CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS

Forty-First Congress—Second Session.

MONDAY, June 6, 1870.

SENATE.

Mr. Sherman presented memorial of dry goods merchants and importers of New York, asking the abolition of the tax on sales. Referred to Committee on Finance.

Mr. Stewart introduced bill to prohibit contracts for servile labor, which he said was intended to break up the system of coolie contracts, by which the Chinese laborers were imported to this country, and held to labor for four years. The contract is to return the Chinese to his own country, dead or alive, at the end of four years, and the religious feelings of the Chinese prevents them from breaking the contract.

This is really a system of servile labor, the wages are exceedingly low, and can be called by no means free. The bill provides that no contracts with the Chinese shall be good longer than six months. Immediate action should be had, as agents are now about to introduce them into South Carolina and Massachusetts. He moved that the bill be referred to the Judiciary Committee, and gave notice that he should press it to early action.

The report of the select committee on the revision of the rules, proposing to amend the 30th rule.

The proposed amendment provides that when an appropriation bill is under consideration, debate may be concluded in any proposition under discussion by a two thirds vote, and that no amendment making legislative provisions to an appropriation bill shall be received and adopted without a two-thirds vote, and an amendment "unless it be made to carry out the provisions of some existing law, or some act or resolution personally passed by the Senate during that session," shall be received or adopted without a two-thirds vote, and the question on receiving such amendment for consideration shall be decided without debate.

Mr. Trumbull objected to certain portions of the proposed amendment, as inaugurating the previous question in the Senate. He thought that debate ought to be free in at least one branch of Congress.

Mr. Hamlin was as much in favor as any one of the widest latitude in debate, but had long been of opinion that something ought to be done to put an end to the tiresome and needless discussions which often take place in this body.

After some further discussion the subject went over.

The joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to increase the compensation of the United States assistant marshals, employed in taking the census, but said amount not to exceed 50 per cent., was amended to provide that the entire compensation, exclusive of mileage, shall not exceed $6 per day for actual number of days employed, and that no additional compensation shall in any case be allowed, except where that now paid is insufficient by reason of the sparseness of the population. The joint resolution was then passed.

Mr. Patterson called up bill to repeal all existing laws authorizing the transportation and exportation of goods, wares, and merchandise in bond to Mexico, overland or by inland waters, and for other purposes. He said that the Secretary of the Treasury was very anxious for the passage of this bill, as it would prevent an immense amount of smuggling on the Mexican frontier.

The bill was then passed, but subsequently Mr. Edmonds entered a motion to reconsider its passage.

The Indian appropriation bill was then proceeded with, and various amendments were made, among them an item of $100,000 for industrial schools for the Indians.

Mr. Davis offered an amendment providing for the issue of $250,000 of United States bonds at 5 per cent. interest, to Choctaw Indians in pursuance of treaties, which was opposed on the ground that the Choctaws had allied themselves with the rebellion, and further that the money had really been paid; after which it was [illegible] and the Senate, at [illegible] until 7.30 p. m.

EVENING SESSION.

House joint resolution granting right-of-way to Memphis, El Paso and Pacific Railroad Company from El Paso to Pacific ocean, was indefinitely postponed.

The bill to provide for the settlement of claims for quartermaster and commissary stores furnished to or taken by the United States within the States in rebellion coming up, a motion to recommit was lost—ayes 12, nays 27.

A lengthy debate then ensued between Messrs. Howard, Nye, Sherman, and others, arguing that there was a just claim upon the Government for these stores, and that the result would be to bankrupt the treasury.

Without action the Senate at 10.15 p. m. adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Under the call of States and Territories for bills and joint resolutions for reference only the following were introduced and referred to the committees named:

By Mr. Willard, of Vt.: Bill to establish telegraphic communication between the United States and Bermuda. Foreign Affairs.

By Mr. Van Wyck, N. Y.: Bill to aid in the construction of a military road from West Point to Cornwall, N. Y. Post Office Committee.

By Mr. Morrell, of Pa.: Joint resolution to encourage the building of ships for southern trade. Select Committee on American Commerce.

By Mr. Platt, of Va.: Bill to amend the internal revenue law. Ways and Means.

By Mr. Hellin, of Ala.: Bill to amend the bankrupt act. Revision of Laws.

By Mr. Bowen, of S. C.: Bill in relation to sale of certain sea islands. Reconstruction.

By Mr. Newsham, La., a bill to improve the levees of the Red River from Shreveport to its mouth. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

By Mr. Lawrence, Ohio, a joint resolution to construe the Revenue Laws. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Also, a bill to punish frauds and crimes against the revenue laws. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

By Mr. Prosser, Tenn., a joint resolution authorizing the President to take certain steps to submit a proposition to the Spanish Government for the settlement of affairs in Cuba. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Also, bill for the improvement of the public grounds, canal, and river front in the District of Columbia. Referred to the Committee on District of Columbia.

Also, a bill to provide for the care and instruction of truant children in the District of Columbia. Referred to the Committee on Education and Labor.

By Mr. McCrary, of Iowa: Bill to amend the Judiciary act. Judiciary.

By Mr. Sargent, of Cal.: Bill to fix a time for the meeting of Congress. Judiciary.

A number of bills granting lands for railroads; for removal of political disabilities; for pensions; for post offices and post roads, &c., were introduced under this call and appropriately referred.

Mr. Ward, of N. Y., introduced a resolution instructing the Committee of Ways and Means to report a bill at the earliest moment practicable repealing the tariff on coal and abolishing all duties on that article.

The previous question was seconded by a vote of 99 to 62.

On ordering the main question, the yeas and nays were demanded, and it was ordered by a vote of 106 yeas to 76 nays.

Mr. Butler, of Mass., moved to reconsider the vote ordering the main question, for the purpose, as he said, of adding salt.

Pending that motion, Mr. Maynard moved to lay the resolution on the table; which was rejected—yeas 79, nays 119.

Mr. Butler then withdrew his amendment, remarking that he did not wish to endanger the pending resolution.

The question then recurred upon agreeing to the resolution, and it was agreed to—yeas 113, nays 79.

Mr. Kelley, of Pa., rose to a personal explanation, taking exceptions to a speech by Mr. Getz, of Pa., leave to print which having been given by the House on Saturday. He said some malicious wag had imposed upon the proprietors of the Globe what purported to be a speech made in the House, and vindicated himself from the insinuations made in the speech referred to.

Mr. Getz, of Pa., said that his remarks would have been made in the House had an opportunity been afforded. He intended nothing personal, and thought his colleague was over sensitive.

Mr. Nagley, of Pa., obtained leave to introduce a bill to establish a line of steamships between the Southern States and ports in Europe and Asia, to encourage immigration. Referred to Committee on Commerce.

Mr. Sargent, of California, introduced for reference to the Committee on Ways and Means a bill to amend the act imposing a tax on distilled spirits and tobacco; which was so referred.

Mr. Dawes, of Mass., moved to suspend the rules for the purpose of rescinding that part of the rule requiring an adjournment of the House at 5 o'clock each day.

The House refused to suspend the rules—yeas 128, nays 68.

Mr. Schenck, of Ohio, moved to suspend the rules, for the purpose of rescinding the entire rule fixing the hour of meeting, at 11 a. m., and adjournment at 5 o'clock p. m., and rejected—ayes 115, nays 69—two thirds being required.

Mr. Dawes renewed the motion in another form; which was adopted—136 to 56.

Mr. Banks, of Mass., moved to suspend the rules for the purpose of adopting a resolution to consider the report of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, on Tuesday of next week, and make it the special order for that day. Agreed to.

Mr. Banks, in view of the fact that a paper, purporting to be a report of the committee, had been published in the public journals without the consent of the committee, obtained leave to have printed in the Globe the reports of the majority and the minority of the Committee on Cuban Affairs.

Mr. Dawes, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported the river and harbor appropriation bill; which was made the special order for Thursday.

Also, the sundry civil appropriation bill, the last of the regular appropriation bills, which was made the special order for Wednesday next.

On motion of Mr. Cook, the several Senate bills, in relation to the District of Columbia, were taken from the Speaker's table, and referred to the Committee on the District, with the exception of the territorial bill, the reference of which objection was made by Mr. Dickey, of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Schenck, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported the Senate bill for funding the public debt, with a substitute; which was ordered printed and recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House then resumed the consideration of the internal tax bill, the question being the motion to lay on the table the motion to reconsider the vote by which the previous question was ordered on Mr. Schenck's tariff amendment to the bill.

The motion prevailed—ayes 116, noes 54.

The amendment (the first section of the tariff bill) was then adopted by an aye and no vote of 139 to 43.

Mr. Schenck then moved as an additional amendment the section enumerating the articles on the free list, and demanded the previous question, which was seconded—yeas, 109, nays, 40—and the amendment was then adopted.

Mr. Schenck then offered as amendments the third section, repealing the tonnage tax, and the fourth section, in relation to goods in bonded warehouses on the day the bill goes into effect, providing that they shall be subject to only the revised bill, which were adopted.

Mr. Schenck then demanded the previous question on the third reading of the bill; which was seconded.

On the third reading of the bill, Mr. Schenck demanded the yeas and nays, and the vote resulted as follows—yeas 105, nays 35.

On motion of Mr. Garfield, the rules were suspended, and the House ordered that the currency bill, reported from the Committee on Banking and Currency, be made the special order for to-morrow and Wednesday, after 12.30 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Dawes, the House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Post Office appropriation bill.

The pending amendment offered by Mr. Beaman having charge of the bill to increase the appropriation for letter carriers from $1,000,000 to $1,250,000 was agreed to.

Mr. Myers, of Penna., moved to increase the amount to $1,450,200, and fixing the salaries of letter carriers at $1,100 per annum.

Mr. Dawes opposed the amendment as an initiation of a movement to increase salaries. The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Farnsworth, of Ill., offered an amendment, as follows: "But no part of this appropriation shall be expended in cities having a population of less than forty thousand inhabitants." Adopted.

Mr. Schenck moved to strike out the whole paragraph. Rejected.

Mr. Myers offered as an amendment a new paragraph appropriating $100,000 for the purchase of uniforms for letter carriers; which was ruled out of order.

On motion of Mr. Dawes the paragraph appropriating $520,000 for stamps and envelopes, was amended by a proviso that no part should be expended for stamped envelopes, except to carry out existing contracts.

The committee concluded the consideration of the bill, and then rose and reported the bill to the House, when the bill was passed, at 5 o'clock.

The House then, on motion of Mr. Arnell, (Tenn.,) took a recess until 7.30 o'clock, to meet as in Committee of the Whole, for general debate only on the state of the Union.

EVENING SESSION.

The evening session was devoted to speeches, which were made in part and leave granted to print the balance.

The speakers were Mr. Dox, of Ala., upon reconstruction in Georgia; Mr. Winchester, of [illegible] upon the air-line railroad; Mr. Beatty, of [illegible] railroad corporations; Mr. Armstrong, of Tenn., upon that subject; and Mr. Hoar, of Mass., upon the subject of general education.

(Successor to Gleason & Glenn, G Street Wharf,)
Begs leave to inform his numerous friends and customers that he is now prepared to furnish at his usual market rates, the best quality of RED and WHITE ASH ANTHRACITE COAL, all sizes, CUMBERLAND COAL, LIME, HAIR, SAND, BRICK, FIREWOOD, OAK and PINE WOOD, in stick or sawed and split.
My motto will be in the future, as in the past, "Quick sales and small profits," and as I buy for cash only, and sell at a very small advance, my terms in future will be strictly cash.
Will make a specialty of supplying dealers from the vessel at a slight advance over cost.
Orders by mail will receive prompt attention.

THE TRAVELER'S FRIEND.
SLEEPING CARS OUTDONE.
Fast's Pat. Sleeping Cushion.
JAS. S. TOPHAM & CO.
Assignees and Sole Manufacturers for State of Maryland and D. C.

This cushion affords an easy support to the head and upper part of the spine, when low-backed seats are used, and is of unequaled comfort on railroad cars, steamboats or stages. To invalids, it affords great relief; as it prevents the jolting effects of the car on the head. It is equally useful to ladies or gentlemen, as it does not disarrange the hair, or necessitate the removal of the bonnet or hat. It can be used or not, at pleasure. It can be folded and carried in a small satchel or the pocket. Call and see it, at our Freedmen's Trunk Manufactory of
