THE MARKETS.

Baltimore Markets.

BALTIMORE, September 24.—Breadstuffs—Flour.—The market for flour rules dull, and the business is confined almost entirely to small quantities for present need. We were led into an error in stating yesterday that a cargo of City Mills Extra had been sold, and understand the Flour purchased was about 1,000 bbls. country brands at a private price.

Wheat.—The market for Wheat is dull and prices have still a downward tendency. The receipts for Southern to-day were about 8,000 bushels, and the sales embraced 800 bushels choice white at 175 cents, 1,000 do. amber at 170 cents, 3,000 do. prime red at 165 cents, and 2,500 do. common to good white and red at 160@165 cents. Western is in good receipt, but receivers are storing, rather than accept present figures. The sales to day were on bushels spring red at 161¼ cents, and 400 do. winter amber at 165 cents.

Corn.—There is little doing in Corn, and we report the market almost entirely nominal. The only sales to-day were 400 bushels Western white at 66 cents, and 600 do. Southern yellow at 62 cents. We quote Southern white at 70@75 cents, but there are no offers to be given for Western mixed in elevator.

Oats.—Are very quiet to-day, but the market is steady. The sales reported were 2,000 bushels Southern at 46@47 cents, and we quote mixed Western at 46@48 cents, and bright do. at 49@50 cents.

Rye.—There were no receipts to-day, and no sales are reported. We quote market steady at 93@95 cents for fair to prime.

Cotton.—To-day the market is decidedly weaker, and no business is reported. We quote middling at 18@18¼ cents; low middling, 17@17½ cents; good ordinary, 16@16½ cents, and ordinary at 14@15 cents.

Provisions.—The derangement of financial affairs throughout the country has exerted a depressing influence on Provisions, in common with other branches of trade, and we note the market here dull and heavy. We learn of no transactions in bulk meats in round lots loose; Shoulders 6½@6¾, and 8¾ cents for clear rib sides; nominal. Bacon is rather easier in price, and quote jobbing lots at 8@8½ cents for shoulders, and 9¾ cents for clear rib sides. Hams are steady at 14@16 cents for plain and fancy sugar cured. Lard is held at 8½ cents for prime Western steam, but we learn of no sales. Refined moves tardily, and we quote at 8¾@9 cents. We quote Pork at $17.50@17.50 for old, and $17.50@17.75 for new, the outside figure for jobbing lots.

Sugars.—We learn of no transactions in raw Sugar to-day, and note market as quiet and steady. As in other articles, the disturbed condition of finance affairs restricts trade. We quote prices as follows: Cuba and Porto Rico fair to good refining, 9@9½ cents, English Island do. 9¾@9 cts; Cuba Centrifugal, 9½@9¾ cents; Demerara No. 3 brown, 9½ cents; Porto Rico grocery grades, 9 cts, and Demerara vacuum pan 9½@10½ cents. The stock here is 19,320 hhds., 6,420 tcrces and 4,708 bbls. against 14,617 hhds., 6,798 tcrces and 12,040 bbls same time last year.

Whisky.—The supply of High Wines is light, and the market has a firmer tone. We quote Western at 88 cents, with moderate sales at that figure.
