"OUR FATHER'S HOUSE"
OR THE UNWRITTEN WORD.
By DANIEL MAYER, D. D., author of the popular "Night Scenes." This masterly thought and language shows us untold riches and beauties in the Great House, with its blooming flowers, its singing birds, waving palms, rolling clouds, beautiful law, sacred mountains, delightful rivers, mighty oceans, thundering waves, blazing heavens and vast universe with countless beings in millions of worlds, and reads to us in each the Unwritten Word. Rose-tinted paper, ornate engraving and superb binding. "Rich and varied in thought," "Christy," "Easy and graceful in style," "Correct, pure and elevating in its tendency," "Beautiful and good." "A household treasure." Commendations like the above from College Presidents and Professors, ministers of all denominations, and the religious and secular press all over the country. Its freshness, purity of language, with clear open type, fine steel engraving, substantial binding, and low price, make it the book for the masses. Agents are selling from 50 to 150 per work.

We want Clergymen, School Teachers, smart young men and ladies to introduce the work for us in every township, and we will pay liberally. No intelligent man or woman need be without a paying business.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.
Harper's Magazine, apart from the illustrations, contains from fifty to one hundred pages, more matter than any similar periodical issued in the English language.
Critical Notices of the Press.
The most popular Monthly in the world—New York Observer.
We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellence of HARPER'S Magazine, a journal with a monthly circulation of about 120,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American People; and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the racy, lively and the most philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—The Nation, N. Y.
We can account for its success only by the simple fact that it meets precisely the popular taste, furnishing a variety of elegant and instructive reading for all.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S
Concentrated Fluid Extract
BUCU.
THE GREAT DIURETIC.
The Proprietor trusts that his Remedies, from the fact of being advertised, may not be classed as Patent Medicines.
Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu
is a Pharmaceutical Preparation. The proper name is given, and it is the most active diuretic known. It is a powerful and safe cure by all medical works, for such diseases as recommended by the Proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by Adults and Children. It is Tonic, Diuretic, Blood Purifying and Invigorating. Entailed and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the Preparations of Bark or Iron.
See Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:
"BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in combination with other Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, Chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, morbid irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, diseases of the Prostate Gland, and Retention of the Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its excretion. It has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy."
TESTIMONY
Cure of Gravel of Five Years Standing—Stone Passed and to be Seen.
SAVANNAH, TENN., May 14, 1869.
Dr. H. T. HELMBOLD, Esq.,
Dear Sir—We introduced your "Fluid Extract Buchu" in this country about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with universal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance among many, where your "Buchu" has worked wonders. A man in our county named J. B. Gese had been suffering about five years with gravel. About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a stone that weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never be without the "Buchu" in his house again. Your preparations are gaining favor every day. Very respectfully, yours, &c.,
ECLES & HINKEL, Druggists.

Care of Bladder and Kidney Affection of Long Standing—Stone Passed and to be Seen.
WESTPORT, CONN., September 5, 1869.
H. T. HELMBOLD, Esq.
Dear Sir—I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu" about two weeks since for an affection of the Gravel bladder and kidneys. I have suffered by spells, very much, for a few days. But yesterday a relief came through the effect of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a LARGE PEA, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered with "so hard." I attribute my cure to your "Buchu," and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers.
Yours, truly,
THOMAS J. BENNET.

Care of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy-Eight Years of Age—Thanks to Mr. Helmbold.
GIRARD, Pa., March 31, 1869.
ENTIRE COMPLETION:
I desire an unsolicited tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those similarly afflicted as myself, to say that after consulting many eminent physicians, and trying nearly all the best remedies in the vain hope of finding relief from aggravating kidney and bladder diseases, from which I have suffered excessively for many years, good fortune finally suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using with little faith, and no apparent beneficial results for about a month. At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use, and in the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly seventy-eight years of age, and consequently medicines cannot be expected to favorably effect me as they otherwise would, I have found such unspeakable relief and permanent benefit from Mr. Helmbold's valuable discovery, that I feel I ought publicly to record the fact, as an acknowledgment to him and a valuable suggestion to the public.
Yours, Respectfully,
D. M. LAREN.

HARPER'S BAZAR.
A supplement containing numerous full-sized patterns of useful articles accompanied by the paper every fortnight, and occasionally an elegant Colored Fashion Plate.
Harper's Bazar contains 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superfine calendered paper, and is published weekly.
Critical Notices of the Press.
Harper's Bazar contains, besides special patterns, etc., a variety of matter of interest and value to the family: articles on health, dress, and housekeeping in all its branches; its editorial matter is especially adapted to the circle it is intended to instruct; and it has, besides, good stories and literary matter of merit. It is not surprising that the journal, with such features, has achieved in a short time an immense success; for something of its kind was desired in thousands of families, and its publishers have filled the demand. The young lady who buys a single number of Harper's Bazar is made a subscriber for life. The Bazar is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is not only idealy well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average families—cannot but profit by its good sense and good taste, which, we have no doubt, are today, making very many homes happier than they have been before the women began taking lessons in personal and household and social management from this good-natured mentor.—The Nation.
It is the merit of being sensible, of conveying instruction, of giving excellent patterns in every department, and of being well stocked with good reading matter.—Watchman and Reflector.

MARYLAND LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY.
THE progress of Life Insurance in the United States proves this great growing branch of modern science and philanthropy to be one of the most successful and profitable of all human enterprises.
The wisdom of all ages has devised nothing that compares with it. It is so manifestly good, that it is difficult to see how an intelligent man, with proper concern for the comfort and protection of his family, can fail to avail himself of its benefits.
Life Insurance leaves ready money to settle estates to advantage. It will prevent a sacrifice of property if a man die in debt. It is subject to no tax during life, nor Orphan's Court expenses after death. It is exempt by law from debt. It is rapidly becoming a rule that all men of just attributes insure.
Our Maryland Company commends itself to the confidence and patronage of our people in all parts of the State. Its directors are men of known integrity and ability, to whom the public may look with confidence for a just and careful supervision of its affairs. It must be clear to every intelligent mind that, if we would secure to our largest prospective our State and people individually, we must build up our institutions and keep our capital at home.
Had the five million dollars sent out of the State annually for insurance been invested at home, it would have added favorably to our own wealth and commerce. This is emphatically our COMPANY—gotten up by our BEST merchants to afford the opportunity for all to insure without sending the money out of our own State. The affairs of the Company are managed with economy.
Such has been our marked success that we were able after the second year to declare and pay in CASH as large dividends as the oldest and largest company in the United States. The Company feel greatly encouraged by the patronage and co-operation they have received, and solicit a continuance of the same. The laws of trade, commerce, self-respect and self-interest combine to make his Company for us.
Now, dear Sir, in view of all the advantages of Life Insurance as an investment—the uncertainty of life—the strong claims of wife and children upon husband and father—the necessity of business, and all the ordinary expenses of life—it is not the moral duty of every man to put something in a form that will prevent want and distress, or trouble on the part of those he loves?
By all means insure, and do it at once in the Maryland Company. The officers of this Company are

The strictest order is maintained and accommodations always at call. The House is open at all hours. The advantage of a Hotel upon the plan of the Sherwood House is, that the guest can accommodate the price of his living to his own wishes, paying only for what he gets. The Sherwood House has recently been newly furnished and refitted, and, being in a central and business part of the city, offers unusual inducements to travellers. A fair trial is asked, and patronage from St. Mary's county solicited.
