SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.—NO. 22, DECEMBER TERM, 1872.

Susan L. Wallach, Executrix of Charles S. Wallach, deceased, vs. William Hunter, Executor of Douglass Wallach.—Appeal from the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.

The counsel for the appellant having suggested the death of William Hunter, one of the appellees in this cause, moved the Court for an order, under the fifteenth rule of Court, for the appellant's proper representative's action. On consideration whereof it is now here ordered by this Court, that unless the proper representative of the said William Hunter, deceased, shall voluntarily become parties within the first ten days of the next term of this Court, the appellant shall be entitled to open the record in said cause, and to have the same heard, and the decree therein rendered, upon the merits of the appeal. Provided that a copy of this order shall be printed in some newspaper of the seat of Government, in which the laws of the United States shall be published, at least four successive weeks at least sixty days before the beginning of the next term of the Supreme Court next ensuing.

LIBRARY GIFT CONCERT
A FULL DRAWING CERTAIN
$500,000 in Bank to Pay Gifts.
TEN THOUSAND CASH GIFTS PAID IN FULL
$100,000 for only $10.

ENOUGH of the 100,000 tickets issued for the Tunnel Gas Company Concert, in behalf of the Public Library of Kentucky, having been sold to insure a full draw, the undersigned, with the consent of the concert party, and the wish having been expressed by many that the 100,000 cash gifts offered should be drawn in full and paid in full without any scaling down, as heretofore, the management, with the concurrence of the trustees, have determined to allow ninety days more for the sale of the remnant of tickets left on hand. The concert and distribution of gifts advertised for April 5 is therefore postponed to Tuesday, July 8, 1873, on which day, and no other, will the undersigned positively take place in Public Library Hall, Louisville, Ky.

At this grand concert the following cash gifts will be absolutely paid in full to the ticket-holders who draw them.

LIST OF GIFTS.

9,000 Cash Gifts of	10 each	90,000
Total, 10,000 Gifts, all Cash		$500,000

The money to pay all these gifts in full is now upon deposit in the Farmers' and Drovers' Bank of Louisville, and set aside for that purpose, and can only be used for that purpose, as will be seen by the following certificate of the President:

OFFICE OF FARMERS' AND DROVERS' BANK,
LOUISVILLE, KY., April 5, 1873.

This is to certify that there is in this Farmers' and Drovers' Bank, to the credit of the Third Grand Concert, for the benefit of the Public Library of Kentucky, five hundred thousand dollars, which is to be set apart by the managers to pay the gifts in full, and will be held by the bank and paid out for this purpose, and this purpose only.

R. E. VERDI, Cashier.

The party, therefore, who holds the ticket drawing the capital gift will get $100,000 in greenbacks; the one to of the $50,000 gift, the $25,000, the $20,000, the $10,000, the $5,000 and all the other gifts, $10,000 in aggregate, amounting to $500,000.

The remnant of unsold tickets will be furnished to those who first apply (orders accompanied by the money always having the preference over agents) at the following prices: Whole tickets, $10; halves $5; quarters, $2.50; eighths, $1; while tickets for sale at any responsible place. Whole tickets are offered for cash, $8 for $1,000 and $70 for $9,000. No discount on less than the worth of tickets at a time.

The concert and distribution of gifts will begin at 8 o'clock on Tuesday morning, July 8, in Public Library hall, and the following will be the order of proceedings: 1st, Music by orchestral band; 2d, Blasting of tags (one for each ticket sold) in large wheel; 3d, Playing of gifts in equal wheel; 4th, Music by orchestral band; 5th, Explanatory remarks by President; 6th, Drawing a few hundred gifts; 7th, Music by orchestral band; 8th, Drawing of last of gifts; 9th, Blasting of large wheel with tags in blanks and distribution of gifts; 10th, Grand orchestral concert.

The music on this grand occasion will be the best that can be procured, and the gentlemen who count and place the tags and gift in the wheels and supervise the drawing shall keep the record of the drawn numbers will be those well known and most trustworthy citizens of the State. All will be conducted so as to be a perfect guaranty against complaint from any quarter.

The payment of gifts will begin on Saturday, July 12, at 9 o'clock a. m., at the Public Library building, in a room on the second floor, and will be presented at room No. 1 in the Library building, and the checks upon the Farmers' and Drovers' Bank of Louisville, or Bank of Commerce, or the National Bank of Kentucky, at the option of the holder, will be given for the tickets. All gifts not called for in 6 months from the date of the drawing will be added over to the Public Library fund.

Send for full particulars and circulars.

Bidders will state the kind of Hay or Wood they propose to furnish; also the kind of wood of which the Charcoal offered is made, and is binding for delivery at more than one post will make separate bids for each.

The Hay must be well cured, and of the best quality of prairie grass; the Wood must be cut and packed in such quantities and at such places as may be designated by the proper officer of the Quartermaster's department.

Delivery of the hay to be commenced as soon as the same is cut and properly cured. The cutting to be done in such manner as the Quartermaster's department may direct. Delivery to be completed on or before the 30th of September, 1873.

Two thousand pounds will constitute one ton of hay.

The Wood must be sound, and of good, merchantable quality in every respect, and must be converted into charcoal when the officer of the Q. M.'s Department may demand.

The Charcoal or Bituminous Coal must be of good, merchantable quality in every respect, and must be stored in such quantities and places as the proper officer may direct, free of charge for storage.

Delivery of the wood and coal to be commenced on or before the 1st day of August, 1873, and to be completed in four months, at least one fourth of the entire quantity contracted for to be delivered monthly.

Proposals for furnishing any quantity of the hay, wood or coal less than the whole amount required at the posts named will be entertained.

The right is reserved by the undersigned to reject any and all bids, and also to increase or diminish by one fourth, at any time within thirty days before the expiration of the contract, the quantities contracted for.

Good and sufficient bonds will be required from the contractor for the prompt and faithful fulfillment of the contract.

The usual requirements must be observed in making proposals.

Blank proposals may be had upon application at the office of the Quartermaster's department at either of the posts named, or at this office.

By authority of the District Commander.

FRED MYERS,
Deputy Quartermaster General, U. S. A., Chief Quartermaster.
