

MALBY HOUSE,
BALTIMORE, M.
C. R. HOGAN, PROPRIETOR

REDUCTION OF FARE.

In consideration of the general decline in cost of all necessities pertaining to Hotel keeping, the price of Board will be reduced on and after January 1st, 1870, to being determined that nothing will be left in the future to make the "MALBY" what it has been in the past—second to none in the city.

$2.50 Per Day,

Sherwood House
AND DINING ROOMS,
ON THE EUROPEAN PLAN,
Corner of Fayette and Harrison streets
(Opposite the Maryland Institute.)
Baltimore, Md.

THE above well known House has recently been opened by C. P. Barnard, formerly of the American Hotel, Washington, D. C., and has capacity to accommodate over a hundred people with lodging and has extensive and nicely furnished rooms for families. Connected with the House also is a ladies' dining room. The strictest order is maintained and accommodations servants always at call. The House is open at all hours. The advantage of a Hotel upon the plan of the Sherwood House is, that the guest can accommodate the price of his living to his own wishes, paying only for what he gets. The Sherwood House has recently been newly furnished and refitted, and, being in a central and business part of the city, offers unusual inducements to travelers. A fair trial is asked, and patronage from St. Mary's county solicited.

C. P. BARNARD,
Agent.

MARYLAND LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY.

THE progress of Life Insurance in the United States proves this great crowning triumph of modern science and philanthropy to be one of the most beneficent of our social economy.

The wisdom of all ages has devised nothing that compares with it. It is so manifestly good, that it is difficult to see how an intelligent man, with proper concern for the comfort and protection of his family, can fail to avail himself of its benefits.

Life Insurance leaves ready money to the estates to advantage. It will prevent a sacrifice of property if a man die in debt, and is subject to no tax during life, nor by the Court expenses after death. It is exempt by law from debt. It is rapidly becoming a rule that all men of just attributes insure.

Our Maryland Company commends itself to the confidence and patronage of our people in all parts of the State. Its directors are men of known integrity and ability, to whom the public may look with confidence for a just and careful supervision of its affairs. It must be clear to every intelligent mind that if we would secure the largest prosperity to our State and people individually, we must build up our institutions and keep our capital at home.

Had five million dollars been sent out of the State annually for insurance been invested at home, it would have had favorably upon our own wealth and commerce. This is emphatically our company—grown up by our best mechanics to afford the opportunity for all to insure without sending the money out of our own State. The affairs of the Company are managed with economy.

Such has been our marked success that we were able after the second year to declare and pay in cash a large dividend as the owner and laborer of companies in the United States. The Company feel greatly encouraged by the patronage and co-operation they have received, and solicit a continuance of the same. The laws of trade, commerce, and respectability interest combine to make the Company for us.

Now, dear sirs, in view of all the advantages of Life Insurance as an investment—the uncertainty of life—the strong claims of wife and children upon husband and father—the uncertainty of business, and all the ordinary forms of investment—is it not the moral duty of every man to put something in a form that will prevent want and distress or trouble on the part of those he loves?

By all means insure, and do it once in the Maryland Company. The officers of the Company are
