BALTIMORE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, June 26—Cotton Quiet and steady.—Flour—We have no change to note in the market for Flour, which continues dull, with little demand. The receipts to-day were 4,700 bbls., and sales reported at our quotations, as follows: Ho ward street and City Mills and Western Flour at $5; Howard street and Herald Avenue Extra at $5.50, and for Western Family at $6.50.

Wheat—The receipts of Wheat to-day were 5,000 bushels, and we hear of sales of 2,000 bushels of prime red at $1.60, for Western, and 1,000 bushels of prime white at $1.75@1.80 and 500 bushels of good to prime white at $1.75@1.80 and 500 bushels of good to prime white at $1.75@1.80 and 500 bushels of prime amber at $1.80, for Western, and 1,000 bushels of prime Maryland at $1.80@1.85. Old Wheat is unchanged, and we quote nominal, as follows: Southern and Pennsylvania white, $2@2.10, the latter for choice; amber, $2@2.05; Southern red, $1.80@1.85, and Pennsylvania and Western do. at $1.80@1.85.

Corn—The market for Southern white Corn to-day was firmer with light receipts, and we note sales of 1,000 bushels at 71@73 cents, the former for inferior. Yellow was dull and lower, with sales of 1,000 bushels at 61 cents. Of Western the sales were 400 bushels white on track at 70 cents, and 10,000 at to Arrive at same figure; 60 bushels prime mixed on track at 62 cents and 5,000 bushels reported do. at 60@61 cents.

The receipts of Rye have been quite small for the season, but we learn of no sales; it is freely offered at 61 cents.

Oats—The receipts of Oats to-day were light, and the market was firmer for Western, with sales of 5,000 bushels mixed at 40@40 cents; 5,000 bright at 41 cents, and 1,500 extra at 42 cents; and 10,000 cents. No Southern offered except in small lots.

Rye—The market for Rye is quiet, and we quote prime from 80 cents to $1, as to quality.

Provisions—The market for Provisions is quiet. Tierces Cheese in Bulk Md. sts are limited owing to the extreme views of holders. We learn of a sale to-day of 25,000 lbs. prime, packed, at 12½ cents, and we quote from at 8 cents for Shoulders, 6½ cents for ribs Sides, and 7 cents for clear rib do., with sellers asking 1/4@1/2 cents more. The jobbing demand is very limited, is active, and we quote Sugar Hams here at 15@16 cents, at Hides 12½ cents, and clear rib do. 7@8 cents. Lard is quiet at 8@8½ cents, the latter for prime and sugar-cured. We note a better demand for Mess Pork, with small sales at $18.75 per bbl. We have to report a sale of 120 tierces prime Western at noon Lard at 8 cents, and quote refined at 8½ cents.

Sugar—The market for raw Sugar is quiet, the only sale reported yesterday being of 100 hhds. Cuba Muscovado at 8 cents. We still quote as follows, viz: Refining grades Cuba and Porto Rico at 8@8½ cents; grocery grades Cuba, 8½@9 cents; grocery grades Porto Rico 8½@8¾ cents; Demerara vacuum pan 9@9½ cents; English Island, 8@8½ cents; French Island 8@8½ cents. We quote refined at 10@10½ cents. The receipts yesterday were 600 hhds. and 1 tierce from Cuba, and 100 hhds. from Demerara. The stock here is 30,216 hhds., 12,000 tierces and 5,000 bags.

Refined Sugars.—Market for refined Sugars is quiet. Prices have declined somewhat owing to the prospect of the New York refiners resuming operations next week, and we now quote Loaf, Out Loaf, and XX Powdered at 10 cents. Granulated at 10¼ cents. Ordered at 10¼ cents. Granulated at 10¼, and firm on a basis of 10¼ cents for A white. Coarse C O W still quote at 10@10½ cents.

Whisky—The market for High Wines is firm, and we learn of sales of 100 bbls. at 90@91 cents for Western.

Prices to be for the articles delivered at the respective agencies.
Bidders must state the prices of the grades of flour separately.
The beef cattle will be received on the hoof, and the weight determined by weighing on scales, when practicable.
Proposals will be received for the delivery of any one or all of the above-named articles, at any one or all of said Agencies.
Delivery to commence immediately, and to continue from time to time, as may be required, during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1873.
All of the articles furnished must be of good merchantable and fair quality, and subject to inspection and rejection.
The undersigned reserves the right to increase or diminish the above quantities, if deemed necessary by him, or to reject any or all bids, if such a course should be deemed necessary for the interest of the Government.
Proposals to be made at Washington, D. C., on certificate of residence, issued by the respective agents, and properly approved.
Each proposal must have a copy of this advertisement attached thereto.
No bid will be considered unless accompanied by a written guarantee of two responsible parties, to the effect that if the bid is accepted the bidder or bidders will immediately enter into a written contract in accordance therewith.
Bonds will be required in the amount of the bid for the faithful performance of the contract, with two or more sureties, whose sufficiency must be certified to by a United States judge or a district attorney.
Owing to the impracticability of getting to the different Agencies in the winter, contracts must be prepared to have sufficient supplies on hand at the respective Agencies by the 30th of October next, to last until the 30th of April, 1873.
Right is reserved that in the event of failure to deliver these supplies as required the undersigned shall purchase the same in open market, and the difference in prices will be charged to the contractor.
Bidders are also invited to state at what prices they will furnish the same, delivered at previous periods respectively at the Flathead Agency.
For any further information apply at this office.

PROPOSALS FOR MAIL STEAMSHIP SERVICE BETWEEN SAN FRANCISCO, JAPAN AND CHINA.
POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, June 8, 1872.
In accordance with the provisions of sections 2 and 3 of the act of Congress approved June 1, 1872, entitled "An act making appropriations for the service of the Post Office Department for the year ending June thirty, eighteen hundred and seventy-three," which provides for the establishment of a mail service, viz:
Sec. 2 * * * "And the Postmaster General is hereby authorized to contract with the lowest bidder, within three months after the passage of this act, after sixty days' public notice, for a term of ten years from and after the first day of October, eighteen hundred and seventy-three, for the transportation of additional monthly mail on the said route, at a compensation not to exceed the rate per voyage now paid under the existing contract, and upon the same conditions and limitations as prescribed by existing acts of Congress in reference thereon, and the respective amounts made in pursuance hereof; and the contractors under the provisions of this section shall be required to carry the United States mails during the extension of their contracts, without additional charge, on all the steamers they may run upon said line, or any part of it, or any branch or extension thereof. Provided, That all steamships hereafter accepted for said service shall be of not less than four thousand tons register each, and shall be built of iron, and with the exception of the iron used, shall be wholly of American construction, and shall be so constructed as to be readily adapted to the armed naval service of the United States in case of war, and before acceptance the officers by whom they are inspected shall report to the Secretary of the Navy and the Postmaster General that this condition has been complied with: Provided, That in all cases the officers of the ships employed in the service herein provided for shall be citizens of the United States, and that persons of foreign birth, who have according to law declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, may be employed, but though they were citizens within the meaning of this section, or of any act or acts specified in the act of June twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and the Government of the United States shall have the right in case of war to take for the use of the United States any of the steamships mentioned in this act, such case pay a reasonable compensation therefor: Provided, The price paid shall in no case exceed the original cost of such ship, and the depreciation shall extend to and be applicable to the steamers of the Brazilian line hereinafter provided for."
Sec. 3. That of the contracts for the conveyance of the mail service between San Francisco and China and Japan by a semi-monthly service shall be made with the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, a corporation formed in the said company's ships, or the ships of its successors in interest, the moneys payable under such contract shall be paid while the said company or its successors in interest shall maintain and run the line of steamships for the transportation of freight and passengers at present run between San Francisco and Panama, via the Isthmus of Panama, by the said Pacific Mail Steamship Company, and no longer: Provided, That such contract shall not be required to apply to any party contracting for the mail service between San Francisco and China and Japan, as well as to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company."
PROPOSALS
will be received at the Post Office Department, in the city of Washington, until 3 o'clock p. m., on MONDAY, the 12th day of August, 1872, for conveying the mails of the United States, by means of an additional monthly line of first-class American sea-going steamships of not less than four thousand tons register each, and of sufficient number to perform two round trips per annum, between the port of San Francisco and the port of Hong-Kong, (China,) touching at Yokohama, (Japan,) with a regular branch line running in connection with the main line between Yokohama and Shanghai, (China,) for a contract term of ten years from and after the first day of October, eighteen hundred and seventy-three.
Each bid should name the time proposed to be required to perform the passage each way, including stoppages at intermediate ports; and also the length of the stoppages at each of the intermediate ports. Schedules of sailing days, giving the proposed days and hours of departure from each port, as well as the proposed days and hours of arrival, should also accompany each bid. The departures must be so arranged as to alternate at equal and regular intervals with those of the present monthly line during its continuance, forming a regular semi-monthly service in connection therewith; such schedule, however, to be subject to the approval of the Postmaster General, and to adjustment, or alteration by his order, from time to time, as the interests of the postal service may require.
The steamships offered for the service must be American built steamships of the first class, in all respects conforming to the requirements of the laws relating to the service, and before acceptance they will be subject to inspection and survey by an experienced naval constructor to be detailed for that purpose by the Secretary of the Navy.
Proposals must conform in all particulars to the provisions and requirements of the acts of Congress approved February 17, 1871, and February 19, 1867, and of sections 3 and 6 of the above act of June 1, 1872, and must be properly guaranteed with satisfactory testimonials that the bidder or bidders, and their guarantors, are men of property and responsibility,
