FOR MAYOR,

MATTHEW G. EMERY.

LOOK OUT FOR FRAUDS.

The "Ring" is desperate. It sees defeat staring it in the face, and knows that the citizens of Washington, without distinction of party, or race or color, are determined to overthrow the present corrupt concern, and put an honest man in the place that Sayles J. Bowen has disgraced. Hence the ring grows desperate, and will resort to any measure, no matter how corrupt, to defeat the honest will of the people.

One of the means to be employed is to bring colored men here from Virginia and Maryland and to register them in the Bowen interest on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday. Cook, Morse, Peck & Co., who are utterly unscrupulous, have determined upon this course, and it will therefore be necessary for the friends of law and order and reform to watch with a jealous eye every movement of the opposition on the three extra days of the registration.

The poor dupes who will be persuaded into attempting to register without having the proper qualifications will be the sufferers, for steps have been taken to detect frauds of this character and to punish the offenders. Unfortunately, the real criminals take good care, while getting their dupes into trouble to keep their own necks out of the noose, and little do they care what becomes of their victims so that they secure their votes.

There is one way, however, that they can be made to suffer, and that is by the exposure of these frauds. Intelligent men who see that the ring are thus engaged will hesitate before casting their votes to continue in power such corrupt men.

The bill to enforce the fifteenth amendment has passed the Senate and will undoubtedly pass the House to-day, and be at once signed by the President.

Under this bill the penalty for illegal voting or interfering with the rights of voters is very severe, and it is the determination of the friends of an honest city government that the provisions of the bill shall be strictly carried out here, and that every offender that can be detected shall receive the severe penalty which the bill prescribes.

We call upon the colored men who are supporting Mr. Bowen, to show their love of honesty and fair dealing, and a just regard for their own race, by warning men they may know, as they come in from the country, that any attempt to illegally register and vote will be certainly punished. Let them not count upon the impunity with which this system was carried on the last year, nor expect that the dupes will escape through the same mesh as the men from the county escaped from the grand jury last year.

The whole people are in earnest, and under the fifteenth amendment bill there will be no difficulty in reaching the offenders.

NO MORE CORPORATION CHECKS.

Mr. J. F. Cook, City Register, yesterday refused to countersign any more checks for the Mayor until the overdraft in the National Bank was covered, and there were funds to the credit of the corporation.

The Chinese Embassy—An Interesting Letter from One of the Attaches.

We have been permitted to make a copy of the following letter from Fung Yee, attache of the Chinese Legation, to Mr. De B. Randolph Keim, of this city. Fung Yee will be remembered by many in this city as one of the most intelligent of the members of the Embassy, and who was an earnest seeker after knowledge:

CHINESE LEGATION,
BRUSSELS, BELGIUM, May 3, 1870.

MY DEAR FRIEND: It gave me much pleasure to receive your friendly letter of the 3rd of January. I always feel extremely grieved whenever I talk about the untimely death of my beloved minister, who was loved by the country of his birth, and who was honest and faithful towards the great nation that I represented before his last breath. I believe you are perhaps equally as whatever you reflect on the loss of a great statesman, whose death has been lamented by the whole world.

Mr. Edward Bortlingame started for America from Hamburg with the corpse of his father several weeks ago. Now poor Mr. Bortlingame is in Paris in great distress.

I am happy to say that the embassy was received in proper form by the sovereigns of those countries which we have visited since our departure from the United States.

During our sojourn in Paris I learned the French language, and you can speak and write it very well. It is my sincere desire to understand some modern languages besides my own and some of the sciences that are much discovered and cultivated on the globe, so that I may not have to come to this world in vain. I hope this view of mine will meet with your approval. As I frequently say, the life is a thousand times shorter than the study; the more you learn the more you have to study.

It is like climbing high mountains; one ascends with patience and perseverance, thinking that when he arrives on the summit of this hill he will attain his object, but he is discouraged on finding the top of this hill he has reached is the very foot of another which is higher, and which are followed by many mountains that are still higher. In one word, a human being can hardly escape to be a fool before his end and death. I am glad to add that with the help of my teacher, Wang you are one. I shall endeavor to learn as well as I am able the sciences which benefit our fellowbeings.

All the members of our legation request me to present their best compliments to you.

With kind regards and best wishes for your health and happiness I remain, dear Keim, yours very affectionately, FUNG YEE.

Corporation Orders.

Mr. George T. Downing made a speech at a Bowen meeting last night, in the course of which he said that "there was a conspiracy on foot among the business men of Washington to attempt to starve the workingmen by refusing to purchase their corporation orders at any price. He had authority and was glad to announce to them that a number of gentlemen at the Capitol had made arrangements and would purchase them dollar for dollar." We are glad of this. The corporation laborers will now perhaps get what is due them. They can call and present their orders to Mr. George T. Downing this morning in the restaurant of the House of Representatives.

MR. SYDNEY MARLOWE.—This evening is looked forward to with great interest by our play-goers generally, as the occasion of the long looked-for debut of the young actor, Sydney Marlowe. This gentleman has created a great deal of interest during the winter by his readings in private circles, and his appearance is tendered by some of our most prominent citizens. The President and family are to be present, as well as Gen. Sherman and several of the Cabinet.

Mr. Marlowe is a Spaniard by birth, and a linguist of some pretensions, he speaking five languages fluently. He is said to have made an extraordinary hit at his maiden performance of the same character in Pittsburg about about a year ago. His resemblance to the elder Kean in this character is something remarkable.

THE Chronicle's insinuation that Mr. Emery had anything to do with procuring from Max Hasselbach the curious developments made by the latter in regard to the operations of Bowen's ring (published elsewhere) is untrue. How the newspapers came in possession of this interesting document is not particularly the business of the Chronicle or the rest of the corrupt Bowen ring. It is a sworn statement, and if they can disprove the testimony, which has the nature of State's evidence, they had better set about it.—Star of yesterday.

THE POLICE BOARD at its session yesterday authorized Major Richards to increase the number of the mounted policemen on election day, and instructed him to arm them with navy revolvers. This prompt action of the board will doubtless be effective in preventing any disorder and ensuring a peaceful election.

Dry Goods.

As the season is drawing to a close, the spring business does not diminish so rapidly as has usually been the case; and there is good reason for believing that the sales will be extended further into the summer months than our jobbers have mostly calculated on.

In domestic cotton goods the trade has not been specially active; but the stocks in first hands of leading make are so low that prices continue to be well maintained, except for the less desirable styles of prints.

The sales of unbleached shirtings and sheetings from first hands during the week have not been large; but the demand to make up assortments have been steady, and prices are without any special change. Indian Head and Appleton A standards are still quoted at 15 cents; Wachusetts, 14½ cents; Harrisburg, A, 4-4, 14 cents; Agawam, F, 4-4, 11½ cents; St. Lawrence, O., 12½ cents.

Bleached shirtings and sheetings are dull, except for some of the best qualities of the more popular marks. Wamsuttas are still quoted at 21½ cents for 4-4, 26 cents for 9-8, and 29 cents for 5-4. New York Mills are sold by agents at 24 cents. Utica fine Nonpareil 4-4 are held at 20 cents; 35-inch heavy do., 19 cents; 36-inch do., 20 cents.

Printing cloths, stock in first hands is reported to be considerably reduced, and prices, though without change, are firmer. The quotations of 64 square extra quality are 7 to 7¼ cents.

In prints there has been a less active demand than for some weeks, although some of the most popular styles have sold freely. American Print Works, medium and light fancy, are 11¼ cents, regular; Merrimacs, medium fancy, 12 cents do. W. fancy, 13½ cents; Sprague's fancies, 11 cents, less 4 per cent., 30 days.

Ginghams are in less active demand.

Printed lawns and percales are selling more freely than they did earlier in the season; but the demand for these goods is less than was anticipated.

Cotton osnaburgs are in somewhat better demand for export, but the sales are still on a comparatively moderate scale.

Cotton drills sell in small lots at steady prices for the immediate requirements of trade. Prices are without change.

Corset jeans are selling moderately for the season. Indian Orchard Improved are quoted at 11¼ cents; Amoskeag, 12½ cents; Laconia, 13 cents.

Rolled jaconets are selling more freely and prices are firmer. Warrens are held at 10½ cents; Manville, 10 cents for plain and 11 cents for high colors; White Rock, 10 cents.

Cambrics are dull, and the sales of the interior grades are slow.

Silesias are coming into better demand. Lonsdales are sold at 14 cents, regular; Indian Orchard, 14 cents; Ward Mills, 14½ cents; Social E, 20 cents; Blackburn's Assorted, 16 cents.

Apron checks are generally dull. Prices steady and without change.

Denims and cottonades of the best qualities are in good demand, but the lower grades are neglected. Amoskeag denims are held at 33 cents; Pearl River, 29 cents; New York Mills, 30 cents; Everitt cottonades, 20 cents.

Muslin de laines are selling slowly, the demand for these fabrics being very limited for the season. Prices are without change.

Woolens are generally without material change, but there is a better tone to the general market, and a growing demand for cloths, chiefly for the medium and lower grades, for the clothing business.

Overcoatings are now coming into good demand, and some considerable sales have recently been made.

Doeskins are selling more freely, but the demand is not yet sufficiently active to have any decided effect upon prices, which are not firmly established.

There is a more active demand from the clothing houses for fancy cassimeres of low and medium grades, but there is less activity in the finer qualities.

Satinets are generally inactive, but the demand for desirable grades has improved to a moderate extent. Tip-tops sell at 90 cents for No. 1, and the other grades in like proportion.

Kentucky jeans are more active, but prices have not been changed. Kerseys are dull.

American linens are selling very slowly, and prices are reduced. Stark Company's unbleached crash is held at 9 cents for 14-inch, 12½ cents for 17-inch, and 14 cents for 20-inch. United States Flax Manufacturing Company's goods are held at 8 and 9 cents for narrow brown and bleached; 9 and 10 cents for wide do. do.; for twilled coating duck, 16 cents, 4 months.—N. Y. Independent.
