Baltimore Markets.

BALTIMORE, April 7.—BREADSTUFFS.—Flour.—The sales reported to-day amounted to 800 bbls, as follows: 50 Western super at $5.50; 100 do. Extra at $7.25; 300 do. Family at $8 [illegible]; 50 do. do. at $9.75, and 300 Howard Street Extra at $7.50.

Wheat.—The sales to-day embrace 20 bushels prime Western white and 1,400 bushels do. red at $1.30; and 1,100 bushels prime Maryland and Pennsylvania red at $1.30@1.40.

Corn.—The sales were 2,000 bushels mixed Southern at [illegible] cents, and 5,000 do. yellow at [illegible] cents. In Western the sales were 1,000 bushels of White, 500 bushels of Yellow, and 1,500 bushels inferior mixed on track at [illegible] cents. Mixed in elevator is quiet and firm at [illegible] cents.

Oats.—The sales to-day were 700 bushels mixed Western at [illegible] cents, and 500 bushels Southern in small lots at [illegible] cents.

Provisions.—We make the market quiet and steady at [illegible] to [illegible].

Coffee.—There was some movement in Coffee on Saturday, and we note sales of about 150 bags to runners on private terms, but to-day there are no transactions reported, and the market is quiet, although some what steadier. The grades below good ordinary are protected and entirely nominal, but we quote good ordinary 17 cents, low middling at 17½ cents, and middling at 18 cents, gold, for Rio, and 19 cents, gold, for Laguayra. Advices from Rio report a good demand for Coffee, and their Coffee bills cent higher. The receipts to-day at all ports in the United States were 4,000 bags, against 5,000 same date last week, and 14,000 bags the corresponding week in 1872, and 8,000 bags in 1871. Stock at all ports 845,000 bags.

Provisions.—We note the market for Provisions still with a decided tendency to lower prices. Bulk meats have been offered freely within past day or two at 5½ cents for Shoulders and 6½ cents for clear rib sides, but the only sale of which we learn is one lot of clear rib sides, said to be not prime, at 6¾ cents. In clear rib bellies, we quote prices nominal at 6¾@7 cents for shoulders, and at 8@8¼ cents for clear rib sides. The demand for Bacon is fair, and we quote shoulders at 7@7½, cents, rib sides at 9@9½ cents, and clear rib do. at 9¾@10 cents, and we quote Hams at 13@14 cents. There are no transactions in Lard of More York, and quote the former at 9¾ cents per pound for prime Western steam, and the latter at 9¾@9¾ cents.

Sugars.—We continue to quote prices as follows: Cuba and Porto Rico fair to good refining, 8@8½ cents; English Island do., 8¼@8½ cents; Martinique, do., 8¼ cents; Cuba centrifugal, 9@9½ cents; do. boxes, No. 12, 9 cents; Porto Rico property, 9¼@9½ cents; New Orleans do., 8¼@9 cents; Muscovado, vacuum pan, 9½@10 cents; and Brazil at 8@8½ cents.

Whisky.—We heard of no sales of High Wines to-day, but note the market steady, and quote Western at 90c cents per gallon.

DIED

MAURO.—In St. Louis, on the 30th of March, 1873, CHARLES G. MAURO, formerly of this city, aged forty-five years.

BALLANTINE.—At her home in Bloomington, Indiana, on the evening of the 24 instant, Mrs. R. B. BALLANTINE, wife of Rev. Elisha Ballantine, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of this city. As a earnest Christian, faithful to every trust committed, mother, friend, her well-spent life ripened for the Sacrificed in a joyful entrance into the "rest" which "remaineth for the people of God."

CLOUGHLY.—On Sunday evening, April 6, after a hour and painful illness, which she suffered with Christian resignation and fortitude, KIRSTEN, the beloved wife of Alfred Cloughly, aged twenty-nine years.

Funeral will take place from the First Baptist church, Thirteenth street, between G and H, this (Tuesday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

VANWYCK.—On the 6th instant, Mrs. RACHEL VANWYCK, in the fifteen year of her age.

Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend her funeral, from the residence of her father, Sarah Dickson, No. 75 North Capitol street, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Interment at Glenwood cemetery.

WILLIAMSON.—April 6, at 3:15 a. m., MARY A. WILLIAMSON, wife of Samuel Williamson, in the sixty-fifth year of her age. "One of us yet not with us."

Funeral Tuesday afternoon, 8th inst., at 3 o'clock, from her late residence, No. 908 street southeast. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend. [illegible]

Baltimore Lock Hospital.

DR. JOHNSTON,
Graduate of this celebrated Institution, discovered a remedy in the Great Hospitals of Europe, his native France and elsewhere, the most certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy in the world for all

EXCESSES OR ABUSES OF THE SYSTEM, weakness of the Back or Limbs, Stricture, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Seminal Emissions, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Diseases of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels—these are some of the evils arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of the Sirens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blasting the most brilliant hopes or anticipation, rendering marriage, &c., impossible—destroying both Body and Mind.

YOUNG MEN

especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that fearful and destructive habit which annually swepts to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have blazoned in the Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

Those suffering from the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Pain in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspeptic Symptoms, Nervous Irritability, Premature Decay, Confusion of Ideas, Defective Memory, Pimples on the Face, Diseases of the Skin, Loss of Sexual Vigor, Impotency, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MALES.

Are subject to the fearful effects on the mind or spirit to the extent of Aversion to Society, Timidness, Shyness, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Business, Self-distrust, Loss of Self-esteem, Timidity, &c., all of which unfit the individual for the duties of life.

MARRIAGE

Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, Loss of Procreative Powers, (Impotency,) Nervous Excitability, Fainting Spells, Dizziness, Wakefulness, Nervous Debility, or any other disease resulting from the Secret Habit, INDICTMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this establishment within the last twenty years, and the numerous important surgical operations performed by Dr. Johnston, witnessed by the representatives of the Press and others, are a sufficient guarantee, which he now appeals again and again before the public, begging the afflicted as a matter of honor and responsibility to a sufficient trial of the skill of the Doctor.

PROPOSALS FOR CLOTHING.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
BUREAU OF PROVISIONS AND CLOTHING,
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28, 1873.

Sealed proposals, indorsed "Proposals for Clothing," will be received at this Bureau until 12 o'clock m. of WEDNESDAY, the 16th day of April, for the manufacture of Blankets to be delivered at the Brooklyn and Mare Island navy yards within one year from the date of contract, and to pass the usual navy inspection.

Four thousand pairs of the blankets to be delivered at the Brooklyn navy yard, and the remaining one thousand pairs to be delivered at the navy yard, Mare Island, California.

The blankets to be of wool, and to be equal to the standard Navy sample, and must weigh six and one half pounds per pair, and each blanket must measure seven feet six inches in length, and five feet six inches in breadth, and every three hundred and twenty-five pounds, and no pair shall weigh less than six pounds and five ounces, to be composed of clean wool, and each blanket must be marked "United States Navy," as in the sample.

Samples of the Navy standard blankets can be seen at the various navy yards and at this Bureau.

Bonds, with approved security, will be required in one thousand dollars for every ten thousand dollars, and twenty per cent. in addition will be withheld from the amount of each payment as collateral security, to be held as a guarantee of the faithful performance of the contract, which will be paid upon the contract being fully complied with.

Proposals must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible parties, that the bidder or bidders will, if the contract be awarded to him or them, furnish the blankets, duly manufactured and delivered ready for use, and in all other respects to fulfill the contract.

All articles not in accordance with the specifications will be considered unless accompanied by a sample, or a specification of the manufacture of the article offered, and unless the samples shall be in conformity with the second section of the joint resolution, approved March 3, 1869.

The Navy Department reserves the right to reject any proposal for the reasonableness of the guarantee is called for by the Secretary of the Treasury, or if the bidder be not a manufacturer of the article bid for, or if any proposal not considered advantageous to the Government will be rejected.

PROPOSALS FOR LIVE OAK.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
BUREAU OF CONSTRUCTION AND REPAIR,
WASHINGTON, March 28, 1873.

Sealed proposals for the delivery of Live oak timber, of the best quality, at either the Navy yards, or at the place of the last, in such parts, or of such dimensions, as may be required at either of the navy yards, at the expense of the Government, the weight to be determined by the Navy Yard scales at the place of delivery.

The above articles are required to be delivered at the navy yards at the place of delivery, immediately, and to be of the best quality, material in character, selected from from dirt, knots and all other defects, and subject to inspection by the inspector appointed for the purpose, who will have the right to reject any unsuitable timber.

Bids will only be received from bona fide miners of or dealers in oak. The right is reserved to reject any bid that may not be deemed advantageous to the Government.

No bids will be considered from persons who have failed to comply with the requirements of a former contract.

No contract, or part thereof, will be permitted to be transferred to other parties without the written consent of the Secretary of the Interior.

Payment will be made for the goods purchased on the presentation of duplicate bills rendered at this office after they shall have been properly approved.

No proposal will be considered that does not strictly comply with the following form:

"I (or we) propose to furnish the Indian Department, according to the terms of this advertisement of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, dated March 20, 1873, the following articles at the prices thereto affixed. Here insert the list of articles proposed to be furnished, and the place or places at which they are to be delivered (the proposed place of delivery) by the contract date. Also, state if proposal is accompanied (or not) with a guarantee, and if not, state if will execute a contract accordingly, and give security to the satisfaction of the Indian Affairs for the faithful performance of the contract."

Each proposal must be accompanied by a guaranty in the following form, to be signed by two responsible persons, who shall be described as follows: "We hereby jointly and severally guarantee that the above bidder is in the business of a trader, and is qualified to bid for the articles specified in the foregoing proposal, and that if the said bidder shall be awarded a contract for the articles specified in the above proposal, we will become bound for the faithful performance of the same, as prescribed in the advertisement of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, dated March 20, 1873, or we will pay the United States, in the event of his (or their) failure to do so, the difference between the amount of our bond, and the amount for which the said contract may be lawfully sold to other persons, and for all costs and damages incurred by the failure of the said bidder to execute a contract."

Bids for any of the articles specified in the above advertisement, with blank forms of proposals, describing the quality of the articles required, and the place at which they are to be delivered, can be obtained on application at this office, and bids must be made upon these forms, or in conformity therewith, will not be considered.

Proposals to be addressed to the undersigned, or to any of the Acting Assistant Quartermasters at said posts, and marked "Proposals for ——."

WILLIAM R. HUGHES,
Chief Quartermaster.

The above are the estimated quantities to be transported, the Government reserving to itself the right to increase or diminish the same during the existence of the contract, or to use its own transportation.

The price per pound will be stated both in Legal tenders and Coin, and must be accompanied by a guarantee, signed by two persons, the responsibility of whom must be officially certified to by an officer of the United States civil or military service, that in case the bid is accepted the bidder will at once execute a contract with bonds, with sureties, in the penal sum of one-third of the amount of the contract for the faithful performance.

The post office address of the bidder will be given; also, the name of each member.

The whole or any portion of the supplies may be bid for, but no average bids, or those from irresponsible persons will be considered. The Government reserves to itself the right to reject any or all bids.

The final award for any Fuel will not be made until the bids made at the Post have been received and compared with the bids received at this office.

Separate proposals will be made for each Post, and each proposal must be contained in a separate sealed envelope and plainly indorsed "Proposals for furnishing supplies at ——," and addressed to the undersigned.
