WASHINGTON, July 6, 1866.

SECOND SUNDAY IN JULY.—Quarterly-meeting services will be held in Ryland Chapel, on the Island, Rev. William Hamilton, D. D., during the day. The morning discourse will be delivered by the Rev N. J. B. Morgan, D. D.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon Love-feast will take place under the direction of the Presiding Elder and other preachers who may be present. Members of all other Methodist churches in the District of Columbia and Alexandria are cordially invited to be present. The usual services will be held in the evening. Rev. Dr. Morgan will, at night, at Gorsuch Chapel.

At the great Love-feast held in Dumbarton street, Georgetown, Rev. William B. Edwards, D. D., "read in" and extended the right hand of fellowship to forty young ladies and gentlemen, who may well be looked to for efficient services hereafter in the Sabbath School and other departments of that communion. It was truly a season of intense interest.

To-morrow is also the regular day for communion services in First Baptist church, Thirteenth street.

During the week past, notwithstanding the intense heat of the weather, work on all our great church improvements progressed rapidly.

We intend to make the religious and school departments of our paper more interesting than ever before, obtaining our information weekly from the most reliable sources.

AN OFFICER ATTACKED.—On Thursday night Detective Kelly, of the Metropolitan police, was stopped by several men near the corner of Eleventh and C streets, who asserted that they did not believe he was an officer, and he must show his badge. Mr. Kelly produced his badge, when one of the parties wanted to get hold of it, but they could play no such game on the officer. Mr. Kelly was about to leave them when he was again called, and some rough language used towards him. The officer drew his "billy" and struck one of the men as he came up. By this time Officers Markwood, Barclay, and Yeatman reached the place, when two of the parties were secured and taken to the Central guard-house, where they gave their names as George A. Napier and Dallas McCollom. They had a hearing before Justice Thompson yesterday morning, and were each fined $3. When attacked Mr. Kelly had the use of but one hand, having received a severe cut on his left hand while assisting Officer Frazier to quiet a disturbance at Teutonia Hall on Wednesday morning. Mr. Kelly has several times been assaulted, but they get hold of the wrong man, as he is a faithful officer and not to be deterred from the discharge of his duty.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Alexander Meekins, a colored servant at the Avenue House, corner of Seventh street and Market Space, was arrested yesterday by Officer Frazier, for assault and battery on Mr. H. I. King, proprietor of the house. From the evidence before Justice Thompson it appeared that Meekins had been impudent to some of the boarders, and Mr. King called him to account for his conduct, paid him and ordered him to leave the house. Meekins refused to go, and Mr King attempted to put him out, when the negro knocked Mr. K down and jumped on him. Justice Thompson held the accused to bail for court.

THE FAIR.—Notwithstanding the warm weather, a very large number of persons attended the National Fair last evening, and until the closing hour the hall was crowded. At the New York table a fine oil painting by Gen. Dalton was won by Mr. Wm. M Stewart. This table acknowledges the receipt of $25 from Mrs. Major Alberger. At the Pennsylva ia table auction was held, and a number of fancy articles disposed of. At the other tables chances were rapidly taken and a number of articles raffled.

REV. GRANVILLE MOODY.—This distinguished divine and soldier preaches to-morrow, at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., in Hamline M. E church, corner of Ninth and P streets. Those who have heard him before will seize this opportunity to hear him again. A collection will be taken up for the benefit of the National Freedmen's Relief Association of this District.

KILLED.—Mr. Milton Glassgow, who resided at the corner of Pitt and King streets, fell or jumped from a locomotive, near Gordonsville, on the O. & A. R. R., yesterday, and received injuries from which he died in a few hours He will be buried from his late residence this afternoon.—Alexandria Journal 6th.

BEAUTIFUL TEETH are always fragile, and short-lived will be their whiteness, their lustre, their smoothness, without scrupulous care; but if brushed daily with the pure and purifying Sozodont, they will retain their beauty even when the brow is wrinkled and the hair is gray.

Later from Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, July 5.—The steamer Pezsano, from Bagdad on the 26th, has arrived at Brazhear City.

The steamers Halcombe and Eugene, with two schooners containing Gen. Alvero and staff, together with about one thousand persons, consisting of troops, Government officials, women and children, crossed the bar of the Rio Grande, on the 26th ult, bound to Vera Cruz.

Gen. Escobedo occupied Matamoras on the evening of the 25th with 2,500 men. Matamoras is remarkably quiet and healthy.

GALVESTON, July 5.—Matamoras dates to the 3d instant state that Carvajal will issue an address saying that his troops, naked and hungry, expect $100,000 to be contributed without levying a loan.

Juares has been sent for to re-establish his government. They are now confident of capturing Monterey.

Great confidence exists in the passage of the loan bill by the United States Congress.

Matamoras is unusually quiet.

Destructive Fires.

NEW ORLEANS, July 5.—The Odd Fellows' Hall, the most massive and magnificent building in this city, excepting the St. Charles Hotel, was burned last night. The building, including the furniture, was valued at $300,000.

The Masonic Society have offered accommodations to burned lodges.

CINCINNATI, July 6.—The total loss by the fire in Lawrenceburg, Ind., will reach $100,000. Twenty-one buildings were destroyed, covering an area of nearly two acres.

A fire here, on the 4th inst., destroyed nearly $15,000 worth of property.

CHERRY VALLEY, N Y., July 6.—Nearly all the buildings on the north side of Main street, in this place, were destroyed by fire last night. The loss is from seventy-five thousand to one hundred thousand dollars.

From Portland.

PORTLAND, Me., July 6.—Five car-loads of provisions came down from Boston last night, and are now being distributed among the people. Large amounts of supplies have come in from various places. They were greatly needed, as most of the provision stores had been burned, and there was scarcely anything left to be bought, and our people were living on bread alone

The Atheneum library was totally destroyed.

The city buildings and Custom House blazed up again this morning.

The rain is falling now, but it is scarcely needed as the flames were so furious that everything has been burned up

Two Persons Drowned.

HUDSON, N. Y., July 5.—A sad calamity occurred yesterday afternoon. While a party was proceeding to Roger's Island on a pic-nic excursion in small boats, one of the boats was swamped two miles below this city, and Mr. Frederick A. Gifford, Jr., of this city, and Miss Louisa Manley, of Ottawa, Illinois, were drowned. Mr. Gifford was one of our most respected young business men, and the sad affair casts a general gloom over the city. The bodies have not yet been recovered.

Outrageous Assault—Child Killed.

NEW YORK, July 5.—In Brooklyn, yesterday, a man named W. Voltz, a painter, deliberately fired a loaded musket into a group of children, killing one and wounding two. The name of the child killed was Wm Leuman aged six years; the children wounded were Wm. Mattern and Chas. Bagert. Voltz was arrested.

From New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, July 5.—The celebration of Independence Day was universal. The shipping and consulate displayed innumerable flags. The firemen had a grand festival.

The Western Texas elections repudiate negro suffrage strongly.

Continued reports are received of murder and robbery by negro troops on Red river.

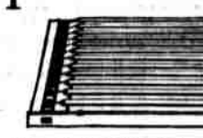
TUCKER'S PATENT SPRING BEDS.



Eleven years since Hiram Tucker, of Boston, patented a Spring Bed of his own invention, which has steadily increased in popularity since that time, and to-day stands unrivalled. Combining as it does the several requirements of comfort, cleanliness, portability, durability, and cheapness, it may justly be regarded as a household necessity. Those who have once tested its merits will never abandon it for any other contrivance which has yet been devised for man's comfort during the hours devoted to repose. There is nothing so essential to sound health as sound sleep, and this is secured by the use of Tucker's Patent Spring Bed.
