FACTS AND IMPRESSIONS IN THE CITY

A. H. RAVEN has been appointed clerk in the United States Depository, Baltimore.

SENATOR SCHURZ has gone to St. Louis, and will be absent about ten days.

IT IS STATED that Collector Casey, of the port of New Orleans, will tender his resignation before the end of the present month.

THE INTERNAL REVENUE RECEIPTS on Saturday were $901,014.07. Total for the month, $15,000,473.96. Estimate for the month of May, $20,000,000.

THE United States steamer Wasp, Lieutenant Commander James O. Kane, sailed on the 14th of April from Montevideo for St. Catherine's, Brazil, and would be absent about two weeks. All well.

A SUMMER QUIET prevailed at the Executive Mansion on Saturday. But few visitors saw the President. The British Minister, accompanied by Sir Clinton Murdock, called to pay their respects.

SUPERVISOR EVERT, of Tennessee, reports the seizure of Harris' distillery in the Seventh district, and whisky valued at $8,000. Supervisor Cowan, of Ohio, reports the seizure of Herzog & Co.'s brewery, for violation of the revenue laws.

THE statement telegraphed from this city that Senator Fenton and Representative Ketcham are pressing the name of Ex-Congressman Robertson, of Westchester, for Collector in place of Mr. Grinnell has no foundation in fact.

THE proper officials in the Treasury Department have notified the New York Assessor that they must discontinue the practice of sending in accounts for their deputies salaries when they are employed not more than half the time. Accounts were received for full time in the case of Daniel McFarland up to the time of his arrest, when it has been proven that he was not engaged half the time.

IN OUR NOTICE of the appointment of Miss Kate V. Jennings as clerk in the Fourth Auditor's office we stated that it was the first colored appointment among the female clerks of the Treasury Department. It appears, however, that Miss Eleanor J. Ketchum, colored, was appointed in the Third Auditor's office, May 4, 1869—this being the first appointment of that class.

NAVAL ORDERS.—The following naval orders were issued on Saturday: Detached—Lieutenant John S. Newell, from the Manhattan, and granted leave of absence. Lieutenant Edward T. Strong, from the receiving ship Vermont, and ordered to the receiving ship Ohio.

The order of Lieutenant Charles A. Schetky to the receiving ship Ohio has been revoked, and he has been ordered to the receiving ship Vermont.

IN FEBRUARY LAST the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House sent an check payable to Mr. Jay Gould and Fish, jr., for $51 each, the amount of witness expenses incurred by them in coming to Washington to testify in the gold conspiracy case. Mr. Fisk and Mr. Gould ask the Sergeant-at-Arms to give the money to the poor of the city, or to some charitable institution, and on Friday Mr. Ordway passed the amount over to the credit of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum.

NATIONAL THEATRE.—To-night Mr. Davenport enters upon the second week of his engagement, and will appear in his celebrated character of Damon, in "Damon and Pythias," in which assumption he is unexcelled. We regret exceedingly that an actor of Mr. Davenport's ability and celebrity should have been so meagerly sustained by our citizens, and earnestly hope that the closing nights of his engagement may yield crowded houses, for it will be long before our theatre-goers will again have an opportunity of seeing stage pictures more finished or artistic than those which he presents.

"WE MAKE NO NOTE OF TIME" seems to be the motto of a great many clerks employed in the Treasury Department, who find it convenient to slip out of the building a half or three quarters of an hour before 3 o'clock, p. m. Rumor has it that on the 1st of June clerks will be required to obtain a written leave from the chief clerk of their bureau, stating the name of the party and the time he is permitted to leave, which will be taken up by the doorkeepers. The slips will be turned over to the appointment room, where a record of the time lost will be kept for reference in granting leaves of absence hereafter—perhaps without pay.

ARMY ORDERS.—Capt. Robert Chandler, Thirteenth United States Infantry, has been transferred to the Seventh United States Infantry.

The Secretary of War has directed that Major T. H. Stanton, paymaster, be assigned to the Department of the East, and continue on duty at Richmond, Va. In addition to his reconstruction duties he will also pay the troops in the late Department of Virginia.

The Secretary has ordered the following changes in the Paymaster's Department:

Brevet Lieutenant Colonel David Taggart, from the Department of the South to the Department of the Columbia. Major W. S. Gibson, from the Department of the Columbia to the Department of the Platte. Major Henry Heyer, from the late Department of Virginia to the Department of Texas.

Major N. Vedder, from the Department of Texas, will report to the Paymaster-General.

Major F. M. Etting, from the late Department of the Cumberland, to Department of the South.

WHEN Mr. Ingersoll said, on Friday last, that Mr. Hoar's remarks were "pungent though not unparliamentary," he voiced an expression which promises to be some very popular, for all the journals on one side or another are using it in one way or another.

THE Louisiana and Missouri river railroad has been leased to the Chicago and Alton railroad company with good Chicago and direct line to Fort Scott. The company will immediately construct a road from Carrollville or Whitehall, Illinois, to the Mississippi river, where the trains will be passed by transfer boats with the Louisiana and Missouri river road, for Kansas City and St. Joseph.

ADVICES from Red River report that an Indian outbreak there is imminent, and that there is great excitement at Fort Garry in consequence, and also because of the arrest of Riel's soldiers in Canada.

REPLY TO SENATOR REVELS' LATE LETTER ENDORSING MR. BOWEN.

General A. Grant, commanding the Boys in Blue, has addressed the following letter to Senator Revels in reply to one written by the latter endorsing Sayles J. Bowen for Mayor of Washington. General Grant represents a large and influential colored element in the District, and as he is perfectly familiar with our local politics his words are entitled to consideration:

HEADQUARTERS BOYS IN BLUE, D. C.,
CORNER FOURTH A. THIRD SQUARE NORTH,
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 20, 1870.

Hon. Hiram R. Revels, United States Senator from Mississippi:

SIR: My attention has been called to your recent letter addressed to a committee of ward politicians, heartily endorsing Mayor Bowen, &c., which I presume you are not aware is being largely used among colored voters for votes, electioneering and unworthy purposes.

Permit me, representing as I do an organization of true and loyal Republicans, numbering some three hundred, officers and more than four thousand men, a large majority of whom are colored citizens, and also as a man opposed, on principle and from conviction of duty, to the re-election of Mayor Bowen, to express surprise and profound regret, that so pure a high patriot as you should have been over-persuaded, or unwittingly led to lend your name and influence to the support of a trickster and demagogue, and very lately to convert your great personal influence of love.

I, Sayles J. Bowen is not the regularly nominated Republican candidate for Mayor, he having received at most but a few hundred out of seven wards, and even in those the primary elections were tainted with fraud, and the results so manufactured, finally, in a minority, and contrary to the wishes of nearly each ward. Competition enshadowed, moreover, was a factor in more than one, a gross and flagrant outrage upon the Republican party.

I, for far from leading the party, two years alone, against tremendous odds to victory, it is well known in Washington, that I, Sayles J. Bowen, was even upon a heavy load for the Republican party to carry, and that with less for its standard-bearer, it narrowly escaped defeat. With any strong and popular candidate there would have been a smashing Republican victory.

2. The two years so-called Republican administration of the city government has been a lamentable failure, a big-spotted failure, and the Republican party knows, surrounding himself, almost from the first, with corrupt and designing men, or rebels and Democrats, he has made a mere plaything of the Republican party, has notoriously made use of Democratic appointees and nominees, was a factor in more than one, a gross and flagrant outrage upon the Republican party.

Permit me to add that in their eagerness to impose upon and be you, "representative men," the conspirators may forget to tell you what they well know, that Mr. Jay Cooke, the accommodation of Mayor Bowen they and his party always, and that, being a staunch Republican, a stalwart of the Republican party, filling only inasmuch as my mind and make this the regular nominee, I am obliged to state that, while "I appreciate your motives," I sincerely request my personal regret that you, Mr. Senator, should have been so egregiously imposed upon in regard to local politics, and that, in the approaching selection of candidates for the mayoralty of Washington, and have the honor to be, with great respect, your very obedient servant,

Gen. Com'dg Boys in Blue, D. C.

A Nice Game Spoiled.

Yesterday being the last day of the session of the court in which a large number of cases were set for hearing, it was necessary for the court to appoint judges of election for some wards where vacancies existed. Two Democrats had been selected for the Democratic or Conservative party, and, just before the adjournment, Lawyer Phillips presented to the court a list of Republican judges selected, including three and three well-known Republicans slightly tainted the list.

The court was about to appoint these men, as no opposition was anticipated, no friend of the regular Republican nominee being present, when Mr. A. R. Browne appeared and immediately addressed the court in opposition to the list presented.

The consideration of the game being obvious, the court refused to appoint the Republicans, and instructed Mr. Browne to bring in a list of Republicans at a special session of the court, to be held next Saturday, to be acted on.

The above appeared in the Sunday Chronicle, and is a specimen of the fabrics with which our contemporary is conducting the campaign on its side. Vacancies exist in certain precincts among the judges of election, and those must be filled. We suppose even the Chronicle will admit that. Mr. Philbrook did present a list of names of some of our most respectable citizens, but there was no intention of taking any advantage.

We have always believed, and with reason, that the Judges of the District Court were men of sense, who would not make important appointments without due consideration.

The Chronicle seems to think otherwise. It offers a direct insult to the Judges when it says that the Court "instructed Mr. Browne to bring in a list of Republicans at a special session." The Judges of our courts are not partisans. They will take all names suggested under consideration, and from the number select the officers to fill the vacancies, with an eye single to getting the best men, and in order to give each side such a representation as will secure a fair election.

The true Republicans, the "Emerytites," as the Chronicle calls them, do not want any one sided arrangement. All they ask is fair play. The bolters and Anti-Republicans, led by Bowen, Cook, Stiles, Florence, Fred. Aiken and others, don't seem to want this fair play. They would like to have nothing but Bowen men acting as judges of election, and we have no idea that the courts will for a moment listen to such a suggestion.

The Grand Republican Rally.

The grand rally of the Republicans of Washington, opposed to the present contractors ring, which is to take place to-morrow night will be a grand affair, notwithstanding the attempts of that ring to prevent all within their power from participating in it. The masses have resolved there shall be a change, and they will show their determination to effect such a change by the demonstration to-morrow night.

When the Boys in Blue had their celebration, in honor of the fifteenth amendment, Colonel Perry Carson, to assure that none of his men turned out, ordered a meeting held, and absolutely called the roll—marking absentees.

We learn that a similar proceeding has been ordered in each
