THE MARKETS.

COMMERCIAL.

Baltimore Markets.

BALTIMORE, March 8.—Breadstuffs.—Flour.—The market for Flour is dull, but the feeling is steady at the moment, and prices are unchanged. Sales reported on Change amounted to 700 bbls., as follows: 100 Western Super at $4.25; 200 do. Extra at $4.50@5.00 Howard Street Super on private terms; 300 do. Extra at $5.50@6; and 100 do. Family at $6.50.

Wheat.—The market for Wheat is dull and heavy, and the tendency of prices is downward. The receipts to-day were 1,825 bushels, all Southern, and the only lot sold was 800 bushels good white at $2.12. We reduce our figures, and quote choice Southern white and amber at $2.12@2.20, and Western amber at $1.90@2, the latter for very choice.

Corn.—The market for Corn is quiet but is steady for all kinds. The receipts to-day were 12,000 bushels, of which 7,600 bushels were Western, Southern white is in active demand, and we note a sale of 1,000 bushels prime at 60 cents, and for bushels in lots at 59@60 cents for inferior to prime; yellow do. is held at 60 cents, with sale of 400 bushels at that figure, and 62 cents freely bid. The only sale of Western was 600 bushels mixed in Elevator at 58½ cents, and we quote at 58@60 cents.

Oats and Rye.—The market for Oats is dull and there is little doing, and we note sales to-day of 500 bushels Southern at 43@45 cents, and quote Western at 40@45 cents for mixed, and at 45@48 cents for white. No sales of Rye reported, and we quote at 90@95 cents, as to quality.

Provisions.—The market for Provisions is firm and buoyant, with a strong speculative feeling and a fair demand for consumption. Bulk Meats are in light supply and the transactions are limited owing to the extreme views of holders. We note a sale yesterday of 60,000 lbs. clear rib sides, loose, at 5 cents, and we now quote shoulders at 4½ cents; there are no rib sides offering, jobbing lots, packed, we quote 4¾@5 cents for shoulders; 5 cents for rib sides, and 5¼@5½ cents for clear rib sides. Bacon continues in active jobbing demand, and prices have advanced to 7 cents for Shoulders; 8½ cents for clear rib sides, and 9 cents for clear rib sides, and we quote at 10@11 cents. We learn of a sale of 300 pieces extra Western Steam Lard at 8½ cents, at which price it is firmly held. We also note sales of 50 bbls. Mess Pork at $16, and 60 bbls. do. Rump at $13.50 per bbl.

THE WEEKLY NATIONAL REPUBLICAN supports the principles and policy of the great Republican party, and sustains the Administration of President Grant.

It is published on a large sheet, 27x42 inches, and contains but few advertisements. It gives as large an amount of reading matter as any other weekly paper of its price.

It gives especial attention to news emanating from the Executive, Legislative and Judicial Departments of the Government, and, during the sessions of Congress, has full reports of its proceedings.

Washington is the political centre of the country and every measure affecting the general interests of the people has its origin in the Legislative and Executive Councils of the nation. The journal published at the Capital in support of the Administration has the advantage of gaining a full knowledge of every movement that may be contemplated. The REPUBLICAN has illimical facilities for obtaining the earliest and most reliable news, both of a general and political character, and is recognized as the best exponent of affairs at the Capital.

The miscellaneous department will receive special attention, and in all respects efforts will be made to establish the character of the paper as a first class family journal.
