Regular Republican Candidate,

FOR MAYOR.

MATTHEW G. EMERY.

HOW THE MONEY GOES.

Mayor Bowen is self styled the poor man's friend. He has spent a couple of decades in sacrificing his wonderful ability, for the good Sayles J. Bowen first, and for his friends last, or rather while his friends last. This being the season for street improvements, the wonderful philanthropist yclept Mayor, has given orders to employ every laborer who is willing to vote for Sayles J. Bowen at the ensuing election. Consequently the force has been increased to such an extent that it is impossible to give the men constant work on the streets without making his folly and swindle too preceptible to the citizens of Washington. What has he done in this emergency? The ward commissioners have been instructed to divide their force into two squads; the first laboring in the morning, and the second in the afternoon, all however drawing pay for a full day's work.

The plan works well. It shows a remarkable consideration for the health of the feeble hands who are not able to do a good day's work; it enables the commissioners to keep in their employ twice as many men as the most extreme need for improving the city could demand; while it hides a prodigate waste of corporation funds for electioneering purposes.

Citizens of Washington, are you willing to be taxed for the support of a chronic office-holder in this manner? Will you allow Sayles J. Bowen to waste your money for the next (we years as he has during his maladministration of our municipal affairs? The remedy is with yourselves. Elect Matthew G. Emery and the long-needed reform will be practically inaugurated and successfully carried out.

On Monday, at the corner of Thirteenth street and Boundary, might have been seen twenty-three laborers idling away the corporation money, ostensibly employed for the grading of the street, yet there was only two picks and a dozen shovels for the entire force, and only two carts employed to do the hauling. How much work was accomplished can be easily calculated. Watch the labor of the corporation hands and judge for yourselves how the money goes.

In the Seventh ward the needy are provided with hog and hominy, and when a corporation official was asked how it was expected the men were to be paid, he replied that it did not make any difference with his laborers whether they were ever paid just so they got enough to eat.

But this will not do for the great mass of laboring men, and now they are told to work and wait until Mr. Bowen is re-elected, or else they will never be paid. It is considered an honor to sweat and loiter in such a good cause, and only those who persevere have any right to expect a reward for their patience.

While Bowen is a candidate the argument is unanswerable, so the ward commissioners think; and if Mr. Bowen should be re-elected, the sublime virtue of patience can very well be continued until he is ready to pay. They cannot help themselves now, and their demands after the election can be treated with contempt. So they must continue the servile tools of an ambitious political demagogue, or forfeit all claim to compensation.

How many of the multitude now on the corporation rolls can have any hope of money, our present financial embarrassments will readily answer. Where are the hundreds of thousands of dollars to come from to pay those men after the election? The taxes are not due until October, and between this time and the day of their payment how can a tithe of the corporation indebtedness be possibly paid? Can any Mayor continue this kind of extravagance after the election? He cannot, nor does Bowen expect to do so. It is only essential now to hire voters with promises to pay. Then, if he should be re-elected, the poor deluded laborers can beg and threaten as much as they please.

Citizens of Washington, what more is needed to urge you to take an interest in the approaching election, and to vote solidly for Matthew G. Emery and reform?

IMPUDENCE, assurance and effrontery (to say nothing of the total perversion of truth) were fully evidenced yesterday by the "Chronicle," which essayed to draw a line of political demarcation between the advocates of the Bowen faction and the army of Republicans who nominated and will elect Mr. Emery.

It pays a handsome compliment surely to the thousands of true and tried Republicans of both colors, who were prepared to vote for Mr. Bowen had he been the regularly chosen nominee for the mayoralty, when it classes them among the opponents of the Republican party. With all his obtuseness for arriving at the truth through its smoky lense, this journal well knows that the great mass of the Republicans of the city are supporting Mr. Emery, nor does it impair the force of the fact to acknowledge that hosts of Conservatives identified with the prosperity of the city are co-operating with them.

REVEREND (?) SELLA MARTIN, a sincere admirer of Sayles J. Bowen, and one who is laboring hard for Bowen's re-election, was charged by a correspondent the other day with deliberately selling a corporation contract, and that too on a Sabbath morning. Neither Mr. Martin nor his friends have dared to deny the charge. The truth is that they cannot successfully refute it. Martin is doubtless one of your easy going Christians, who have no objection to "turning an honest (?) penny," even by a dishonorable traffic on Sunday. He paddles in the same canoe with "gin and milk" Smith of New York. Neither of them got out of the pulpit any too soon for the credit of the church.

HAVE MERCY ON THE HORSE.—The hot season is approaching; owners and drivers of that noblest, most useful, and patient of animals, give a thought to his comfort. Take off the check rein, at all events, while he is standing still, and have some little arrangement made, however simple or primitive, to protect his head from the burning rays of the sun. He wants the free use of his head and neck, if for nothing else, to scare off the flies, and he feels, if not so sensitively as you, yet he does feel the heat of the sun and enjoys the cool shade. He can't speak for himself, he can't tell his sufferings; then, owners, have compassion on him.

HOW WILL THE GERMANS VOTE? Go ask the visitors to the Schutzen Park on Monday. That was not a political affair; but men cannot curb their feelings, and Bowen and Emery being both present there was a fair opportunity of observing who was the favorite; and it is the testimony of all that Bowen's avowed supporters among all that throng could have been almost counted upon his fingers and toes. The multitude for Emery was countless.

THE LAST DODGE of the Bourbon party is to negotiate with Fred. Aiken, and the Democrats who were too small potatoes to be taken up by their own party. Bowen wants a Democrat put in the field, and he and his friends are spending a good deal of money to that end.

GOVERNMENT STEAMERS FOR SALE.

Sealed bids will be received at the Coast Survey Office, Washington, until noon, JUNE 20, 1878, for the purchase of the side-wheel screw steamer "COREWIN," as she now lies off the Navy Yard, Washington, D. C., with 2 anchors and chains, and other articles, an inventory of which can be seen on board. Her dimensions are: length, 125 feet; breadth, 24 feet; depth, 9 feet; tonnage, about 217; draft of water, 7 feet 6 inches; lowest transmitted and copper fastened; steeple engine, low pressure; diameter of cylinder, 30 inches; stroke; 7 feet; hull little worn, and in fair order; one boiler, secure like, half worn. This vessel was built specially for the coast survey, under the direction and inspection of an experienced officer, for work at sea.

Also, sealed bids will be received until noon, July 1, 1878, for the side-wheel screw steamer "HETTIE," now employed in Pamlico Sound, N. C., and to be seen at New Berne, N. C., after June 15. Her dimensions are: length, 100 feet; breadth, 26 feet; depth, 6 feet 6 inches; draft of water, 2 feet 6 inches; tonnage, about 50; walking beam, low-pressure engine, on fair order; boilers require new water-bottoms. This vessel was built expressly for the Quartermaster's Department, and was purchased in 1869 at an expense of $12,000, and being a large carrier, is well adapted to the sound or bay business. Her inventory can be seen on board, at Washington, and above the vessels to any person wishing to inspect them.

The right to reject any or all bids is reserved.

Sealed bids should be directed to Professor BENJAMIN PEIRCE, Superintendent Coast Survey, Washington, D. C., and indorsed "Bid for Steamer." apl9-W4w

VALUABLE LOTS FOR SALE.—I HAVE FOR sale the following valuable lots:

Lot 15, square 564.—This lot contains 7,020 square feet; fronts 26 feet on the north side of north C street, between Ninth and Seventh streets east, on high ground, with a commanding view, and quite eligible. The depth is 120 feet for 46 feet front, and 100 feet for the other 26 feet.

Lot 16, square 447.—This lot fronts 60 feet on east side Seventh street west, between N and O streets north, and is 115 feet deep, paved alley in the rear; and is one of the best building lots on Seventh street west. This lot will be sold in three parcels of 20 feet front each if desired.

Lot 3, sub of square 723.—This is one half of original lot 3, fronts 37 feet 7 inches on O street north, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets west, with a depth of 100 feet 6 inches to a 20-foot alley, and is fine building site on New York avenue, with a depth of 86 feet by average, making two very fine eligible lots. They are about one-third of the square between the avenue and each front is improved. From the contiguity to the Treasury and other public offices and banking institutions, this is considered very valuable.

The titles to these lots are perfect and the terms will be made easy. FRED. W. JONES, Real Estate Agent, Law Building, 490 Louisiana avenue.
