PROSPECTUS OF THE BALTIMORE EVENING JOURNAL

Solicited and encouraged by many influential citizens of Baltimore to undertake the enterprise of a Daily Evening Journal in this city, a great public necessity at this time, we have determined after a careful survey of the field, to establish an UNADULTERATED DEMOCRATIC PAPER, which, while it clings to the great principles of American liberty, as enunciated by the Washingtons and Jeffersons of the past, will, nevertheless, courteously entertain due respect for the opinions of those who differ from us.

Our chief object will be to restore fraternal constitutional union between the North and the South. We shall strike unparalelled military despotism, oppressive taxation, and official dishonesty in all quarters. We will be independent of all cliques, and publish a paper for the people, who can rely upon the firm advocacy of the right, and fearless exposure of the wrong. In a word, our motto shall be: "The people's advantage is the guiding rule for deciding all questions of State." We shall advocate a rapid immigration here of the European races, and uphold the equal rights of all citizens, native or adopted. We will oppose with all our strength, any attempt to array one class of religious against another, regarding such action as dangerous, fanatical, un-republican and un-democratic.

The Baltimore Evening Journal will be issued on Monday, September 4th, 1871, at No. 132 West Baltimore Street. There will be three editions daily at 11, 3, and 5 o'clock, P. M. Either edition of the Evening Journal will be served to subscribers living in the city for 12 cents per week, payable bi-weekly to the carriers. Persons wishing to subscribe, by leaving their name at the office will receive prompt attention.

Sherwood House

AND DINING ROOMS, ON THE EUROPEAN PLAN.

Corner of Fayette and Harrison streets (opposite the Maryland Institute.) Baltimore, Md.

THE above well known House has recently been opened by C. P. Barnard, formerly of the American Hotel, Washington, D. C., and has capacity to accommodate over a hundred people with lodging, and has spacious and nicely furnished rooms for families. Connected with the House also is a ladies' dining room. The strictest order is maintained and accommodating servants always at call. The House is open at all hours. The advantage of a Hotel upon the plan of the Sherwood House is, that the guest can accommodate the price of his living to his own wishes, paying only for what he gets. The Sherwood House has recently been newly furnished and refitted, and, being in a central and business part of the city, offers unusual inducements to travellers. A fair trial is asked, and patronage from St. Mary's county solicited. C. P. BARNARD, Agent.
