THE MARKETS.

Baltimore Markets.

BALTIMORE, September 25.—Breadstuffs.—Flour.—The market for flour continues very dull and prices to-day are generally lower except for high grades Family and Extras. The only sales reported were 100 bbls. Western Super at $5 and 100 do. Family at $5.25.

Wheat.—The business in Wheat to day was rendered very dull by the scarcity of money and the unsettled condition of financial affairs generally. The receipts amounted to 19,000 bushels, of which about 15,000 bushels were Southern. The sales embrace 7,000 bushels Southern amber at $1.[illegible] closing at inside figures; 5,000 do. good to prime red at $1.[illegible]; 1,500 do. common to fair do. at $1.[illegible]; and 1,500 do Southern white at $1.[illegible] for common to good, and $1.[illegible] for prime to choice.

Corn.—The market is demoralized, owing to the difficulty of placing Exchange and attending remittances from the south. The sales were only 700 bushels Southern white at 70 cents.

Oats.—The market is steady, with a good demand on the spot. Sales to-day 1,000 bushels Southern at [illegible] cents, 2,000 do. mixed Western at [illegible] cents, and 800 do. prime do. at [illegible] cents.

Rye—Is dull to-day, and we learn of no business. We quote good to prime at [illegible] cents.

Provisions.—The business in Provisions, as in other branches of trade, is nearly brought to a stand by the derangement of financial affairs, and there is as little disposition to buy as there is to sell as to buy. The stock of Cut Meats here is comparatively light. We quote Bulk Shoulders loose at [illegible], and clear Rib Sides at [illegible] cents, and Bacon in jobbing lots at [illegible] cents for Shoulders, and [illegible] cents for clear Rib Sides, all brewers' nominal at present. Hams we quote at 14@16 cts. Lard is still quoted at [illegible] cents for prime Western steam, but there is no business, and Mess Pork is dull at $17.50@17.75 per bbl. for new.

Sugars.—We note a sale yesterday of 19 hhds. Porto Rico for grocery purposes at [illegible] cents, but business is generally at a stand-still on account of the derangement in the financial world. Prices are shaded in buyers' favor, and we quote as follows, viz: Cuba and Porto Rico fair to good refining, 7@8[illegible] cents, English Island do. 7[illegible]@8 cts.; Cuba Centrifugal, [illegible] cents; Porto Rico, [illegible] cents; Porto Rico grocery qualities, [illegible] cents, and Demerara vacuum pan [illegible] cents. The stock here is 15,869 hhds., 6,[illegible] barrels and 8,[illegible] boxes, against 13,577 hhds., 9,[illegible] barrels and 8,[illegible] boxes same time last year.

Whisky.—The market for Rich Wines is firm, with a tight supply. We learn of no sales, but quote bond at 86 cents per gallon.

BALTIMORE LIVE STOCK MARKET.

THURSDAY, Sept. 25.—Cattle.—Receipts about 3,000 head; market only moderately active; prices ½ to ¼ cents lower; 3 to 6 cents.

Hogs.—Receipts short of the demand; quotations ¼ cent higher; prospects uncertain; quotations 6½ to 7¼ cents.

Sheep.—Fair supply and dull; prices unchanged; quotations 4 to 6½ cents.

MARRIED.

GUNNELL—SMALLWOOD.—On the 23d instant, by the Rev. Dr. Smith, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church, Mr. HENRY D. GUNNELL and Mrs. MARY E. SMALLWOOD, both of this city.

KUHN—STONE.—On Thursday evening, 25th instant, at the residence of the bride's parents, J. Morrison, esq., by the Rev. D. A. Kuhn, Mr. J. A. Kuhn, of Nevada, Ohio, brother of the officiating clergyman, and Miss HANNAH W. STONE, of Washington, D. C.

LANDERS—STONE.—At the same time and place, by the same clergyman, Dr. THOMAS LANDERS, United States army, and Miss HATTIE A. STONE, of Washington, D. C.

DIED.

FLETCHER.—On the evening of the 5th instant, of pneumonemia, MRS. MARY FLETCHER, in the fifty-ninth year of her age.

Funeral will take place from her late residence, No. 79 Market street, between Third and Fourth, Decatur-ave, this afternoon, at 2.30 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

NORTON.—In Richmond, on Saturday, 20th instant, J. HARTLEY NORTON, of Rokeby, King George county, Va., in the forty-first year of his age.

JONES.—On the 24th instant, at 313 A street southeast, of consumption, HANNAH W. JONES, late of Yazoo, Miss. Her remains will be taken to Greenville, Pa., for burial.
