THE HON. JOHN MORRISSEY is for Greeley.

RYNDERS, the slave-catcher, is for Greeley.

GOVERNOR LESLIE, of Kentucky, has ordered a survey of Salt river for the benefit of the Greeley party in November.

A GREELEY REFORMER AT WORK.

If Mr. Greeley should be elected President, there are at least three newspaper men whom he should not forget in the distribution of his favors, namely, H. J. Ramsdell, of the Cincinnati Commercial, J. W. Knowlton, of the Chicago Tribune, and Richard J. Hinton, of the Boston Globe. Two of the above-named journalists went to Baltimore to work for Mr. Greeley's nomination. Mr. Hinton went there with by no means friendly feelings toward the sage of Chappaqua; but as his opposition is quite as beneficial and effective as his support, H. G. is as much indebted to him as to the other two. They all suffered terribly at the hands of Mr. Greeley's friends. Ramsdell lost his shoes, and was compelled to walk out next morning to an adjoining shoe store to replace those that had been stolen from him. This was only the beginning of his troubles.

Mr. Ramsdell, while wearing a No. 5 glove, requires, strange to say, a No. 13 shoe. Baltimore men are remarkable, among other things, for the smallness of their feet, and it is by no means easy to find shoes of dimensions to suit Mr. Ramsdell in that city. He spent $10 in hack-riding around the city from shoe establishment to shoe establishment, and at length succeeded in finding a small No. 12—the best that he could do. They kept him in torture all day, and made him write three fearfully disloyal dispatches, which led to the rumor that the Commercial was going to oppose Greeley. It was not Halstead's editorials, it was Ramsdell's dispatches, and all because some thief of a Greeley man had stolen his comfortable and capacious shoes. What that thief will do with Ramsdell's shoes is a mystery to us. To what purpose can he possibly put them? He can't wear them himself, and we are confident that no one of his relations can wear them.

Mr. Knowlton lost a magnificent gold watch, the gift of Mr. Horace White, the editor of the Chicago Tribune. Mr. White presented this watch to Mr. Knowlton some six months ago under the following circumstances: There is a difference between Chicago time and Washington time, and to a paper that had the enormous circulation that the Tribune had a few months before it became a Greeley organ, half an hour was of the utmost importance in the matter of getting its mails off, and so forth. Knowlton was always late with his dispatches. His excuse was that he had neither watch nor clock in his office; so White, to put an end to that plea, contracted with the Elgin Watch Company in Illinois to make a handsome watch for Mr. Knowlton, and take it out in advertising. Knowlton has been ever since on time with his dispatches until last Tuesday night, when, as we said, the watch was stolen by probably the same Greeley thief that made off with Ramsdell's number thirteen shoes.

Horace White became very indignant at the lateness of Knowlton's accounts of the convention, and telegraphed for an explanation. He was promptly informed of the facts in the case, and was, as may be naturally supposed, highly indignant. He telegraphed Knowlton to serve notice upon the convention that unless the watch was returned the Tribune could not consistently support the nominations, and that, in his opinion, there ought at least to be some honor among gentlemen who expect to plunder the national Treasury as soon as Greeley gets in.

Mr. Hinton's loss was the severest of all. His pocket-book, well filled with nice, new ten-dollar bills, twenty-five railroad passes, including one on the Washington and Georgetown railroad, photographs of leading woman suffragists and communists, was cruelly abstracted. It also contained important correspondence bearing on the forthcoming revolution in Europe, together with all his letters to the Globe, and several other invaluable documents. Even his excursion-trip ticket over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad was taken, so that he was left utterly helpless in the city of the Philistines.

Ramsdell and Knowlton say that they do not want to again get within fifty miles of that Baltimore crowd. The question they anxiously ask one another now is, What will Greeley do for them in case he is elected?

ALL THE RE-BELS who are not in the penitentiaries will vote for Greeley and Brown.

THE HON. BENJAMIN F. CAMP, Tribune office, New York, will receive subscriptions toward the Greeley campaign fund.

WE WERE IN ERROR a few days ago when we said that Representative Wilson, of Indiana, was the father of the bill introduced during the last session of Congress providing for the election of postmasters by the people. To Gen. Coburn, of the same State, that distinction is due, he having introduced it more than three years ago. Mr. Wilson re-presented it last session. Both gentlemen take a deep interest in the matter, and will work for its passage next session.

EVERY MAN WHO OWES a hundred dollar bond is for Grant.

JEFFERSON DAVIS will stump the South for Greeley and Brown.

FROM A DISPATCH in another column it will be seen that M. Bismarck has served notice upon the Jesuits that they must leave the country within six months. The world will hardly approve so severe and harsh a measure.

EVERY MAN WHO IS OPPOSED to pensioning the Confederate soldiers is for Grant.

WHERE ARE THEY?

During the last two months the supporters of Mr. Greeley have been assuring us that as soon as his nomination was made at Baltimore the country would witness a general stampede among the political leaders and the people from the regular Republican party to the Democracy, from Gen. Grant to the ex-editor of the Tribune. They professed to have the fullest information on the subject; threw out mysterious hints about the position of this and that man, and entertained great expectations generally.

Where are they? Thus far we have not been called upon to chronicle the advent of a single new convert to the Greeley-Democratic faith as laid down at Baltimore. The only cheers that are borne on the breezes to us from New York are the old Tammany cheers. Wm. M. Tweed and his infamous gang wheel into line and fire guns in the City Hall Park in token of their joy and appreciation. Tweed and Hall owe a great debt to Mr. Greeley, and it is only quite natural that they show their gratitude.

When the people of New York rose in their might against these men and their wicked associates who had plundered and robbed them to the tune of millions and millions of dollars, they found a defender and an apologist in the Tribune, that immaculate organ of reform, of official purity and integrity. Mr. Greeley is Mr. Tweed's candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Tweed will vote for him and work for him, and if he can will roll up as large a majority for him through his army of ballot-box stuffers as he did for himself in the good old days. From the South the only cheers that come to us for Mr. Greeley are from the same element that nine years ago cheered Mr. Greeley when he advised Mr. Lincoln to let the erring sisters depart in peace; when he recommended that the Southern slave-whippers be paid out of the national Treasury for their slaves—in many instances for their own flesh and blood.

Republican converts to Greeley there are none. The party and the party leaders stand by the old flag, by the old commander who has so often lead them to victory. The Baltimore nominations fall flat, and awake no response from the Republican party. Excepting the disappointed office-seekers and soreheads, who have for years preyed upon the party and the country, there is no dissatisfaction from the ranks of Republicanism. The masses of the party see the treachery and the hollowness of the men who lead in this new treason against the republic. They feel that the elevation of this party to power would be the worst calamity that could befall the country; that it would lead to the worst demoralization in the public service that we have yet witnessed; disarrange business; introduce into our politics feelings of bitterness and strife that are being gradually allayed; open up old issues, and instead of promoting peace and harmony engender hate and discord and disunion.

The majority of the people support Gen. Grant's administration, and will next November give it a new lease of life, because they know and feel that it means prosperity, peace, the payment of the public debt, the reduction of taxation, progress and improvement. Notwithstanding all the slander and the calumny that has been hurled at it they see and understand that the country is more prosperous to-day than ever it has been; that it steadily advances in wealth and intelligence, and that under Gen. Grant's pilotage the old ship of State sails on with every sail set, safe from the perils and the storms that at one time surrounded her. The mutineers who attempted to scuttle and sink her have been cast out. They will find no one to follow them into their infamy and dishonor.

SEMMES, the Alabama pirate, is for Greeley.

THE ONLY COLORED MAN FOR GREELEY is Saunders, of Baltimore.

BARNEY AARON, Mike McCool, Jim Mace and Sam Collyer are for Greeley. At least Greeley says so.

THE CONGRESSIONAL FIELD.

We notice considerable activity among the various aspirants for Congressional honors—under the new arrangement for increased representation—in the Western States.

Iowa and Michigan have each three additional members. It is now stated that Hon. John A. Kasson will run against Frank Palmer, the present Republican member. Mr. Loughbridge has been nominated in Gov. Walden's district.

In Michigan Messrs. Foster, Conger and Waldron, the present members, will, without doubt, be renominated. Gov. Blair, who represents the Third district—having gone over to the Greeley party—will, of course, be out of the play in the Republican convention.

In the Eighth district, which is a slice off from the old Sixth, we hear that Hon. James Birney—son of James G. Birney, of old-time abolition—will be supported for a nomination by the regular Republicans. Judge Birney is one of its most honorable and talented citizens, and, if so fortunate as to be chosen, will make an able Representative. He would have doubtless been selected for this position long ago had it not been for the unscrupulous and persistent opposition of John F. Driggs, the former member, who seemed to think he had himself a royal right to a continuous renomination for all time to come; but, having been badly beaten at the last election by a Democrat—and under the inspiration and smart of his defeat, having bolted the party to give his future support to the Democracy—he is now out of the way.

The course now seems clear for the former gentleman's success. We do not know what other candidates, if any, are in the field, but from what we know of Judge Birney we feel satisfied that his election would add vastly to the character and influence of the Michigan delegation in Congress.

THE NOTORIOUS BILLY MCMULLEN, of Philadelphia, was one of the vice presidents of the Baltimore convention. If Mr. Greeley is elected McMullen will probably be made collector of the port of Philadelphia.

BEADLEY JOHNSON, who starved Union prisoners at Salisbury, North Carolina, is for Greeley.

THE "BONNIE BLUE FLAG" is the favorite air of the Greeley men.

HOLD UP.

The Chicago Tribune should moderate its enthusiasm for Mr. Greeley. If it does not, we are inclined to think that it will lose whatever reputation it has for ordinary common sense and sagacity. It has lately gotten into a wild way of dealing with facts and figures, of giving away districts and States to this and that party in so reckless fashion that we are led to suspect that the late fire must have seriously affected its reason.

Summing up the probable vote for Mr. Greeley in a late issue it counts among the States that he is certain to carry the following: Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and California.

The Tribune knows very well that the Democratic party cannot by any possibility carry any one of the last three States, and it also knows that the prospect of Indiana going on the same side is more than doubtful. The Tribune knows that Illinois will give General Grant and the Republican party forty thousand majority in November, and that Wisconsin will maintain her old majority of twenty-four or twenty-five thousand. That such will be the fact we feel entirely satisfied from a recent trip through that country and conversation with the best-informed politicians in both States. The Chicago Tribune should not begin its reform career by such gross and willful misrepresentations.

IN THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION a picture of the White House was suspended from the ceiling. Then art to mar and yet so far.

ALL WHO ARE IN FAVOR of repudiating the national debt support the Baltimore nominations.

ALL WHO ARE IN FAVOR of paying the Confederate debt vote for Greeley.

TAMMANY HALL is for Horace Greeley.

THE SECOND NUMBER of the Irish Republican of this city, which was formerly published in New York under the name of the Irish Republic, is fully up to the high standard of excellence that marked its first issue. There are few men in the Republican party who have, during the last five or six years, done better service to the cause of Republicanism than its editor, Mr. Michael Scanlan. He has made thousands of converts among that large class of our population who ought to be with us, but who, for some unaccountable reason, seem wedded to the Democracy. The Irish Republican is a bold, fearless and able Republican journal, and should be widely read and circulated.

POLITICAL NOTES.

ALL the members of the Ohio House of Representatives are for Grant and Wilson.

THE Boston Post supports for the Presidency "one of the meanest men in New York"—to use its own description of Horace Greeley.

The Portland Press says that every sane man who knows anything about Maine knows that it will give Grant and Wilson a majority of thousands.

GEN. TOM BROWN, the Republican candidate for Governor, has tendered his resignation as district attorney for Indiana, and will devote all of his time between this and October to the campaign.

THE Binghamton (N. Y.) Republican continues to repeat the charge of negotiation, begun in October last, between Horace Greeley, Hiram Seymour, and Waldo Hutchins, looking to the nomination of the first named to the Presidency. Its statements are not denied, and new details are given.

"IF IN a full and final review my life and practice shall be found unworthy my principles, let due infamy be heaped on my memory; but let none be thereby led to distrust the principles to which I proved recreant."—H. G., 1848.

A CORRESPONDENT writing us from Indiana says: "You hear terrible reports about Greeleyism in various places, but go upon the ground and it is like milk sickness—just over in the next county. It all vanished as you proceed."

OUR SOUTH brethren are stable brethren. Not all the blandishments of the gushing and garrulous Greeley are sufficient to move them from their allegiance to the principles of the Republican party.—St. Louis Democrat.

AMONG the callers at the Greeley headquarters, Astor house, yesterday were a well-known Broadway black-leg and the large-waisted, ex-Senator Graham, of Orange county, who boasts that "he has the biggest chest of any man in the country." Graham is also noted for having been one of the most corrupt Democrats in the Legislature. But of such as these two is the party of "Liberal" ideas.—N. Y. Times.

IN 1866 the debt of the city of Brooklyn amounted to only $8,126,000. The city government has been under the control of a powerful Democratic ring for several years past, and the present debt of the city is $53,000,000, or nearly four times as much as it was in 1866. The New York World says this corrupt ring, as well as Tammany ring proper, supports Greeley to a man.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Cincinnati Commercial says there are not a dozen Greeley Republicans in Laporte county, and throughout northern Indiana Greeley will not receive two per cent. of the Republican vote. Per contra, he says that numbers of Democrats have told him they will not vote at all if the race is between Grant and Greeley, and some say they will vote for Grant.

THE Lehigh (Pa.) Register says: "Our friends who are interested in the Republican party need have no fears that Buckalew will be elected Governor. The situation in Pennsylvania has been thoroughly canvassed, and notwithstanding the efforts of Forney to defeat our party, the election of Gen. Hartranft is assured by such a majority as will give us 50,000 for Grant in November."

DR. T. B. SELLERS, of Watkins, has just returned from a journey through Kentucky. Before he made the journey he had signed a call for a Greeley meeting. Since his return he has come out for Grant, because he found all the Kentucky rebels supporting Greeley for the avowed purpose of obtaining power, and, as far as possible, restoring affairs to the condition they were in before the war. He adds: "The Unionists, both white and black, are solid for Grant."
