BALTIMORE MARKETS.

HALTIMORE, June 6.—Breadstuffs.—Flour—The market for Flour continues dull, and we note a decline of 10 cents per barrel on Spring Extra, and 25 cents per barrel on Baltimore high grade Family and Extra. The receipts are from baking to day 1,440 barrels, with sales reported of 500 barrels Howard street Family at $11.12½; 100 Spring Extra at $7.50, and 100 do. do. common dupee at $7.00.

Wheat—The market for wheat is dull, with small receipts and light demand. The sales reported to-day on Change were 700 bushels Southern red at $1.35 and 400 fine Pennsylvania do. at $1.38. We continue to quote to-day as follows, viz: Southern and Western red, $1.30@$1.40; fair to choice do. do. $1.40@$1.50; fair to choice Michigan white $1.40; amber as $1.50@$1.55, and Pennsylvania red at $1.

Corn—The market for Corn is quiet and dull for Western, but steady and firm for Southern. The receipts to-day were 36,000 bushels, mostly Western mixed, and sales were reported of 8,000 Southern white at 78 cents, and 1,000 do. yellow at 79 cents. Of Western mixed we note sales of 2,000 bushels in elevator and 2,500 do. on track, all at 66 cents. No sales of yellow reported, and we quote prime nominal at 69 cents.

Oats—The market for Oats is dull, and prices of Western are lower. The receipts were 10,000 bushels Western, and we note sales of 10,000 mixed at 40@43 cents, and 2,000 bright at 46@48 cents. We quote light Southern at 40@41 cents.

Rye.—No sales reported, but we quote firm at 80@$1.00.

Provisions.—We have no change to note in the market for provisions. Bulk Meats are quiet, and we hear of no sales to-day and quote prices as follows: Shoulders at 4¾ cents, rib sides at 5¼@5¾ cts., clear rib at 6¼@6¾ cents. Bacon—The jobbing demand is steady, but not active, and we quote prices from store as follows, viz: For Shoulders 6¼@6¾ cents, rib sides 7¼ cents, and clear rib do. 7¾@8 cents. Hams are in fair demand at 12@13 cents, the latter for fine sugar-cured. Mess Pork — We quote nominal at $16.50@$17 per bbl. Lard is also quiet, and we quote Western steam and kettle at 9 cents, and refined at 10 cents.

Refined Sugars.—The market for Refined Sugars is quiet, but prices are unchanged. We continue to hear of no demand for powdered, owing to the opening of the fruit season. We quote prices as follows: Loaf 14¾ cents, Block 13¾ cents, Crushed 13¾@13¾ cents, A Powdered 13¾ cts., White A Coffee 13¼@13¾ cents, B White 13¼@13¾ cents, Extra C 13¼@13¾ cents, White Extra C 13¼@13¾ cts., Circle C 13 cts., as to make, and Clarion C 13¼@13¾ cts.

Whisky.—The market for High Wines is quiet, and dull, and we quote at 93½ cents for bbls.

Proposals.

WROUGHT AND CAST-IRON WORK.

U. S. MINT, SAN FRANCISCO, OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT, June 1, 1872.

Sealed proposals will be received at the Office of the Superintendent until 12 m., JUNE 15, 1872, for furnishing, delivering, fitting and putting in place the Wrought and Cast-Iron Work of the Two Chimney Shafts, the Window Frames, Window Sashes, Door Frames, Doors and their Finishings, and Fire Iron, Mantelpieces, and the Ornamental Fittings of the Offices of the Mint and the Assistant Treasurer, &c., all as exhibited on the drawings described in the specifications, and called for in the schedule.

All scaffolding required by the contractor to put the work in place will be furnished by the Government free of charge, but will be erected by the contractors.

Proposals will be made by the piece, lineal foot, or by weight, for the various articles of wrought and cast-iron work, as provided for in the following schedule:

The work will not be subdivided among different bidders, but will be considered in the aggregate.

Payments will be made monthly, deducting ten per cent. until the final completion of the contract.

All bids must be accompanied by a penal bond, in the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500), that the bidder will accept and perform the contract, if awarded him, the sufficiency of the security to be certified by the Assistant Treasurer, Clerk of the United States Court, or District Attorney of the district where he resides.

The Superintendent reserves the right to reject any or all bids, if it be deemed for the interest of the Government to do so, and any bid that is not made on the printed form will be rejected. Bidders will be required to conform in every respect to the requirements of this advertisement, will not be considered, unless will any proposal for less than a month's work, and no bidders are invited from persons who are not themselves engaged in the manufacture of wrought or cast-iron work, and who have not the necessary facilities for performing the work.

It being important that the building should be completed at the earliest possible moment, bidders must in all cases state the time in which they will undertake the performance of the contract, which will be considered in awarding the bid.

Proposals will be indorsed "Bids for Iron Work," and addressed to

W. F. G. STEBBINS,

jy6-12t Superintendent.

PROPOSALS FOR TRANSPORTATION.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS, May 16, 1872.

Sealed proposals will be received at this office until 12 o'clock, m., on TUESDAY, the 11th day of June 1872, for transportation, during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1873, of annuity goods and other supplies for the Indian service, as follows:

1st. From Cheyenne, Wyoming Territory, to Red Cloud Agency, about 100 miles more or less, north from Cheyenne, say 2,000,000 pounds.

2d. From Sioux City, Iowa, or from Fort Randall, Dakota Territory, to the Winnebago Agency, on the Missouri river, say 1,000,000 pounds.

About 900,000 pounds for the Red Cloud, and say 600,000 pounds for the Winnebago Agency, will be ready for transportation on or about the 1st of July next, and thereafter one-eleventh, or more, of the remainder will be ready for shipment or delivery monthly, all to be delivered to the United States agents at the agencies named.

Bids should be made for separately the rate of transportation per one hundred pounds per one hundred miles, and be accompanied with a copy of this advertisement, and the name of the proposed agent by which it appears, and posted at the head of said proposal, the whole to be enclosed in an envelope addressed to the undersigned, and indorsed "Proposals for Transportation of Annuities," &c.

No proposals will be considered unless accompanied by a written guarantee of two responsible parties (not bidders) that, if accepted, the bidder or bidders will immediately enter into a written contract in accordance with his bid.

Bonds will be required to the amount of the bill for the faithful performance of the contract, with two or more sureties, who will be required to be bound by a United States Judge or District Attorney.

The right is reserved to reject any or all proposals if such course should be deemed for the interest of the Government.

The bidder must designate his place of business, where communications sent to him will be received, the same to entered in his contract, should one be awarded to him.

Proposals will be made at this office on proper receipts from the agents to whom the goods are to be delivered.

The bidders are invited to be present at the opening of the bids as soon as the time for receiving the same shall have expired.

F. A. WALKER,

jy1 Commissioner.
