Deferred Locals.

LIBERAL BEQUESTS.—The late James S. Harvey, of the firm of Harvey, Clarke & Given, made some liberal bequests in his will. He makes a bequest of $1,000 to St. Vincent's Asylum; $1,000 to St. Joseph's Male Asylum; $500 to St. Ann's Infant Asylum; $1,000 to St. Aloysius Free School; and $1,000 to the poor of Washington. He also gives $1,000 toward the erection of the new St. Patrick's church; and makes various donations ranging from $200 to $2,000 to his nephews. All the rest of his personal property is left to his son, who, in conjunction with Mr. Henry A. Clarke, are named as executors in the will.

A DANGEROUS PRACTICE.—A large number of the boys in the city, we notice, are addicted to throwing stones in the streets, at great risk of injuring pedestrians and damaging property. The police have made examples of boys of this disposition time and again, and yet many of them indulge themselves in the dangerous amusement as soon as they are out of sight of an officer. On Monday afternoon, as a gentleman was passing along E street north, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets west, he received a severe lick just under the right eye by a stone thrown by a small lad. The poverty of the family, in this instance, saved the father of the boy a heavy fine.

A NOVEL ADVERTISEMENT.—We take the following from the Lake City (Minn.) Leader:

For Sale!—I will now offer for sale five houses and lots in Lake City, and also one hundred vacant lots. Now, if you will take the trouble to call on me, I will do as the bible directs—if a stranger comes along I will take him in.

For full particulars and easy terms inquire of H. K. TERRELL.

City auctioneers can govern themselves by the above, if they desire.

TRESPASS.—Frank Fuller, a lad of thirteen years, was arrested by Officer Crown for trespassing on the premises of Joseph Holdridge, near the city boundary. Justice Walter fined him $5. We hope the little fellows who prey upon the orchards and gardens near the city will take warning.

PROGRESSING.—The fine marble-front four-story building being erected on Seventh street, opposite the Patent Office, for Mr. Wm. Higgins, is now ready to receive its cornice, which is both rich and massive. This, when completed, will be a fine building.

THE COMING PRIZE FIGHT.—Letters have been received by prominent parties of this city from James Cusick, trainer of Aaron Jones, in which he states that Aaron's feet are all right. That he will fight at 175 pounds, and calculates to win the coming "mill."

ENTICING PROSTITUTION.—Annie Faulkner and Annie Johnson, two colored nymphs of the pave, were arrested on Monday night by Officers Hill and Roth, of the Second ward, for enticing prostitution, and were fined $3 each by Justice Walter.

CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPONS.—G. B. watkins was arrested on Monday night for carrying a pistol concealed upon his person. Officer Pumphrey, of the Seventh ward, took the accused to the station-house, where, after investigation, he was fined $20 by Justice Tucker.

POLICE REPORTS.—The lieutenants of the various precincts reported yesterday 57 arrests in the entire District. The usual proportion of corporation cases appeared in the returns, and the amount of fines imposed was $114.40.

FINED.—Robert Wilson was arrested by Officer Sprague for using profane and very indedent language in the presence of females and publicly in the streets. Justice Tucker fined him $10.

SENT TO JAIL.—James Mason was arrested by Officer Hughes for assault and battery on Josh. H. Lee. He was ordered to pay a fine of $5, and failing to do so was committed to jail by Justice Walter.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, CITY HALL, WASHINGTON, D. C., August 6, 1867.

PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS, AND PROPOSALS FOR AN IRON BRIDGE TO SPAN ROCK CREEK AT K STREET NORTH.

Plans and specifications, with or without proposals, will be received at this office until the 26th day of August, 1867, at 12 o'clock m., for building an Iron Bridge of 112½ feet clear span, and of 47 feet width.

The with of the bridge will be divided into two roadways, each having a clear width of 16 feet; two footways, each having a clear width of 3½ feet, and the remaining four feet of the extreme width will be occupied by three trusses, each having a width of 1 foot, and two railings outside of the foot way, each having a width of 6 inches.

The Bridge must be wholly composed of the best American iron, except the floor covering, which will be composed of good sound Oak plank; two thicknesses of 3-inch plank for the roadways; and one thickness of 2-inch Oak plank for the footways.

The Bridge must be designed with reference to bearing, exclusive of its own weight, a load of 500,000 pounds, uniformly distributed over its deck surfaces, and the sizes of its component parts must be so proportioned that the tensive strain upon them under the loads named shall not in any part exceed 10,000 pounds to the square inch of cross-section, and such parts as will be acted upon compressively must have sufficient additional size to prevent their yielding injuriously by deflection.

The bottom of the bridge-chord will be, say 11 feet 6 inches above water surface.

The stone abutments to be heightened about 3 feet, at the expense of the city.

Bidders will state what length of time they will require for the execution of the work.

No proposals will be considered unless accompanied by satisfactory guarantees that the contract if awarded, will be faithfully executed; and the privilege is reserved of rejecting any and all plans, specifications, and proposals, if it is to the interest of the corporation.

The bids should be addressed to the Mayor, and endorsed "Proposals for an Iron Bridge."
