

13 copies of the History of the Times... The best, cheapest, and most successful Family Paper in the Union.

Harper's Weekly. SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED.

In November will be commenced "The World," a new serial story, splendidly illustrated, by Wm. Collins (Author of "The Woman in White," "No Name," "Armadale," and "The Moonstone").

Critical Notices of the Press. The Model Newspaper of our country. Complete in all the departments of an American Family Paper, Harper's Weekly has earned for itself a right to its title.

Articles upon public questions which appear in Harper's Weekly from week to week form a remarkable series of brief political essays. They are distinguished by clear and pointed statement, by good common-sense, by independence and breadth of view.

Standard Periodicals for 1870.

Republished by the Leonard Scott Publishing Co., New York.

1. The Edinburgh Review. This is the oldest of the series. In its main features it still follows in the path marked out by Brougham, Jeffrey, Stirling, and Lockhart. It is an original, vigorous, and first-class journal.

2. The London Quarterly Review. which commences its 124th volume with the January number, was set on foot as a rival to the Edinburgh. It is a weekly journal, and its position in the literary department is well established.

3. The Westminster Review. has just closed its 52nd volume. In point of literary ability this Review is fast rising to a level with its competitors. It is the advocate of political and religious liberalism.

4. The North British Review. now in its 51st volume, occupies a very high position in periodical literature. Passing beyond the narrow formation of schools and parties, it appeals to a wider range of sympathies and a higher integrity of conviction.

5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine. was commenced 52 years ago. Equaling the Quarterly in its literary and scientific departments, it has won a wide reputation for its narratives and sketches which enliven its pages.

THE WEEKLY WORLD 1870.

Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World.

Harper's Magazine, apart from the illustrations, contains from fifty to one hundred per cent. more matter than any similar periodical issued in the English language.

Critical Notices of the Press. The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellence of HARPER'S MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 120,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day.

We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American People; and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the monthly and the more philosophical quarterly journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—TAYLOR'S GUIDE TO AMERICAN LITERATURE, London.

It is one of the wonders of journalism—the editorial management of Harper's. All the periodicals which the Harper's publish are almost ideally well edited.—The Nation, N. Y.

We can account for its success only by the simple fact that it meets precisely the popular taste, furnishing a variety of pleasing and instructive reading for all.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

TERMS: Harper's Magazine, one year, $4 00 An Extra Copy of either the Magazine, Weekly, or Bazar will be supplied gratis on every Club of Five Subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance; or Six Copies for $20 00, without extra copy.
