BALTIMORE MARKETS

BALTIMORE, May 28.—Breadstuffs.—The Flour market has this morning was in better tone, there being better inquiry, and no sales were reported on Change for shipment, and only 1,000 bbls. to the local trade, including Western Spring Super at $4.62½ to Extra at $5.37 Howard Street Extra at $5.50@6; and Howard Street Family at wide range of quotations, but we hear of no further sales for export.

Wheat.—We continue to quote steady and firm, but the receipts were light to-day, and transactions there were limited. Pennsylvania red we quote at 1[illegible] cents, and prime Western do. at 120 cents, on arrivals, with a fair lot of Western White sold at 128 cents. Some 2,000 bushels Virginia and Maryland red sold at 120@124 cents for good; 127 cents for prime, and 130@132 cents for choice; and we note sales of 500 bushels white at 130@130 cents.

Corn.—Was firm again, but in very light supply this morning, and we have only to report sales of 2,000 to 3,000 bushels at 81@82½ cents for white; 83 cents for Western yellow, and $1.16@1.15 for Southern do.

Rye.—We note a sale to-day of 500 bushels to store at $1.15, and strictly prime is held at $1.18.

Oats.—We quote dull at 60@65 cents.

We have only to report to-day a sale of 400 bushels Western at 52 cents.

Hay.—We hear of no transactions in Coffee since those reported yesterday, and we quote as before: Rio in bond at 16½@17 cents, gold, for good to prime invoices, and duty paid at 19@20 cents for fair to good, and 17@18 cents, gold, for common. Java is dull, the stock for choice and heavy kds. gold, these figures being a decline of ¼ to ¾ a cent. Stock here about 1,500 bags Rio.

Molasses.—The market this morning for Cuban is quiet, there being very little inquiry and no sales. We hear of sales in store at Philadelphia, at prices we quote: 32@[illegible] cents for refining, low refining 31@32½ cents for for low refining, 30 cents for good refining.

Sugars.—The market is unchanged, we quote at 10@10½ cents per pound for City Mills, and Middlings at 10@10½ cents for fight, and 9@9½ cents per pound for heavy City Mills, but spring Wheat dis. we quote at 10@10 cents.
