PROPOSALS FOR SUPPLIES.

QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE, U. S. ARMY, PHILADELPHIA, PA., April 30, 1872.

Sealed proposals, in triplicate, with copy of this advertisement attached, will be received at this office, until 12 o'clock m., on THURSDAY, May 30, 1872, for furnishing the Quartermaster's Department with five thousand (5,000) gross boxes for cork lead pencils, to be delivered at such place in the City of New York as may be required by the quartermaster of the Department. THE ANTHRACITE COAL, of such size and in quantities as may be ordered, for a period of one year from the 1st day of July, 1872, to be delivered at Washington, Baltimore and Alexandria, Va., in quantities of not less than ten thousand (10,000) lbs. at a time, when required.

So much of the coal as may be required to be delivered for use at the United States Arsenals at Frankford and Gray's Ferry Road, must be delivered without charge for cartage, and at such place as may be required, the balance to be delivered on board of vessels at this port.

The coal to be in good order and condition, free from dirt, and of the best quality for the purpose, and will be inspected prior to its receipt, by the United States.

ALSO,

At the same time and place, bids will be received for furnishing this Depot with such quantities of CORN, OATS, HAY, STRAW and KINDLING WOOD as may be required in the City, for one year from the 1st day of July, 1872. The Forage, Straw and Wood to be delivered at such times and at such places in Philadelphia as may be directed without additional expense to the United States.

All grain to be of the best quality, free from dust, dirt and other impurities. Oats to be of the weight of the bushel, sixty-five pounds to the bushel; hay of the best quality timothy, straw to be of one of the best quality; the wood to be of the best kind of wood.

Form of bid will be furnished on application to this office, also the probable amount of forage and wood to be delivered, as well as any additional information required by those desiring to bid.
