Library of Congress

Daily National Republican.

VOL. X.] WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 14, 1870. [NO. 143.

COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

NEW YORK, May 13—Noon.—Cotton remains firm; sales, 1,700 bales; low middling, 30½; cents; sold lining 1,000 bales. Flour quiet and steady; sales, 8,000 bbls; State, $5.60@5.80; Western, $5.70@5.90; winter, $5.90@6.25; Ohio, $5.60@6.25; winter, $6.00@6.25; Genesee, $6.50@7.50. Wheat firm; sales, 27,000 bushels; winter, $1.20@1.25; Chicago, $1.20@1.25; Milwaukee, $1.20@1.25; winter red, $1.25@1.27. Corn quiet and firmer; sales, 20,000 bushels; mixed, 78@79 cents. Rye steady and steady; $1.05@1.10. Oats, 110.

BALTIMORE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, May 13.—Breadstuffs.—The receipts of Flour are heavy, especially of Western descriptions, the inspections of this week exceeding 20,000 bbls, and the feeling in the market this morning was hardly as strong as it has been, though prices are without material change. There are only about 1,000 bbls City Mills offered, and for such there is a good demand at $6.50@6.75, 500 Howard Street Ctrs, nearly at $6.50; 500 Howard Street Ctrs, nearly at $6.50; 500 Howard Street Ctrs, nearly at $6.50;