THE MARKETS.

Baltimore Markets.

BALTIMORE, June 23.—Breadstuffs.—Flour.—Sales include 1,000 bbls. City Mills Medium Extra at private terms and 400 bbls. Howard County at $8, both for export, and 1,000 bbls to the trade, as follows: Western Extra at $6; 200 do. do., at $6@6.25; 400 do. Family, at $7.50@8; 200 do. City Mills at $8.25@8.50, and 400 do. do. at $8.75@9, and 1,000 do. do. at $9@9.50.

Wheat.—The sales to day amount to 10 bushels good southern red at $1.35; 400 springs do. at $1.40; 400 Pennsylvania red on private terms, and 400 Western winter amber at $1.60. The old crop of Southern is nearly exhausted, and the receipts from that quarter are entirely nominal.

Corn.—The receipts of Corn to-day were about 30,000 bushels, of which 15,000 bushels were Western. The receipts of Southern were more liberal, and the market for white was firm at an advance of 1@2 cents per bushel, but yellow was dull and heavy.

Oats.—The sales reported to-day were 3[illegible] bushels Southern at 51@52 cents; 4,000 Bright Western at 52 cents, and 1,000 mixed do. at 48 cents. We quote Southern at 48@50 cents; bright Western at 52@53 cents and mixed do. at 48@49 cents.

Rye.—We note the market very dull, and quote 95@[illegible] cents for fair to prime.

Corn Meal.—We quote Pennsylvania: Middling at [illegible] cents; low middling, [illegible] cents; strict [illegible] cents; good do. [illegible] cents; good ordinary [illegible] cents.

Provisions.—The market for Pork is still quite heavy, with a declining tendency; [illegible] is dull and sales of round lots reported at [illegible] cents. We hear of no disposition to buy Bulk Meats on the spot, [illegible] cents asked for Rib Sides and [illegible] cents for Shoulders. We quote Bulk Sides at [illegible] cents, and clear do. at [illegible] cents. Bacon [illegible] cents, and clear do. at [illegible] cents. Hams are in good request, and we still quote at [illegible] cents for sugar-cured, and [illegible] cents for plain to fancy sugar-cured at 14@16 cents. Lard is very dull and lower, and we quote refined at [illegible] cents for prime Western steam, and we hear of sales at [illegible] per lb.

Whiskey.—We quote prices as follows: Ohio, and Pure Rye, [illegible]; Ohio and Pure Rye, [illegible]; Ohio and Pure Rye, [illegible]; Pure Rye, [illegible]; Pure Rye, [illegible];
