WAR DEPARTMENT,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, August 22, 1873.

General Court Martial, Orders No. 22.

I. Before a Military Commission which convened at Fort Klamath, Oregon, July 1, 1873, pursuant to Special Field Orders No. 1, dated June 30, 1873, Headquarters Department of the Columbia, in the Field, Fort Klamath, Oregon, and of which Lieutenant Colonel W. L. Elliott, 1st Cavalry, is president, were arraigned and tried—

Captain Jack, Schonchin, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barncho, alias One Eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, Modoc Indian captives.

Charge I.—"Assault with intent to kill, in violation of the laws of war."

Specification 1st.—"In this: that they, Indians called and commonly known as Captain Jack, Schonchis, Boston Charley, Black Jim, Barncho, alias One Eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, members of a certain band of Indians known as the Modocs, which band, including the prisoners above named, was, at the time and place hereinafter alleged, engaged in open and flagrant war with the United States, under the chief command of said Captain Jack, did, as representatives of said Modoc band, meet, under a flag of truce and suspension of hostilities, Brigadier General E. R. S. Canby, U. S. Army, commanding the Department of the Columbia, and certain Peace Commissioners on the part of the United States, namely, Eleazar Thomas, A. B. Meacham, and L. S. Dyer, citizens of the United States, all representing the Government of the United States, for the agreed and professed purpose of discussing and arranging terms upon which hostilities existing between the United States and said band should cease; and did thereupon, in wanton violation of the sacred character of said flag of truce, and treacherously disregarding the obligations imposed by said truce under the laws of war, wilfully, feloniously, and of malice aforethought, kill and murder said Brigadier General Canby. All this at or near the Lava Beds, so-called, situated near Tule lake, in the state of California, on or about the 11th day of April, 1873."

Specification 2d—"In this: that they, Indians called and commonly known as Captain Jack, Schonchis, Boston Charley, Black Jim, Barncho, alias One Eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, members of a certain band of Indians known as the Modocs, which band, including the prisoners above named, was, at the time and place hereinafter alleged, engaged in open and flagrant war with the United States, under the chief command of said Captain Jack, did, as representatives of said Modoc band, meet, under a flag of truce and suspension of hostilities, Brigadier General E. R. S. Canby, U. S. Army, commanding the Government of the United States, for the agreed and professed purpose of discussing and arranging terms upon which hostilities existing between the United States and said band should cease; and did then and there, in wanton violation of the said flag of truce, and treacherously disregarding the obligations imposed by such truce under the laws of war, wilfully, feloniously, and of their malice aforethought, kill and murder said Eleazar Thomas, one of the Peace Commissioners aforesaid. All this at or near the Lava Beds, so-called, situated near Tule Lake, in the State of California, on or about the 11th day April, 1873."

Charge II.—"Assault with intent to kill, in violation of the laws of war."

Specification 1st.—"In this: that they, Indians called and commonly known as Captain Jack, Schonchis, Boston Charley, Black Jim, Barncho, alias One Eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, members of a certain band of Indians known as the Modocs, which band, including the prisoners above named, was, at the time and place hereinafter alleged, engaged in open and flagrant war with the United States, under the chief command of said Captain Jack, did, as representatives of said Modoc band, meet, under a flag of truce and suspension of hostilities, Brigadier General E. B. Meacham, commissioner as aforesaid, with an intent him, the said Meacham, then and there, feloniously, wilfully, and of malice aforethought, to kill and murder, and did inflict upon the body of the said Meacham divers severe and dangerous wounds. All this at or near the Lava Beds, so-called, situated near Tule Lake, in the State of California, on or about the 11th day of April, 1873."

Charge III.—"Assault with intent to kill, in violation of the laws of war."

Specification 1st.—"In this: that they, Indians called and commonly known as Captain Jack, Schonchis, Boston Charley, Black Jim, Barncho, alias One Eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, members of a certain band of Indians known as the Modocs, which band, including the prisoners above named, was, at the time and place hereinafter alleged, engaged in open and flagrant war with the United States, under the chief command of said Captain Jack, did, as representatives of said Modoc band, meet, under a flag of truce and suspension of hostilities, Brigadier General E. All this at or near the Lava Beds, so-called, situated near Tule Lake, in the State of California, on or about the 11th day of April, 1873."

To which charges and specifications the accused, Captain Jack, Schonchis, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barncho, alias One Eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, Modoc Indian captives, pleaded "Not Guilty."

FINDING.

The Commission, having maturely considered the evidence adduced, find the accused, Captain Jack, Schonchis, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barncho, alias One Eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, Modoc Indian captives, as follows:

CHARGE I.

Of the 1st Specification, "Guilty."
Of the 2d Specification, "Guilty."
Of the charge, "Guilty."

CHARGE II.

Of the 1st Specification, "Guilty."
Of the 2d Specification, "Guilty."
Of the Charge, "Guilty."

SENTENCE.

And the Commission does therefore sentence them, Captain Jack, Schonchis, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barncho alias One Eyed Jim, and Sloluck alias Cok, Modoc Indian captives, "To be hanged by the neck until they be dead, at such time and place as the proper authority shall direct—two thirds of the members of the Commission concurring therein."

II. The proceedings, finding and sentences of the Military Commission in the cases of Captain Jack, Schonchis, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barncho alias One Eyed Jim, and Sloluck alias Cok, Modoc Indian captives, were approved by the Commanding Officer of the Department of the Columbia and forwarded to the Secretary of War for the action of the President of the United States.

The following are the orders of the President and of the Secretary of War:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, August 23, 1873.

The foregoing sentences in the cases of Captain Jack, Schonchis, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barncho, alias One Eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, Modoc Indian prisoners, are hereby approved; and it is ordered that the sentences in the said cases be carried into execution by the proper military authority, under the orders of the Secretary of War, on the third day of October, eighteen hundred and seventy-three.

U. S. GRANT, President.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, August 24, 1873.

The foregoing record of the proceedings in the trial, by military commission, of Captain Jack, Schonchis, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barncho, alias One Eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, Modoc Indian prisoners, having been transmitted to the President, and laid before him for his orders thereon; and the President having in the foregoing orders approved the sentences, and directed that they be executed under the orders of the Secretary of War, the sentences will be duly executed under the direction of the general commanding the Department of Columbia, at Fort Klamath, Oregon, Friday, October 3, 1873.

WM. W. BELKNAP, Secretary of War.

By order of the Secretary of War:
E. D. TOWNSEND, Adjutant General.

THE MARKETS.

Baltimore Markets.

BALTIMORE, August 23.—Breadstuffs.—Flour.—The sales reported on Change to-day amount to 1,000 bbls. of Western, as follows: 200 bbls. Extra at $4 50; 500 do. family at $5 12½; 300 do. do., to arrive, at $5 75, and 200 do. do. at $5 75@5 25.

Wheat.—The offerings of Wheat to-day amounted to 4,000 bushels, which were sold as follows: 200 bushels fair white at $1.40; 1,000 do. amber at $1.40; 1,800 do. amber prime red at $1.40@1.42; and 2,000 do. inferior to fair red at $1.30@1.36. The market for Western is dull. The only sale to-day was one hundred red at $1 35, and we quote inferior to prime at $1.40@1.45.

Corn.—The receipts of Southern white are light, and we note sales only of 500 bushels at 70@72 cents. Western mixed, in Elevator, is held firmly at 56@58 cents, and we learn of sales of 2,400 bushels No. 2 white at 58 cents; 1,000 do. No. 2 mixed, at 56 cents, and 20,000 to 30,000 do. rejected at 55@56 cents.

Oats.—Are in light supply, and the market is firm, with a good demand. We note sales to-day of 1,400 bushels mixed Western at 44@45 cents, and 1,000 do. Southern, in lots, at 47@48 cents.

Rye.—The receipts are light, and prices are more liberal, but we note a good demand and the market is steady. We learn of sales to-day of 1,600 bushels ranging from fair to prime at 83@86 cents.

Cotton.—There was considerable movement in Cotton at New York yesterday, and prices of both futures and spots showed some improvement, but our market continues dull, and the only sale reported was lot of 15 bales at 15 cents for strict ordinary. The receipts at all ports last week were 19,637 bales, against 11,228 bales the week previous and 3,256 bales the same week last year. Stock at all ports, 206,000 bales.

Provisions.—There is a fair jobbing demand for Cut Meats at unchanged prices, but the market is generally quiet. We quote: Shoulders Meats in round lots nominal at 8 cents for Shoulders and 10 cents for clear rib Sides, and jobbing lots packed at 8¼ cents for Shoulders and 10¼ cents for Sides. Bacon is steady at 9 cents for Shoulders, 11¾@12 cents for Sides and 14@14¼ cents for Hams. There is a fair inquiry for Lard, and we learn of no movement, and quote prime Western steam at 9 15-16 cents, and refined at 9¾@9¾ cents. Mess Pork is steady at $16@16 25 per bbl.

Sugars.—We quote prices to-day as follows, viz: Fair to good refining Cuba and Porto Rico, 8 3-16 cents; fair to good refining Java English Island, 8¼@8½ cents; Cuba Centrifugal, 8¾@8¾ cents; do. boxes No. 10, 8¾ cents; Porto Rico grocery, 8¾@9 cents, and Demerara grocery, 9 cents, and 9¼@9½ cents. The stock here is 15,804 hhds., 7,781 tierces and 9,700 bags.

Whisky.—The supply of Rich Wines is very light, and the market is firm. We learn of no sales, and note both city and Western nominal at 91 cents per gallon.

DIED.

FRAZIER.—On the 23d instant, HARRY ELMER, infant son of Theodore and Hellor Frazier, aged twelve months.

O'CONNOR.—At San Bernardino, California, of consumption, on the 11th of August, ROBERT O'CONNOR, of this city, in the thirty-seventh year of his age.

He leaves a wife and three children and a large number of friends to mourn their loss.

SIMONDS.—On the 21st instant, after a lingering illness, JOHN SIMONDS, aged sixty-two years, four months and twenty-one days.

WINTER.—August 22, at 5 o'clock, p. m., HENRY SY. CLARK, son of Martha A. Winter and of the late William H. Winter.

YENAGA.—On Friday, August 22, at 11:40 o'clock, p. m., EMMA MARIE, infant daughter of J. M. and Martina Yenaga, aged twenty-three days.

HOGEVEN.—On August 22, at 11:40 o'clock, p. m., WILLIAM BARTS, infant son of Samuel R. and Kate Hoover, aged fourteen months.

The relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend his funeral from the residence of his parents, No. 1467 Fifth street northwest, on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

DYEING AND SCOURING.

THE FALL RUSH IS COMING.
The present long, warm days is the best time for our work. So, ladies and gents, bring in your Fall and Winter Goods at once; thus, by avoiding the unavoidable delay in the execution of orders during such a rush of business as we expect to have this fall, your goods will be nicely cleaned or re-dyed, and carefully kept for six months, if desired.
Charges moderate. Terms invariably C. O. D.
