FRIDAY MORNING ..... OCTOBER 30, 1868

Office Cor. Tenth and D, near Penn. avenue

W. J. MURTAGH ... PROPRIETOR

FOR PRESIDENT:

ULYSSES S. GRANT,

OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT:

SCHUYLER COLFAX,

OF INDIANA.

"I care nothing for promotion, so long as our arms are successful."—Grant to Sherman, February, 1862.

"If my course is not satisfactory, remove me at once. I do not wish in any way to impede the success of our arms."—Grant to Halleck, February 5, 1862.

"This is a Republic, where the will of the people is the law of the land."—General Grant's letter to President Johnson, August, 1867.

"I shall have no policy of my own to interfere against the will of the people."—Grant's Letter, May 26, 1868.

"Human liberty, the only true foundation of human government."—Grant's Letter to Citizens of Memphis.

INDICATIONS.

There is no more sure precursor of the downfall of a party than this—an earnest and persistent effort to explain. Mr. Seymour is on a tour, and the chief staple of all his speeches is explanations—a studied attempt to defend some dogma of the party. While he perambulates the West on a pilgrimage designed to defend his party and its platform, Frank Blair comes East as far as New York to tell the cold-hot Democracy at Tammany that he is not as bad as he is painted—that his Banshead letter does him injustice. He don't mean it. He is really peacefully inclined—loves the Constitution and the Union.

It is very amusing to see how these Democratic candidates are jumping about and making hasty work to explain their position, while the Republicans are calm and serene, and stand firmly in their assured strength. There is no need of explanation. All is clear and plain, and they steadily push on the column with full confidence of an assured victory.

Let Us Have One Thing or the Other.

Mr. Seymour argues in one of his recent speeches that it will be better for the country to elect a Democratic President, even though we continue to have a Republican Congress. He said he was not at all believe this; and we think that any sensible man who has observed the discord and confusion incident to Mr. Johnson's administration and inseparable from the antagonistic policy which has distinguished the majority of Congress, will agree with us in this conclusion. Certainly [illegible] we have order, peace and [illegible] Government affairs [illegible] state of things continues. In case of three dissentient elements [illegible] with the slight difference of substituting Mr. Seymour's name in the place of Mr. Johnson's, is what Mr. Seymour is [illegible] to do, for he eulogizes Mr. Johnson and compliments him for the course he has taken. But is this wise or expedient? Granting, if you please, the moral impossibility of Mr. Seymour's election, a Republican Congress is unavoidable. None but an ignoramus will dispute this. It is certainly patent to every intelligent politician.

Still, on this hypothesis, nothing is gained in the way of relief from our present troubles. We simply continue the same regime, and go on as of yesterday, with the same disturbing influences to disorganize and obstruct the legislation and business of the country. Is this prudent or desirable? Is it desirable to the great mass of our countrymen? We think not. Even admitting the fact of mistakes and obnoxious legislation, on the part of the Republicans, we believe the opinion prevails that these had better be endured, for the time being, than this anomalous and incongruous state of affairs should continue; that prosperity will be more sure to come with a President and Congress in harmony, though its policy should be obnoxious to a portion of the people, than as now, with divided counsels and antagonistic policies, where each may be liable to blame, and where each seeks to throw the responsibility upon the other when disaster occurs, but where neither accepts or admits the charge.

Now, it is time this condition of things came to an end. Let us have a Government in harmony with itself. Let us have a party in power that is responsible for the good or evil that occurs; that cannot shift the responsibility from one department of the Government to the other. In short, stop this cross-firing, and give the Republicans a fair chance to carry out their own policy, without this constant jarring of contending factions. Do this, then if they fail to protect the interests and secure the just ends of good government by wise legislation and beneficent influence, they will go to the wall. It will be time enough then to look for some other party that can do better. In view of these facts we cannot do better than vote for the candidates of the Republican party. We hope for their success, and believe that in it lies the path to stability and peace.

Reception of General Grant.

The Soldiers' and Sailors' Republican Central Committee respectfully invite and urge the co-operation of all Republican organizations and citizens in this city, Georgetown, the District of Columbia, Alexandria, and vicinity, in the grand reception and hospitable entertainment to take place on the return of the Republican leader, General U. S. Grant, to this city.

All organizations not included as such within the Boys in Blue, are invited to send delegates to report at a business meeting to be held at Republican headquarters, 340 Pennsylvania avenue, at 8 p. m., Wednesday evening, November 4.

The Republican clubs in each ward and in Georgetown are respectfully requested to select a member for each ward, who will report for assignment to duty, as to General Albert Grant, commanding Boys in Blue, on or before the date above given.

The commanding officer of the Boys in Blue suggests the advisability of holding a rendezvous at an early date. It is believed that this will be the greatest political demonstration ever witnessed in the Federal District, and every [illegible] is expected to aid heartily in making it [illegible] well honor our great leader [illegible] the hero of the nation.

By order of [illegible]

E. [illegible]

[illegible]

THE SCHEME [illegible] city councils have passed an ordinance [illegible] to erect a wooden bridge over the [illegible] in lieu of a wrought-iron bridge, it is [illegible] built for less than $10,000, the sum [illegible] appropriated, confident by the bridge [illegible] will work the principle of letting it for two years, [illegible] expected to cost the corporation nothing. A practical engineer should be consulted and such a bridge built as will meet the requirements of travel, and be in the end the cheapest.

POLITICAL.

AND now John Forsyth turns upon the World, and that, too, after receiving such a handsome editorial notice. We quote from the Mobile Register: "As for the World itself, its course is extraordinary, and with the lights before us, indefensible. There is so much mystery about it that the World will owe it to its reputation to give to the public an explanation of its motives, very different from those so generally attributed to it. It is difficult to conceive that a journal, conducted with an ability so signal and stirring, and that has gone through the canvass, up to a certain point, with so much zeal and enthusiasm, could prove treacherous and counterfeit. And again, it would seem that if the World desired to play the part of cat's paw to the bondholders it ought to have too much sense not to see that the rights of the public creditor, and the financial honor of the Government would be safer in the hands of an honest and Democratic administration than in those of the corrupt party that now rule at Washington."

THE Memphis Bulletin, in referring to the recent threats of assassination, says: "If Grant shall be assassinated, we shall know whom to hang."

IT has just come to light that in the town of Greenwich, Ct., there are no actual residents to answer for one hundred and sixty-six names which were voted upon in that town at the last election. And in New London, which went Democratic at the last election, there are two hundred more names than men. A Democratic board has heretofore controlled the registration there.

AN Alexandria (Va.) Democratic paper persistently discredits the report that the Republicans triumphed in Pennsylvania and Ohio. "It is a Hallam lie," says this organ of the "counterfeit;" "a bold attempt to dampen the ardor of the Democrats of this country."

THE Richmond Dispatch talks in this wise concerning Mr. Seymour's circle tours: "Mr. Seymour is to speak not only in his own State but in Pennsylvania. If he can accomplish any other purpose by so doing, we shall rejoice that he has made the necessary sacrifice of dignity. But we are strongly inclined to the opinion that for every concession he shall make to the Radical party, for every apology he shall make for Gen. Blair's violence, he will lose many votes. The enemy will press him the more, the more he falters. There was but one successful campaign possible—an obtrusive one. We announced in the beginning that Seymour would defeat himself if he undertook to make smooth speeches to tickle the ears of the Radicals. He will find that 'none but brave deserve the Presidency.'"

THE World its "Democratic gains"
Expands each day, like bladders,
Which shows its editors have changed
From copperheads to adders.

THE Hon. John Sherman is at home, very much worn by his arduous labors during the campaign. He will, however, speak at Oberlin and Crestline, Ohio, during the coming week.

THE storms of November will make the Grecian bend.

A DEMOCRATIC contemporary says of Mr. Seymour, that he is a "Grecian discoursing among nets."

IN Andover Theological Seminary, are students from all the Northeastern States except Rhode Island; from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Canada, the Island of Ceylon, and the Hawaiian Islands, every man is for Grant and Colfax.

SHERMAN was a joint discussion at Racine, Wis., last week, between Senator Doolittle and Gen. Washburn.

SINCE the late elections the Mobile Tribune, a rank rebel sheet, says: "The election of Seymour and Blair cannot restore a Union which never really existed but in name. It could give up a little repose, during which we should be able to repair our shattered fortunes; but it could not possibly result in securing to us a free and enduring government. The Southern man who heretofore enlisted in the Radical ranks is a traitor. He who goes now is double-dyed traitor—one whose palm should never be permitted to press that of an honest man."

FOREIGN NEWS BY CABLE.

LONDON, Oct. 29—Evening.—After a careful survey of the field, the leaders of the Liberal party have become convinced that they are sure in the coming elections of the choice of a large majority of Liberal members to the new House of Commons.

The following has been quietly mentioned in Liberal circles as the probable cast of the new Ministry: Premier, Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone; Foreign Secretary, John Bright; Chancellor of the Exchequer, Hugh Culling Eardly Childers; Lord Chancellor, Sir Roundell Palmer; Secretary of War, Marquis of Hartington.

BERLIN, Oct. 29—The session of the North German Diet will be formally opened by King William in person on the 4th of November; and it is asserted, on semi-official authority, that the speech from the throne will be of a reassuring and pacific character.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—The Moniteur of to-day says that the army bill which passed the Austrian Reichsrath will not be signed by the Emperor. It adds that the Minister of War, Baron John, has said publicly that Austria is arming only in proportion to the extent of her population.

VIENNA, Oct. 29.—The announcement is made by the Ministry that the interpretation which has been put upon the recent speech of Baron Von Beust is a false one; and that the policy of Austria is peace.

VIENNA, October 29—Afternoon.—The Diet has passed a bill giving authority to the Government to recruit 40,000 additional soldiers, Baron Von Beust having given formal assurances that the men to be enlisted will merely fill up the deficiency in the standing army, and not swell it above the number fixed by law.

VIENNA, October 29—Evening—The Ministry has made no explanation to the Reichsrath as to the strength of the army. The normal war footing is fixed at 800,000 men, and the present active force is not to be increased.

PARIS, October 29.—Queen Isabella and suite are expected here on the 6th of November.

Affairs in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, October 29.—The letter of Thomas W. Conway, State Superintendent of Education, to General Grant on the 1st United States infantry, and by General Grant referred through the proper channel to that regiment, together with the comments thereon of nineteen officers of the regiment, is published in the Picayune this morning. The officers pronounce it a malicious slander and unmitigated falsehood.

Lieutenant Colonel Sheldon Sturger endorses upon the letter that Conway, while a minister of the Gospel, and chaplain of a colored regiment in this city in 1864, persistently attempted to draw money from the Government, (through Col. Sturger,) to which he was clearly not entitled.

Gen. Buchanan's endorsement states that Conway knew he was uttering an unprovoked, malicious slander; and but for his official position, no notice would be taken of the letter.

Police affairs are still badly mixed. Gen. Steadman this evening tendered his resignation to the Police Board, but it was not accepted. Thos. E. Adams, the former Chief of Police, removed by Gen. Sheridan, was ordered by the Mayor to resume his duties as Chief of Police. Adams presented himself at the police office and demanded possession, which was refused, several Metropolitan Police Commissioners being at the office at the time.

Quiet prevails throughout the city, except among the officers at the City Hall and Central police station.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—It being generally represented by Republicans that the Democrats intend to carry the coming election in this State by fraud, violence and intimidation, and that the recent disturbances were outcroppings of such determination, the Central Committee of the Independent Democratic clubs, representing all the Democratic clubs in the parish of New Orleans, this morning adopted resolutions guaranteeing to every voter in this parish, without reference to race, color or politics, full protection in the exercise of suffrage, and guaranteeing them against any and all acts of intimidation or fraud, and calling on every voter in the city or State to exercise his right of suffrage on the 3d of November next.

It was resolved further, that whilst as Democrats they will use all fair and honorable means to insure the success of their party, they will resort to no means whatever to intimidate their political enemies, and prevent their voting, and that they invite all persons, of whatever political complexion, to join in an effort to secure peace and harmony at the polls on the day of election; to the end, that the most timid members of any party may feel assured of safety and protection against danger or undue influences in the exercise of suffrage.

The committee promulgating these resolutions represent the clubs, who, on Wednesday evening, tendered their services en masse to the Mayor, for the restoration and preservation of peace. Aside from the spirit of these resolutions, General Rousseau had received further accessions of troops, and will be able to prevent all but individual acts of violence.

A general parade of all the parish Democratic clubs was contemplated for Saturday night, but has been abandoned.

Affairs in Havana.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The steamer Eagle, from Havana, brings a copy of the proclamation issued by the Republican Revolution Committee, which is full of fire and breathes the most revolutionary spirit. The document recites the acts of despotism of the Government of Queen Isabella, and concludes with a strong appeal for a federal republic, saying: "We pronounce for liberty, equality and fraternity—Cubans and Spaniards! We demand popular suffrage without coercion, the dissolution of a permanent army, the establishment of a national militia, justice for all classes, municipal independence, liberty of the press, liberty of discussion, freedom of commerce, freedom of industry, freedom to emigrate, the abolition of monopoly and the abolition of slavery. Let us defend our liberty with dignity, and respect all opinions. Let us embrace the opportunity to secure the freedom of Cuba. We greet the victors of Spain—Viva Spanish liberty! Viva the liberty of Cuba! Viva the federal republic!"

BALTIMORE, October 29.—Nathan Borkenstein, a member of Hope and Lexington Company, No. 1, was thrown from the truck and killed this morning.

Proclamation by the Governor of South Carolina.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 29.—Gov. Scott has issued the following proclamation:

To the Citizens of South Carolina:

FELLOW-CITIZENS: The numerous complaints made to this department of murders and outrages committed by wicked and inconsiderate persons excited by intense party feeling make it my duty to issue the late proclamation calling all good and true men, without respect to political predilections, to unite in a determination to discountenance and denounce lawlessness and violence in an effort to recover and maintain the good name that has heretofore been the heritage and the pride of our beloved State.

It is now my pleasing duty to congratulate you upon the beneficial results that have ensued from the admirable and well-timed address of General Hampton and the Executive Committee of the Democratic party. In honest and impressive terms, they have called upon the people to support the laws, to preserve the peace, and to denounce those crimes which have so recently been committed in some portions of our State.

These patriotic counsels cannot fail of having a wide and wholesome influence in moderating the vehemence of feeling of those to whom they are authoritively addressed, while they have quieted the apprehensions and conciliated the respect and good will of their political opponents.

This is certainly a just cause of congratulation to every well-wisher of the State; and it gives me unfeigned pleasure to acknowledge it, and to earnestly invoke the co-operation of every member of the Republican party in reciprocating to the fullest extent the pacific policy so admirably inculcated by the Democratic leaders.

Let recriminations and irritating discussions be avoided, and appeals be made to the intelligence and reason, and not to the fears or passions of the community.

Differ as we may in political sentiments, it is the dictate alike of wisdom and of patriotism for all to appeal to and confide in the efficacy of peaceful remedies for political evils, actual or supposed.

Let "bear and forbear" be our maxim; and so shall the peace, prosperity, and honor of our beloved State be maintained and perpetuated, and her time-honored escutcheon will be preserved unsullied and undimmed, in all its original purity and lustre.

(Signed) ROBERT L. SCOTT, Governor.

Virginia Agricultural Fair.

STAUNTON, VA., Oct. 29.—The Valley Agricultural Fair closed to day with a grand tournament and address to the knights by Gen. Echols.

A. P. Routt & Co., of Liberty Mill's, Virginia, obtained the highest and the greatest number of premiums for native inventions in improved cultivators; H. M. Smith & Co., of Richmond, for machinery and presses; Burger & Bulyers, of Baltimore, for fertilizers; and Whitemore & Co., of Baltimore, for agricultural implements.

The fair was very successful. The Chesapeake and Ohio railroad passes return visitors, stock, and machinery free.

From New York—Naturalization—Horace Greeley Withdraws.

NEW YORK, October 29.—Judge Davies, o the Court of Appeals, who presided at the great Republican meeting last evening, has published his opinion in regard to the duties of registers and inspectors respecting naturalized citizens.

Judge Davies decides that the registers have no right to reject a certificate of naturalization signed and sealed by the courts, and that when any such certificate is produced, the name of the voter must go on the registry.

Horace Greeley publishes a card announcing his withdrawal from the canvass in the Fifth Congressional district.

Prize Fights.

BOSTON, October 29.—The prize fight yesterday in Framingham, between John Horan and Watt Jarvis, was severely contested. On the sixty-fourth round Moran struck the centre stake, smashed his hand and broke his arm, thus losing the fight, which, up to that time, had been in his favor.

O'Baldwin and Wormald are bound over for trial by the Supreme Court in January. Up to this evening they have failed to obtain bail.

The Episcopal Convention.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The Episcopal Convention to-day passed resolutions of sympathy with the English Church consequent on the death of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

A resolution was also adopted condemning the public sale of church pews.

The closing exercises of the convention took place this evening.
