THE MARKETS.

Baltimore Markets.

BALTIMORE, September 16.—Breadstuffs.—Flour.—The sales on Change amounted to 1,500 bbls., as follows: 300 Western Super at $4@4.25; 300 do. Extras at $4.50@5; 700 do. Howard Street do. at $7.12½, and 100 Western Family at $8.25.

Wheat.—The receipts amounted to about 30,000 bushels, of which 13,000 bushels were Southern. The sales embraced 400 bushels good to prime southern white at 1.25@1.27 cents; 2,000 do. amber at [illegible] cents; 6,000 do. good to prime red at 1.30@1.32 cents; 1,500 do. inferior to fair at 1.20@1.25 cents; 800 do. prime Pennsylvania red at 1.28 cents, and 4,800 do. Western do. at 1.30@1.32 cents.

Corn.—We note some movement in Western Corn to-day, and sales are reported of 45,000 bushels received in Elevator at city cents; 10,000 do. for October delivery at 61 cents; 400 do. yellow on track at 62 cents; 1,000 do. released at 62 cents, and 1,000 do. do. at 55@60 cents. The market closes steady at these figures. Southern white is in active demand, and prices are much higher, the sales to-day being 1,000 bushels at 76 cents.

Oats.—Sales to-day were 2,000 bushels Southern at about 45 cents, bulk at 43@44 cents; 1,000 do. mixed Western at 42@44 cents, and 1,000 do. bright do. at 45 cents.

Rye.—The offerings amounted to about 17,00 bushels, of which 500 bushels sold at 85@88 cents for fair to prime. Prices are shaded in buyers' favor. Corn meal we quote as follows: Brandywine nominal at 3.[illegible]; city, low middling, 1[illegible]@1[illegible] cents, good ordinary at 1[illegible]@1[illegible] cents, and city meal at 1[illegible] cents.

Provisions.—The market for Cut Meats is dull and heavy, and prices are a fraction lower all round. We hear of sales of 40,000 lbs. prime Cincinnati Bulk Shoulders at 4½ cents, and we now quote Shoulders at 4½@4¾ cents, and sides at 6½@6¾ cts. [illegible] are more than nominal at these figures. Bacon shoulders are easier, and are jobbing at 5@5½ cents, but clear rib sides are scarce, and we still quote at 6½ cents. Hams are in better request, and we quote steady at 10@11 cents. Lard continues dull, and we still quote prime Western steam at 8½@8¾ cents, kettle at 9 cents, and refined tierces in demand at 9@9½ cents.

Whisky.—The market for High Wines is quiet and rather heavy. No sales are reported, and we quote nominal at 89@91 cents for western and city.

MARRIED.

WILLIAMS—STOKE.—On the 16th instant, at the residence of Hon. J. C. Harkness by the Rev. F. A. Overland, John Benjamin H. Williams, of Cambridge, Dakota Territory, and Miss Hattie G. Stoke, of Washington, D. C.

(Lancaster (Pa.) and Mankato (Minn.) papers please copy.)

DIED.

COLLINSWORTH.—In this city, September 16, 1873, of consumption, LAURA COLLINSWORTH, aged twenty-one years.

The funeral will take place on Thursday, the 18th instant, at 4 o'clock p. m., from its P street south residence. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Dead, and life's dream is o'er;
Dead, and the fair form's no more;
Dead, yet her spirit doth soar;
Dead, immortality is ever more.

VERMILLION.—On the morning of the 14th inst., at 7 o'clock, AWIE M., beloved wife of James Vermillion, in the forty-first year of her age.

Relatives and friends of the family, the sisters of school of the Methodist Protestant church and the school of the M. E. church are invited to attend the funeral from the M. E. church, Georgetown, on Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Carriages at residence, 59 alley of Third and I streets southeast.

She has gone from earth to live with God,
In our Redeemer's breast,
Trusting that bless without a cloud
With all who are fully blest.
Methinks I see that twelfth month,
Upon the blessed sabbath day,
Struggling amid the storm and storm,
To lead the children in God's holy way.
The pain and care of life is over,
And her spirit now set free;
She will sigh and toil on earth no more,
But now her Saviour always see.

WARD.—At his residence, No. 1251 F street north west, on Sunday, afternoon, 16th instant, JOHN HAVERLY, in the 75th year of his age. The funeral will take place on the 18th day of September, 1873, at 3 o'clock, without further notice.
