The safe of Wescott & Co., on High street, was recovered to-day, and its contents of $150,000 were found uninjured after sixty-two hours' exposure to the intense heat. The locality had been guarded by a detachment of dragoons.

She was headed for the bar opposite, and ran upon it, but her bow swung around, and she floated off and down the river a mile to the Brand wine bar, upon which she now lies. As far as known no lives were lost, her passengers having been carried safely to the bar, and there ashore in a life-boat. One fireman is missing.
