REGISTER! REGISTER! REGISTER!

The Board of Registration will commence their labors in the Second ward this afternoon, on New York avenue, next to the corner of Thirteenth street, and will be in session from 3 o'clock until 7, p. m. They will also sit at the same hours to-morrow and every afternoon this week.

Let every citizen register. Let every voter in the Second ward understand that it is his bounden duty to register. Unless his name is on the list he cannot vote, and the citizen of the Second ward that can exercise the franchise and will not is unworthy the name of citizen. If you cannot spare the time to-day make your arrangements so they will not interfere with the duty to-morrow, or Wednesday, or Thursday, or Friday. Do not permit anything to deter you. Let this advice be heeded.

A BILL passed the House of Representatives on Wednesday last, under the auspices of the Committee on Revision of the Laws, to change the formula of the enacting clauses of legislative enactments. The object of the committee, doubtless, was to avoid any useless repetition, and to curtail any unnecessary verbiage, but they came far short of accomplishing their purpose, and the best thing the Senate can do is to postpone the subject indefinitely.

There is nothing in the Constitution of the United States, or in the laws, prescribing any form of enactment; but the usage hitherto has been to preface every bill or resolution with the words, "Be it enacted (or resolved) by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled," and each additional section of a bill or resolution with the words, "and be it further enacted" (or resolved.)

Certainly, this repetition of the enacting or resolving clauses at the beginning of every section, is superfluous; but, as there is no law on the subject, it can, at pleasure, be dispensed with, although when it accidentally is omitted in the hurry of enrolment in the the closing hours of a session, the State Department, who are particular, always supply it.

But the Committee on the Revision of the Laws, of the House, deem the matter very important. In their recent bill (sent to the Senate) they provide that the enacting clause shall be, "Be it enacted by the Congress of the United States," and that simple resolutions of either House shall be, "Be it resolved by the House of Representatives (or Senate) of the United States."

They have added to the verbiage, as far as simple resolutions are concerned—for it hitherto has merely been, "resolved"—for the blank printed forms of resolutions in each House are, "—— Congress, —— session. Congress of the United States; In the House of Representatives (or Senate,) resolved," &c. So that increased labor has been imposed on the officers of each House, as very often a resolve is prefaced by a preamble.

The fact is, the enactment of forms is a gratuitous labor on the part of our legislators. The executive officer of each House might be permitted to attend to these matters; and we repeat the suggestion that the sooner this subject is indefinitely postponed the better.

All the enrolled acts of either House of Congress have a heading as follows: "—— Congress, —— Session. Begun, and held in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on —— the —— day of —— 18—." Then follows the title. No law is in existence on the subject, and it is so palpably a matter of arrangement by the executive officers of each House, that we are surprised that it should be made the subject now, after the existence of the Government for over eighty-three years, for legislation.

But, in addition, there are provisions in the bill, that the singular number may mean the plural, and vice versa, and that the male shall also mean female. That would afford a short method of introducing female suffrage in the District of Columbia, without a sixteenth amendment to the Constitution.

ANOTHER FEARFUL WARNING.—The New York Tribune, commenting on the execution of Jack Reynolds, on Friday last, says:

"A few wretched tears and a spasm, perhaps, of anguish on the scaffold yesterday, and the poor withered brain of Jack Reynolds ceased to act, and his hard, jaded heart to beat. He passed out of that tremendous extremity which comes to men who are almost born to crime, and whom influences of home and school and church do not reach to save them from passion, rum and murder. "I wish all the liquor was out of the world," said intemperate Jack Reynolds; and for the sake of such as Reynolds so do we. The gallows yesterday once more scourged every rum-shop; the executioner drank the health of the public enemy—rum again the test of our institutions, and we were weighed in the bottle, as it were, and found wanting."

THE PROBABLE TIME when Congress will adjourn is being canvassed to a considerable extent by members and others about the Capitol. Notwithstanding a strong disposition on the part of many of the leading men of either House to get through with business and go home, the opinion gains ground that the session will be a protracted one, and July or August are named as the earliest time at which an adjournment can be made. Much time will be spent in the discussion of the funding bill, and till that is disposed of the day of adjournment will be matter of speculation.

ENCOURAGING REPORTS from the Darien expedition have been received. All the members of the expedition are in good health and sanguine of success. A reconnoissance had been made to the west slope of the Cordilleras demonstrating that the Caledonia river has a rise of only fifty feet to the mountain spurs; and that between that point and the plain of the Sucubiti river on the Pacific slope there is only a distance of one and a half miles of higher elevation.

SAN DOMINGO.—General Butler made another ineffectual attempt yesterday to secure consideration for his San Domingo annexation bill. He will make another attempt today, and under a suspension of the rules he may be more successful. The bill provides for the annexation of St. Domingo as the Territory of Dominica, with the consent of the Dominicans, and it further provides for the payment of $1,250,770.00, and no more, to liquidate the debt of the new Territory.

"LITTELL'S LIVING AGE" for April 9th, just received from the publisher, has its usual interesting collection of articles from the pens of the best known writers.

SUPERVISOR ENERY, of Tennessee, reports the destruction of nineteen illicit stills and five thousand bushels of mash, in the Fourth Tennessee district, by a detachment of United States cavalry.

Personal.

It is rumored in London that the Right Hon. Chichester Fortescue, Chief Secretary for Ireland, has been elevated to the peerage, and will soon replace Earl Spencer as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Mr. Palmer will succeed Fortescue as Irish Secretary. Lord Hatherly becomes Lord Selborne.

Mr. Blacklock, formerly connected with the Electric Telegraph Company of England, has been appointed superintendent of the Atlantic Company.

The Methodist bishops, Ames and Janes, officiated on Saturday afternoon at the laying of the corner-stone of the new church in Harlem, N. Y.

Charles E. Lockwood has been awarded $15,000 by a jury for injuries sustained by him on the New York Central railroad.

Ex-Senator Foster will probably be speaker of the Connecticut House of Representatives.

Mr. J. W. Wallack has accepted an engagement as "leading man" at Selwyn's Boston Theatre.

Professor Morse, the telegraphic inventor, is now nearly eighty years old, and it is proposed by the telegraphers to present him with a national testimonial.

Senator Yates, who has been dangerously ill of hemorrhage of the bowels, is much better.

The heirs of John Minor Botts have petitioned the Virginia Legislature for compensation for property taken by the United States troops during the war.

General Hooker is in New York, with mind as vigorous as ever, but bodily a sad and melancholy wreck. He is almost helpless from paralysis, and requires the constant aid of an attendant.

Miss Laura De Force Gordon is the Miss Susan Anthony of the Pacific coast. She is said to be good looking and a pleasant speaker.

A life-size portrait of William M. Tweed was on Saturday put up in the chamber of the New York Board of Supervisors. It is beautifully framed in black walnut, and cost $3,000.

Hon. George Ashman is in a dying condition at his home in Springfield, Mass.

Mr. Bergh, the protector of animals, has also been coming out as a lecturer. His lecture makes the laughable assumption—conveyed in the form of a dream—that he died, went to horse heaven, and while there enjoyed the opportunity of hearing the confessions of all defunct animals.

F. O. Kittridge, of Boston, and Capt. O'Neill, of 6th Royal Dragoons, England, are at the Metropolitan Hotel.

Judge Peabody, New York; Frank Skinner, Boston; A. S. Barnes, Boston, and Hon. A. C. F. Wilder, New York, are at the Arlington.

T. H. G. Todd, esq., son of our well-known fellow-citizens, Wm. B. Todd, esq., sailed on Thursday last for Liverpool, and will be absent several months. He was accompanied by Mr. Samuel Smith, of the firm of Kleuche & Co., of this city.

Abolish the Income Tax.

This relic of the war hangs heavily upon the necks of our patient going citizens; submission to it with patriotic forbearance during the exigencies of the times was a public virtue; its longer continuance becomes burdensome, distasteful and offensive; its self-limiting period calls for an instant repeal of the obnoxious law. The inquisitorial, prying, police administration of the law (necessary at the time of its passage) is anti-republican and insufferable in times of public tranquillity.

This war measure, which was accepted cheerfully at the time of its passage as a public necessity, absolutely stinks in the nostrils of the Republicans of Connecticut, and stood in the way of a party triumph in that State at the late election. In the town where my vote was deposited I heard a general outcry against the income tax. A gentleman of the highest probity told me that to his certain knowledge not less than a dozen Republican voters stayed away from the polls in this single town, literally disgusted with the continuance of this law. Senator Sherman proposes to reduce this peculiar tax one half. No half measure will do; let it be entirely abolished. The people demand it. If it is not done speedily the American people will rise in their might and deal summarily with their Representatives in Congress, even with less etiquette than Senator Sherman extended to the hair-splitting, paper-tearing lawyer from the State of Illinois.

DISCHARGE FROM THE EAR AND PARTIAL DEAFNESS CURED.—Dr. Hartley, late Physician and Proprietor of the EAR INFIRMARY, Philadelphia—the only institution in the United States exclusively and successfully devoted to the treatment of affections of the ear—begs to announce to those of his patients to whom he has been incommunicado that he has, in compliance with their special request, made arrangements to visit Washington, and may be consulted daily, from 9 to 2 o'clock, at his temporary residence, 300 Twelfth street, until the 20th of April.

Dr Hartley generously offers to attend all persons suffering from affections of the Ear without charge, until cured, thereby proving his success unequalled, and preventing the evils from being swindled by paying self-styled aurists exorbitant fees in advance, and the infliction of yet more serious evils by permitting the application of dangerous remedies by inexperienced and unskillful hands.

Dr. H. may have claim that he has no connection whatever with any person advertising to cure deafness. Neither has he given permission for the publication of a "certificate" purporting to emanate from him, and cannot, therefore, be responsible for any alarming consequences resulting from rashness and desperation. The loss of money may not be material; but a man's hearing, or the deprivation of one of the most important of the senses, ought to be regarded and treated with more than ordinary solicitude.

Dea ness, Noise in the head, and all disagreeable discharges from the Ear speedily and permanently removed without causing the least pain or inconvenience. Age: all cases guaranteed where malformation does not exist.

Twenty-one years' close and undivided attention to this branch of practice enables Dr. Hartley to reduce his treatment to such a degree of success as to find the most confirmed and obstinate cases yield by a steady attention to the means prescribed.

The following testimonials are submitted with confidence. They will show, at least, in what estimation his services have been rendered, and by some of the most distinguished medical men of the country:

"I have had the pleasure to meet Dr. HARTLEY in practice, and have been led to form a favorable opinion of his character, both in the profession and as a gentleman. ——Professor of Surgery, &c.

"His professional abilities will be only appreciated by those who have witnessed his cures. JOHN H. WHITAKER, M. D., ——Professor of Anatomy, &c.

(Extract from a letter written by the late Professor Valentine Mott.

"From my intercourse with Dr. HARTLEY, I have found his deportment to be that of a gentleman. VALENTINE MOTT, M. D.

"It is a pleasant duty to give my testimony in favor of the treatment adopted by Dr. HARTLEY for the cure of deafness. The patient was constituted by pain or inconvenience, and its effects are almost instantaneous. H. HARDMAN, ——Counsellor at law, 413 Chambers street."

☞ A CARD.—It is a well-known fact that Mr. Ole Bull uses, at his concerts, none but the celebrated Knabe Pianos. It is due, however, to the public to state that it is not owing to a change of mind on the part of the renowned artist, but simply to an unfortunate delay in getting one of Knabe's pianos here in time that Mr. Ole Bull was compelled, at last Friday night's concert, to avail himself of a piano of another factory, which was already at the hall. F. C. REICHENBACH, Agent of Knabe's Pianos, 483 Eleventh street. apl1-2t

☞ NEWSPAPER STATEMENTS.—Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters.—This is not an age when people believe an item whatever they see in the public journals. Fifty or sixty years ago the delivery of a newspaper that had appeared in one of the gazettes of "News Letters" of the day was questioned, it was considered a sufficient answer to all cavil to say, "it must be so, for I read it in the newspaper." It is not so now. Newspaper assertions must be verified before they are taken for granted, and this is especially the case as regards those statements setting forth the remedial properties of proprietary medicines. For example: It was not until the merits and alterative properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters had been fully tried and thoroughly tested by thousands, and found to be in perfect accord with the printed claims put forth in its behalf, that it was accepted by the public at large as a Standard Remedy. But when multitudes who had resorted to it as a safeguard against malarious fevers, as a cure for indigestion and biliousness, a means of strengthening the frame, cheering the spirits and imparting constitutional vigor, came forward and testified that its beneficial effects had exceeded their most sanguine expectations, of course the world believed. To resist such proofs was impossible. Great care has been taken from the beginning not to overstate the merits of the bitters. Exaggeration and humbug have been the death of many preparations that might otherwise have survived. They were invented by the hundred, but only one, Hostetter's Bitters, on the contrary, have never been announced in grandiloquent language as a cure for every human ill. The fact that they are harmless vegetable specific, possessing remarkable invigorating, regulating, anti-bilious and alterative properties, is all that is, exactly what the public know the medicine to be, and the enormous sale is an argument in its favor. apl1-eoth
