you if you cannot guess;
The same advice will help you all,
He got a suit from SMITH'S OAK HALL.

The Distinguished Baritone of the English Opera,
MR. LUCIAN MAAS,
The Popular Piano Soloist and Conductor, and other eminent Talent.
Miss Zelda Harrison will sing "Oh, Ye Tears," "The Dearest Spot on Earth is Home," "Come in and Shut the Door," "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," the Scotch duet, "When Ye Gang Awa," and the duet, "Trust Her Not," with Mr. Ed. Seguin.
Mr. Ed. Seguin will sing "The Heart Bowed Down," "Simon the Cellarer," "Beautiful Isle of the Sea," and unite in the duets.
Mr. Lucien Maas will play two Solos on the Piano, and accompany the vocalists.
Admission $1. Reserved seats 50 cents extra—can be procured at Philp & Solomons', and at Metzerott's.
OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.
[From the New York Herald, March 4, 1865.]
The rich, cultivated voice of Miss Zelda Harrison gave the aria from Elijah, "Oh, Rest in the Lord," with thrilling effect. We have never heard "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep" sung with more intense feeling and power than by this lady on Thursday night.
[From the Evening Post.]
Miss Zelda Harrison is a young lady of some eighteen summers, modest and comely in appearance, with a childlike witchery of manner and expression which carried captive the young and the old. Her contralto voice is rich and vigorous by nature, with an intonation of seductive plaintiveness as rare as irresistible.
[From the New York Daily Times.]
It is needless to say she was encored in everything, and received throughout the evening the most enthusiastic demonstrations of approbation and delight.
[From the New York World.]
Miss Harrison has a voice that in character fulfils the requisites of a mezzo soprano, but in addition to the regular soprano compass she is discovered also to possess a facility for making unexpected excursions into the deep musical recesses of the true contralto.
[From the Tribune.]
This young American vocalist was honored by a crowded attendance at Irving Hall on the occasion of her first grand concert. She made a brilliant success, all her selections being most vociferously encored.
Lovers of music, especially those who like to hear the most soul-stirring ballads in their own language, are respectfully requested not to miss the opportunity of hearing this charming artiste, whose success has been unparalleled wherever she has appeared.
The management has great pleasure in announcing that
MISS ROSA COOK,
Prima Donna Soprano, late of the English Opera Troupe, will also appear and sing some of her choicest Morceaux. mh20-2t
