THE AMENDED INTERNAL TAX BILL.

The following is the abstract of the bill introduced yesterday by Mr. Schenck to reduce internal taxes and for other purposes:

Under the class of special taxes bankers and banks, with a capital not exceeding $50,000, are required to pay a tax of $100,000; when the capital is in excess of $50,000, $2 additional for every $1,000; savings banks are exempted from this tax.

An additional tax of 1-34th of 1 per centum per month is imposed upon the average amount of deposits, other than public moneys of the United States, and a tax of ¼ of 1 per centum each month on the average amount of public money in their possession, and a tax of 1-24th of 1 per centum on their capital, and a tax of 1-12 per month on circulation, provided that this section shall not apply to associations which are taxed under the act "to provide a national currency secured by a pledge of United States bonds and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof."

Every national banking association or other corporations engaged in banking is further required to pay a tax of ten percentum on the amount of notes used for circulation and paid out by them.

Brokers, banks and bankers are taxed two cents upon each hundred dollars sales of stock, bonds, gold and silver, bullion and coin, promissory notes or other securities, and on sales within the month the payment of a special tax as broker, bank or bankers, five cents for every hundred dollars.

Foreign commercial brokers pay a special tax of $5,000 when their sales do not exceed $1,000,000, and $5,000 for each additional $1,000. Foreign insurance agents are taxed $20 each.

Claim agents pay ten dollars when receipts do not exceed $1,000, and $10 for each additional $1,000.

Patent-right dealers pay $10.

Pawnbrokers whose capital employed does not exceed $50,000 pay $50, and for each $1,000 additional $2.

Hotel-keepers are rated according to yearly rental or estimated yearly rental of the property, as follows: When the yearly rental is $500 or less, $10, and $3 for each additional $100 yearly.

Places of public amusement are taxed for first class, $300 each; second class, $20 each. Rooms or halls occasionally hired for dramatic or operatic representations or performances, or for concert halls or exhibitions, are rated as second class.

Any permanently located building used for any exhibition, performance, show or entertainment, to which admission is given for pay, is to pay a tax of 5 per cent. on the gross receipts.

School exhibitions, reading, lectures, art exhibitions not moved about, agricultural and horticultural fairs and exhibitions for benevolent or religious purposes are exempted.

Bowling alleys and billiard rooms pay $20 for each alley or table.

Lottery managers, $2,000.

Dealers in lottery tickets, $100.

Lottery managers and dealers pay an additional tax of 5 per cent. on gross receipts.

Gift enterprises are taxed 5 per cent.

Distillers producing 25 or less barrels of distilled spirits per annum, are taxed $100 and $4 for each barrel in excess of 25.

Four dollars are assessed upon each barrel which may be in bonded warehouses, to be paid when withdrawn.

Rectifiers of distilled spirits, rectifying or compounding less than 300 per annum, pay $200 and $5 for each barrel in excess of 300.

Retail liquor dealers whose sales do not exceed $2,500 are required to pay $2,500 over 2,500, and not exceeding $10,000, $100; over 10,000 and not exceeding $20,000, $200.

If exceeding $20,000, $1,000.

Wholesale liquor dealers, for $2,000, or less $50, and $25, for each one thousand dollars sale in excess of $2,000.

Manufactures of stills pay a tax of $50, and $25 for each still or worm made by him.

Brewers are taxed $100.

Dealers in leaf tobacco whose annual sales do not exceed $10,000, are taxed $25, if their sales exceed $10,000, $2 for each additional thousand.

Dealers in tobacco whose sales do not exceed $1,000, pay $5, and $2 for each additional thousand.

Manufacturers pay each $10, and $2 for each thousand dollars in excess of $5,000 of their penal bond.

Manufacturers of cigars whose sales do not exceed $5,000 each, pay $10, and $2 for each thousand in excess of $5,000.

The sum of five dollars is levied for each passport issued from the office of the Secretary of State, or by any minister or consul of the United States.

Several of the sections relate to supplying stamps and against counterfeiting.

Schedule B provides:

Bank check, draft or order, two cents.

Bill of exchange, (inland,) draft or order for the payment of any sum of money not exceeding one hundred dollars, five cents.

Bill of exchange, (foreign,) or letter of credit, two cents; and for every additional hundred dollars, or fractional part, two cents.

Bill of lading or receipt, ten cents.

Bill of sale, fifty cents; exceeding five hundred and not exceeding one thousand, one dollar.

Exceeding one thousand dollars, for every additional amount of five hundred dollars, or fractional part thereof, fifty cents.

Where the penal sum exceeds $1,000, or fractional part, 50 cents.

Bonds for the due execution or performance of the duties of any office, $1.

That there shall be levied and collected annually a tax of 5 per centum upon the gains, profits and income of every person residing in the United States, and of every citizen of the United States residing abroad, derived from any source whatever, whether within or without the United States, except as hereinafter provided, and a like tax annually upon the gains, profits and income derived from any business, trade or profession carried on in the United States by any person residing without the United States, and not a citizen thereof, or from rents of real estate within the United States owned by any person residing without the United States and not a citizen thereof.

In estimating the gains, profits and income of any person, there shall be included all income derived from any kind of property, rents, interest received or accrued upon all notes, bonds, mortgages, or other forms of indebtedness bearing date or not, if good and collectable; interest upon notes, bonds, or other securities of the United States, and the amount of all premium on gold and coupons; the gains, profits and income of any business, profession, trade, employment, office or vocation, including any amount received as salary or pay for services in the civil, military, naval, or other service of the United States, or as Senator, Representative, or delegate in Congress; the share of any person of the gains and profits, whether divided or not, of all companies or partnerships, but not including the amount received from any corporations whose officers, as authorized by law, withhold and pay as taxes a percentum of the dividends made and of interest or coupons paid by such corporation; profits realized within the year from sales of real estate purchased within two years previous to the year for which income is estimated; the amount of sales of live stock, grain, wool, butter, cheese, pork, beef, mutton or other meats, hay and grain, fruits, vegetables or other productions, being the growth or produce of the estate of such person, but not including any part thereof consumed directly by the family, and all other gains, profits and income derived from any source whatever, but not including the rental of the homestead used or occupied by any person or by his family.

The military or naval pensions allowed to any person under the laws of the United States, and the sum of $1,500 of the gains, profits and income of any person, shall be exempt from said income tax. Only one such deduction shall be made from the aggregate income of all the members of any family composed of one or both parents and one or more minor children, or of husband and wife, but when a wife has by law a separate income, and is living separate and apart from him, such deduction shall then be made from her income, gains and profits; and guardians and trustees shall be allowed to make the deduction in favor of each ward or beneficiary, except that in case of two or more wards or beneficiaries comprised in one family, having joint property interest, only one deduction shall be made in their favor. For the purpose of allowing said deduction from the income of any religious or social community holding all their property, and the income therefrom jointly and in common, each ten of the persons composing such society, and any remaining fractional number of such persons not less than five, to be such groups of ten, shall be held to constitute a family, and a deduction of $1,500 shall be allowed for each of said families. Any taxes on the income, gains and profits of such societies now due and unpaid shall be assessed and collected according to this provision.

In addition to the exemptions there shall be deducted all national, State and municipal taxes, &c.

The usual machinery for collecting is stated, and fines imposed for violation of the law, as at present. There is a proviso that no officer of the revenue shall permit to be published in any manner such income returns or any part thereof, except under such rules and regulations as the commissioner of internal revenue shall prescribe.

There shall be levied and collected a tax of 5 per centum on the amount of all interest or coupons paid on bonds or other evidences of debt issued and payable after more than ten years from date, and on the amount of all dividends or earnings, incomes or gains, hereafter declared by any incorporated bank, trust company, savings institution, insurance company, railroad company, steamboat or steamship company, turnpike company, canal navigation company, slackwater company, manufacturing company, mining company, gas company and bridge company, whenever and wherever the same shall be payable, and to whatever person the same may be due, including stockholders whether citizens or aliens, and on all individual profits of any such corporation which have accrued and been earned and added to any surplus, contingent or other fund.

Sections 73 to 87, inclusive, and 28 to 171, inclusive, of the act of June 30, 1864, chapter 173, and so much of all acts as are amendatory of any of the said sections; also section 13 of the act of March 3, 1865, chapter 79; also sections 6 and 12 of the act of March 3, 1869, as amended by the act of July 13, 1869, chapter 184, are repealed.

NEW ORLEANS.

Excitement Over the School Question.

NEW ORLEANS, May 16.—An unsuccessful attempt was made this morning to introduce negro children into two of the public schools. A committee of eight, with three boys, colored, made the demand, which was refused upon the ground that the instruction for admission of colored children had not been given by the superintendent. Considerable excitement prevailed, and the police were called to disperse the crowd. Trouble is anticipated.

Alexandria Items.

The Gazette of yesterday evening has the following news items:

AT THE ELECTION in this city last July there were polled 3,916 votes, of which number 1,608 were white and 1,248 colored. At the registration which closed last Tuesday 2,627 names were inscribed upon the books, of which 1,558 were white and 1,069 colored. The registration thus showing a falling off of 259, of which 110 are white and 149 colored. The white majority now, according to the registration books, is 458; but, in order to secure the election of the Conservative candidates next Thursday week, the votes not only of the 110 white delinquents, but of all the Conservatives who have become entitled to vote since last July will be required, for the Radicals claim 300 white votes, and it is generally conceded that not more than ten colored Conservative votes will be cast.

THE passenger train from Richmond due here at 5:30 a. m. yesterday, did not arrive until 1:30 p. m., in consequence of a detention on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad. The locomotive, tender and baggage car were thrown from the track one mile east of Fredrick Hall, and the engineer, named Dunn, severely but not fatally scalded. The fireman, who jumped from the train, was caught under the baggage car and had his leg broken in three places. A tie had been placed across the track three miles below the point where the accident occurred, and had been dragged by the locomotive that distance.

DURING the last three weeks thirty odd persons have been received into full membership with the Methodist Episcopal Church in this city. This increase is not the result of a revival, but shows the steady growth of the congregation under the effective ministrations of the Rev. Mr. Haynes.
