EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.
Orphans' Court of Saint Mary's County, Set—March 31, 1870.
ORDERED BY THE COURT, That John M. Strome, executor of James W. Gardiner, late of St. Mary's county, Maryland, deceased, give notice to the creditors of the said deceased, to exhibit their claims, and that the same be published once a week for six successive weeks in some newspaper printed in said county.
Test: JAMES T. M. RALEY, Register Wills for St. Mary's county, march 31, 1870—1w.

NOTICE.
In pursuance of the above order, I hereby give notice that I have obtained from the Orphans' Court of St. Mary's county, Maryland, letters testamentary on the personal estate of the late Wm. Gardiner, deceased, and declared that he intends to apply for a trader's license, under the 2nd section of the act of January Session, 1858, to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Saint Mary's county, and made oath that the amount of the stock of goods generally kept on hand by him (or by the concern in which he is engaged, in case it be a partnership,) at the principal season of sale, (or if the applicant has not previously engaged in such trade, that the amount of the stock of goods which he expects to keep, etc.) does not (or will not) exceed $—
Sworn before—
If the oath be administered before a Justice of the Peace out of the county in which the application is made, there must be attached the certificate of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county in which the license is applied for.
Persons may sell salt to cure fish in March, April or May without license. Vendors of cakes and vendors of beer and cider, who are the makers of such beer and cider, (lager beer excepted,) are not required to pay license.
License to Ordinaries and Tavern Keepers.—The licenses to ordinaries and tavern keepers to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or larger beer in quantities less than a pint, at one time, are as follows: Provided that the applicant shall first be recommended to the Clerk by two respectable freeholders of his immediate vicinity, and shall make oath before said Clerk, that he has bona fide (and without intention) to engage in the business of the said trade, and expects to maintain six good beds, with sufficient covering therefor—and three rooms more than sufficient for the private uses of said ordinary keeper, with stabling and provender for five horses at least; and if said applicant resides in the city of Baltimore, that he has provided and expects to maintain twelve good beds with covering as aforesaid and six rooms.
The said applicant is also to make oath before the Clerk as to the rate of rent or annual value of the house or in which the business to be authorized by the license may be done, or intended to be done.
If the rental or annual value is not

With Clerk's and Sheriff's fees, added.
The applicant must either take oath, as heretofore, before the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county where he is engaged in business, of the amount of goods kept on hand, at the principal season of sale; or the oath may be administered by a Justice of the Peace, when the person wanting the license applies through an agent. If the latter course be adopted, the following form will be deemed a sufficient compliance with the act:
St. Mary's County, to wit:
On this—day of—1870, before me the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland, in and for said county, personally appeared—, and declared that he intends to apply for a trader's license, under the 2nd section of the act of January Session, 1858, to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Saint Mary's county, and made oath that the amount of the stock of goods generally kept on hand by him (or by the concern in which he is engaged, in case it be a partnership,) at the principal season of sale, (or if the applicant has not previously engaged in such trade, that the amount of the stock of goods which he expects to keep, etc.) does not (or will not) exceed $—
Sworn before—
If the oath be administered before a Justice of the Peace out of the county in which the application is made, there must be attached the certificate of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county in which the license is applied for.
Persons may sell salt to cure fish in March, April or May without license. Vendors of cakes and vendors of beer and cider, who are the makers of such beer and cider, (lager beer excepted,) are not required to pay license.
License to Ordinaries and Tavern Keepers.—The licenses to ordinaries and tavern keepers to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or larger beer in quantities less than a pint, at one time, are as follows: Provided that the applicant shall first be recommended to the Clerk by two respectable freeholders of his immediate vicinity, and shall make oath before said Clerk, that he has bona fide (and without intention) to engage in the business of the said trade, and expects to maintain six good beds, with sufficient covering therefor—and three rooms more than sufficient for the private uses of said ordinary keeper, with stabling and provender for five horses at least; and if said applicant resides in the city of Baltimore, that he has provided and expects to maintain twelve good beds with covering as aforesaid and six rooms.
The said applicant is also to make oath before the Clerk as to the rate of rent or annual value of the house or in which the business to be authorized by the license may be done, or intended to be done.
If the rental or annual value is not
