CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 1, via HAVANA, Nov. 7.—The election for President of Mexico resulted in the almost unanimous choice of Lerdo de Tejada. The votes against him were few and scattering.

BALTIMORE.

Serious Shooting Affray in the Sixth Ward—One Person Killed and Another Mortally Wounded.

BALTIMORE, Md., November 7.—An election was held to-day in the Sixth ward, to fill a vacancy in the first board of the city council, caused by the death of a member from that ward. A few minutes before the closing of the polls of the first precinct of the ward, at six o'clock this evening, an indiscriminate firing of pistols occurred, by which one person was shot instantly killed and another mortally wounded.

The following particulars in regard to the affair are furnished by the marshal of police: Just before the closing of the polls a crowd of one thousand persons or more were gathered around the polls at the corner of Fayette street and Broadway.

A party of men, mostly colored, left the crowd and proceeded about midway to Broadway, when they turned and deliberately fired upon the crowd in front of the voting place, killing Isaac Hoes, aged 16, and mortally wounding John Chenoweth, aged 35. A hackney boy received a flesh wound. Immediately after firing the party broke and ran, when those fired into returned the shots.

About twenty shots in all were fired, and it was all done in a minute's time. Previous to the firing, which was wholly unexpected, no disturbance whatever had occurred.

Coroner Seltzer summoned a jury to night, and an inquest will be held to-morrow evening, when all the facts will be ascertained.

THE HORSE DISEASE.

Marked Improvement in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The rain has continued here all night. The distempered horses, however, notwithstanding the unpropitious weather, continue to show a marked improvement. Nearly a full complement of cars has resumed on all the railroads, and the streams of traffic have resumed their wonted channels. There have been only thirty-four deaths of horses in this city in the last twenty-four hours.

SOME IMPROVEMENT IN PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—The weather has cleared off finely. More horses are appearing on the streets, and some passenger cars are resuming their trips.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 7.—The epizootic is spreading rapidly and seriously interfering with business. Several iron mills have suspended for want of coal.

The combined lines of several railways have issued orders to the East and West directing agents to receive no freight directed to this city, it being impossible to get teams to remove it from the depot.

Several cases are reported of the disease having attacked mules.

THE DISEASE AT CHARLESTON.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 7.—Though the horse disease is still prevalent here, the cases are seldom severe, and but one death has occurred. The proportion of sick horses is not so large as to occasion any interruption in the dispatch of railroad and steamship freights or the transaction of general business.

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.

One Person Killed and a Large Number Wounded.

SCRANTON, PA., Nov. 7.—An accident occurred this evening at 5:30 o'clock, on the Lehigh and Susquehannah railroad, just below this city. The Scranton and Wilkesbarre accommodation train left this city fifteen minutes late, and when it reached a point almost half a mile below the depot, a rail broke, and threw the hind car from the track. It was dragged about two hundred yards, and then went over an embankment and was wrecked. Mr. Evans, of Springbrook, was instantly killed; James Reilly, of Plymouth, was so badly injured that he cannot recover, and Miss Griffith, of Minersville, was also badly injured; twenty-seven others were more or less injured, but only a few seriously.

Card of Vice President Colfax.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 7.—A special to the Chronicle, dated Indianapolis, contains the following card addressed to the Indianapolis Journal:

"SIR:—In Brick Pomeroy's "The Tribune" of to day again states that 'it appears that Mr. Colfax is, after all, a candidate for the Senatorship in Indiana.' Even at the risk of subjecting myself to more cheap wit by opposition papers about retiring, I ask the privilege of restating in your columns what I have said publicly in tens of thousands the past month, that I am not a candidate nor aspirant for any position, senatorial or editorial, State or national, and aim, of course, for the election of the Republican nominee for Senator by the united vote of the Republican members of the Legislature.

(Signed) "SCHUYLER COLFAX."

Desperate Attempt of a Murderer to Escape.

WEST CHESTER, Nov. 7.—George Grant, sentenced to be hanged on Wednesday for the murder of a woman named Spence, a year since, made a desperate attempt to escape last night. The keeper (B. F. Haines) was attacked by Grant, and nearly killed, while going his rounds. His cries attracted Cooper, under-keeper, who fired four shots at his revolver at Grant, without wounding him. Grant was finally forced back into his cell and handcuffed. He is still savage, and vows he will sell his life dearly. He had padded his body with blankets, and the pistol balls did not wound him. Haines is in a critical condition.

Fatal Stabbing Affray.

DOVER, N. J., Nov. 7.—Two Italians came here to-day from New York and went to the shoe store of Giovanna Barigtti, where one of them claimed Barigtti's housekeeper as his wife, and after a slight altercation stabbed the woman in the neck, causing her death in a few minutes thereafter. Barigtti attempted to rescue her, and was also stabbed in the abdomen in two places, and will probably die. Both men were arrested.

TOO THIN.

The Way Horace Bolaces Himself.

The following characteristic editorial article appeared in the Tribune yesterday:

"CRUMBS OF COMFORT.—There has been no time, until now, within the last twelve years when the Tribune was not supposed to keep, for the benefit of the idle and incapable, a sort of Federal employment agency, established to get places under Government for those who were indisposed to work for their living. Any man who had ever voted the Republican ticket believed that it was his duty and the privilege of the editor of this paper to get him a place in the custom-house. Every red-nosed politician who had chatted at the caucus and fought at the polls looked to the editor of the Tribune to secure his appointment as gauger, or as army chaplain, or as Minister to France. Every campaign orator came upon us after the battle was over for a recommendation as Secretary of the Treasury, or the Sub-treasury of half a dollar. If one of our party had an interest pending at Washington, the editor of the Tribune was telegraphed in frantic haste to come to the capital, to save this bill, crush that one, promote one project or stop another. He was to be 'Everybody's Friend,' with nothing to do but to take care of other folks' business, sign papers, write letters, and ask favors for them, and to get no thanks for it either. Four fifths of these people were sent away without what they wanted, only to become straightway abusive cuculos. It was the worry of life to try to gratify one demand in a dozen for the other fifth.

"The man with two wooden legs congratulated himself that he could never be troubled with cold feet. It is a source of profound satisfaction to us that office-seekers will keep aloof from us, a defeated candidate who has no influence enough at Washington or Albany to get a sweeper appointed under the sergeant-at-arms, or a deputy-sub-assistant temporary clerk into the paste-pot section of the folding room. At last we shall be let alone to mind our own affairs and manage our own newspaper, without being called aside every hour to help lazy people whom we don't know and to spend our strength in efforts that only benefit people who don't deserve assistance. At last we shall keep our office clear of blatherskites and political beggars, and go about our daily work with the satisfaction of knowing that not the most credulous of place-hunters will suspect us of having any credit with the appointing powers. That is one of the results of Tuesday's election for which we own ourselves profoundly grateful."

The Boston correspondent of the Chicago Evening Journal writes: The war against Froude has become decidedly hot and personal, he having taken up the gauntlet of Father Burke. It is hoped that these two distinguished advocates will fight it out alone. Froude seems to have come to this country as a special pleader for England, as against Ireland, and Burke, as the champion of traditional Ireland, has attended plenty lecture engagements to prove that Froude is not here to speak to impartial America, but to appeal to all that is narrow and bigoted and un-American in our population. Mr. Froude, however, seeking no contest, is ready to argue the points at issue, and offers to give an evening to a platform discussion with the eloquent monk. We hope the discussion will not end in a Donnybrook sort of unpleasantness.

NEW YORK.

HOW THE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION STANDS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The latest figures place the Congressional delegation of New York State at twenty-five Republicans, six Democrats and one Liberal Republican. By the election of Scoresby, Republican, to fill a vacancy in the State Senate, it will stand twenty-five Republicans to seven Democrats. The Assembly will stand eighty-five Republicans, thirty-six Democrats, five Liberals and one Apollo Hall.

GRANT'S POPULAR MAJORITY 700,000.

The Times estimates Grant's popular majority at 700,000. It thinks Grant has carried Virginia and Louisiana. Only four States and 49 electoral votes, it says, are sure for Greeley, and this cannot be increased by more than two States and 23 electoral votes additional. The average Republican majority in the State is claimed to be 50,000.

The World estimates Grant's popular majority at 650,000, and gives him 307 electoral votes to 99 for Greeley.

Dix's majority in the State will not vary much from that of Graffi. Kernan is ahead of Greeley in large portions of the State, but he falls some 4,000 behind in Brooklyn, Long Island and Staten Island. Kernan's vote in the Republican wards in this city is less than Greeley's. His vote is also smaller than Greeley's in the German districts, while Dix's is larger than Grant's there. In all the strong Democratic localities Kernan leads Greeley. Kernan carried Utica, his own city, by 234 majority, while Grant's majority was 236.

OSWEGO, Nov. 7.—Oswego county complete Grant 3,118 majority. Dix 2,312 majority.

NEWBURGH, Nov. 7.—Charles St. John is reelected to Congress from the Twelfth district by 300 majority.

Lawrence concedes Havemeyer's election by 5,000 majority.

THE VOTE FOR MAYOR.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The full city vote for mayor, with only two districts missing, is as follows: Lawrence, Democrat, 48,863; O'Brien, Apollo Hall Democrat, 31,433; Havemeyer, Republican, 51,616.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Grant's majority in Onondaga county exceeds 3,000; Duell's majority for Congress is 2,800.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Jefferson county gives Grant 1,747 majority.

TENNESSEE.

THE REPUBLICANS PROBABLY CARRY THE STATE.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 7.—Returns received here from Democratic and Republican headquarters make the Congressional delegations stand as follows: First district, R. R. Butler, Republican; Second, Jas. Thornburg, Republican; Third, Wm. Crutchfield, Republican; Fourth, Jno. M. Bright, Democratic; Fifth, Horace Harrison, Republican; Sixth, — Gibbs, Republican; Seventh, J. D. C. Atkens, Democratic; Eighth, Leonidas C. Houk, Republican; Ninth, Harmon Lewis, Republican. For the State-at-large—Horace Maynard, Republican.

If the subsequent returns make no change, the delegation will stand 8 Republicans to 2 Democrats.

It was not expected that the Republicans would carry, under the apportionment law, more than 9 districts.

The Democrats do not yet give up Whitthorne in the Sixth district, though they concede the election of Maynard.

Returns from middle and east Tennessee show that Brown, Liberal
